Won't They Feel Mad When They Fin They Missed $3,100.

BURGLARIZED

Vesterday noon Mr. L. B. Smith, one of he proprietors of the tropical fruit store at 3 Third street, having occasion to visit the was astonished to find that his store had been burglarized. His attention was first called to this fact by finding the doors of his safe open and the contents of the drawers scattered around the room.

On examination Mr. Smith discovered that the thieves had made away with $21 in silver and an overcoat which was hanging in the office. His feelings, however, were much restored when he ascertained that $3,100 in cash and bank certificates, which was in the safe, had been overlooked by the robbers. Mr. Smith left the store at midnight Saturday night and unfortunately left the safe unlocked. The thieves affected an entrance by forcing a door in the rear of the building and fearing discovery if they struck a light, in this way passed the pile of currency. No clue to the thieves has been obtained.
