TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS—
If the Minneapolis Globe is not delivered to the subscriber, the publisher will drop a postal card to the office, No. 331 Kennedy avenue, stating the fact, the matter will be attended to promptly.

The office of the Minneapolis end of the Globe has been removed to 331 Kennedy avenue, rooms 12 and 13, near the corner of the block. Public elevators.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBE LETTERS

On Monday a new municipal court jury will be drawn.

Asbestos stone sidewalk is being laid around the city hall building.

John Callahan lost a toe in one of the flouring mills at the Falls yesterday.

President Walsh, of the city council, has returned from his European trip.

The receipts of wheat at this point yesterday were 16,200 bushels, and the shipments were 1,500 bushels.

George Lamont was before his honor yesterday for dressing A. Drew's eye in deep mourning. It cost him $25 and costs.

Wanted—Two first-class solicitors at once. Call at the GLOBE office, 331 Kennedy avenue, room 12, any evening at six o'clock.

David B. Johnson and bride have returned home from their eastern tour. They will be at once being housekeeping on the East side.

The city board of equalization is in hope of completing its work in time to present its report to the city council at the next meeting.

Mrs. Griffin, of north Second street, says it was not she who played snafu with the windows of her ranch, and is very wroth at the allegations.

As Mrs. Moonland was driving down Nicollet avenue her carriage collided with a rope in front of the Syndicate block, tearing off the top of the carriage.

The horse attached to one of the Riverside street cars fell into the sewer excavation at Eleventh avenue south last evening, from which he was extricated with much difficulty.

Stephen Mosier, employed in Sonnen & Workman's box factory on Nicollet island, crushed three fingers on his right hand in revolving trimmer yesterday. Dr. Ames dressed the wounds.

Last evening at 7 o'clock a Minneapolis & St. Louis engine collided with and demolished express wagon No. 56, which, in turn, was knocked violently against a street lamp and razed it, at the Washington avenue railroad crossing. The driver luckily sprang to the ground in time to save his bacon.

Appeals from the awards of the commissioners appointed to appraise property and award damages in the matter of the condemnation of certain lands for car shops for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, have been filed in the district court by R. P. Russell, et al., Elizabeth Roberts and Mary Nathaniel.

At police headquarters is an assortment of tools of all descriptions, gathered in from Savara's second hand store, which are alleged to be stolen property. Savage claims to have purchased them of responsible parties and hunted up one man of whom he bought some stone hammers, and who declares that they were his.

Frank Hertenback, who keeps an East side saloon, was arrested at the instance of two of his neighbors, who charge him with maintaining a disorderly house. The case was tried in the police court yesterday, when he was found guilty and a fine of $25 and costs was imposed. A stay of proceedings for ten days was granted. Hertenback will probably take an appeal to the district court.

In a communication to the mayor, Louis Amuter, announces the fact that he will soon begin a civil suit against the city to recover damages and cost of medical attendance upon his wife, whom he alleges broke one of the bones in her leg and dislocated a miscarriage, owing to the "insufficiency of the street and street crossing" at the corner of Nicollet avenue and First street. Little credence is given to the allegations.

HUNT WINS
In the Match Against O'Leary, Who Withdrews After Scoring 103 Miles Owing to Sickness—He Challenges Hunt to Another Contest and Hunt Accepts.

THE SCORE.
The pedestrian match between Daniel O'Leary, the ex-champion of the world, and S. K. Hunt, of this city, ended at 9:30 last evening, and which was won by Hunt, the score at that time standing 103 miles and 8 laps and O'Leary an even 103 miles. Straton withdrew early in the morning, having made 37 miles and 12 laps.

O'LEARY INDISPENDED.
At two o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. O'Leary was taken sick with dysentery. At that time, he was 7 laps ahead of Hunt, with excellent prospects of winning the race. His illness compelled him to abandon the track quite frequently, and during those intervals Hunt pushed ahead until he led him two miles. O'Leary then having sufficiently recovered, although still weak from excessive hemorrhage of the bowels, he worked pluckily away until he had reduced the laps between himself and his contestant to one mile and a half. Hunt then struck out and up to 7 o'clock the difference in the scores remained the same. O'Leary not being in physical condition to crowd Hunt the number of miles scored was much less than would have been the case had Mr. O'Leary continued in good health.

100 MILES IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.
At 7 o'clock Hunt began to exert himself, and the large audience which began to file in, wondered why he should hurry when he had the lead, but it was soon whispered that he was endeavoring to make his 100 miles in twenty-four hours from the time of starting. In the endeavor he passed Mr. O'Leary several times. Each time he passed the audience made an effort to enliven O'Leary into a "spurt," but to no avail. He kept his steady gait. At just 8 o'clock Hunt withdrew from the track for a "rubbing down" by his trainer, but he gained his point and the bulletin indicated 100 miles in large, bold figures, with O'Leary over three miles in the rear. The hall echoed with the cheers sent up by his admirers.

Shortly after he reappeared, but went around in a slow, easy pace. O'Leary was now walking with much more vivacity. He stood up firm and erect, and walked with an easy, graceful and elastic step. In a comparatively short time with which each pace was greeted with the applause of the large number of sympathizers and admirers which he had among the audience.

After O'Leary had scored 100 miles with Hunt 102 an interesting contest ensued. Several brilliant spurts were made. The audience arose to their feet throughout the hall, and the greatest enthusiasm and excitement prevailed. Everybody either cheered lustily or applauded vigorously. The spurring, however, unfortunately reduced O'Leary to his former condition and compelled him again to withdraw from the track. Twenty minutes later he appeared and completed his 100th mile when he again withdrew and Dr. Collins, who was in attendance, was summoned to the dressing rooms. A moment elapsed and Dr. Collins appeared, and stepping upon the stage, announced that Mr. O'Leary had been again attacked with the complaint with which he had been suffering for six hours, and was obliged to withdraw from the race. The doctor stated that in his opinion no other pedestrian upon the track would have had the hardihood to continue the match so long under the circumstances. On behalf of the ex-champion he wished to announce to the audience that he

to another match of twenty-seven hours, or longer, heel-and-toe, for $250 a side, making the purse $500.

As the speaker announced the fact of the veteran's withdrawal from the race, all was silence, but no sooner had he given utterance to the challenge to another meeting than enthusiastic cheers rent the air, giving voice to the satisfaction of the people.

HUNT ACCEPTS.
Mr. Hunt then stepped quietly on the stage, and, after thanking the people for their kindly interest in the race, accepted the challenge, stating that after a rest over Sunday he would be ready for another meeting with his friend the ex-champion.

Subsequently Mr. Hunt requested the reporter of the GLOBE to state that he had found in both Mr. Magee and Mr. O'Leary thorough gentlemen with whom he was pleased to match his powers.

Mr. Magee is confident that his favorite can "down" Hunt next time, and it is quite probable that much larger sums of money will change hands in that, than in the match just closed.

Since Mr. O'Leary's coming here he has formed many warm friendships and is already a great favorite.

How the Board of Education Spends the People's Money.

The following pertinent criticism upon the pecuniary liberality of the Minneapolis board of education in spending the people's money is furnished by the Critic World:

The city board of education are exceedingly liberal in the disposition of the public funds.

They generously pay Prof. Tonsley, our central to Tonsley, the paltry sum of $1,300, but why they do so they have not condescended to explain. The professor voluntarily resigned the superintendency and accepted a foreign mission at a salary of $5,500 per annum as a reward for his political services. This is $700 in excess of his income as an educator, and so he prudently left his country to reside abroad.

What services the professor can render our city schools while attending to his consular duties we do not know, but opine they can not be enough to warrant the board in paying him the amount above stated.

Prof. Moore, who succeeds him, is willing to work for $1,500 a year, and if we can judge of his ability by the modest salary received, he certainly is not the right man to take Prof. Tonsley's position. If it took a Tonsley to run the schools in years gone by, it would require a man equal or superior administrative ability to run them now, when our population is 75,000 inhabitants. We have no fault to find with the professor in taking the money, nor with Prof. Moore for working for nearly half the salary of his predecessor, but we think the board had no right to act as they have done. We notice that some of the members of the board have large bank stocks, and would be more pleasing to our tax payers if they paid out of their own money than out of the public exchequer. Probably Consul Tonsley may open telephonic communication with the city schools and assist Prof. Moore in running the machine. We shall see.

Police Regulations.
The following explains itself:

Col. A. S. Munger, Chief of Police:

Sir—For the purpose of securing still better service and discipline of your already very efficient department, I have decided to establish two police precinct stations, viz:

Precinct station No. 1—At police headquarters in the city hall, to be under the command of Captain A. C. Berry and Sergeant John West.

Precinct station No. 2—At No. 100 Cedar avenue, in the East division, to be under the command of Captain M. T. Chase and Sergeant W. W. Bosworth.

You will make such regulations for roll calls, reports and details for non-uniform men and patrolmen for the stations as are necessary to secure the most thorough service and discipline. I desire that you have full reports sent from the precinct stations to your headquarters daily. Very respectfully,

A. A. AXES, Mayor.

Bound Over.
Michael Connon who held up J. R. Nelson, the deputy health inspector, a few nights ago on Cedar avenue, was examined in the police court. The evidence introduced went to show that under the threat of cutting Nelson into mince meat with an ugly looking knife which he held in his hand, Nelson was "persuaded" to hand over $10, and that he then rifled his pockets of $2 more. At the conclusion of the testimony, Judge Cooley held him to the action of the grand jury, in bonds to the sum of $700, which bonds he held.

Municipal Court.
[Before Judge Cooley.]

Henry Benson, drunkenness; discharged.
John Lester, drunkenness; committed seven days.

Ole Anderson, drunkenness; paid $5.
Alex Peterson, drunkenness; discharged.

Thomas Gallagher, abusive language; continued until Tuesday afternoon.

Frank Hertenback, disorderly house; tried and a fine of $25 and costs imposed. Stay of proceedings until August 7th granted.

Peter Newman, keeping vicious dog; dismissed.

George Lamont, assault and battery upon A. Drew. Fined $35 and costs, netting $30.45; paid.

J. L. Lincoln, allowing horse to run at large within the city limits; dismissed.

Michael Cronan, larceny from person. Examined and bound over to the action of the grand jury in the sum of $700; bonds filed.

STILLWATER.

For assaulting Fred Bean Phil Faley paid $15.

The young man that assaulted Officer Shatuck was fined $37 in the police court today.

The circuit court has adjourned until next Tuesday morning. Judge Crosby will preside.

The street force are engaged in lowering the grade of Chestnut street, between Second and Third streets.

John Donahue was sent to the stone pile for fifteen days, for assaulting another hand on board the steamer James Watson.

Peter Whalen, who at one time was a very respectable man, was this morning committed to jail eight days for vagrancy.

Farmers will commence cutting wheat pretty generally by the middle of next week. Harvest hands are reported as not being over plenty.

The north side of Holcomb's block present a very fine appearance since the scaffolding is taken down and one can see what the mechanics were about.

Stillwater must have a union depot. It certainly is one of the great business needs of the city, and now that the business men are moving in the matter favorable results are pretty sure to follow.

The want of tenement houses is yet one of the great needs of the city. Notwithstanding the large number of dwelling houses that have been erected the present season, the demand is still in excess of the supply.

The owners of the St. Croix block have had numerous applications for three new stores when completed. No permanent agreement has yet been made, but it is probable that the rooms will be occupied by a merchant of this city.

A vagrant who had managed to get so full that he was unable to stand up laid down in Simpson's alley, close up against the side of a building. He had just got fairly asleep when Officer Shatuck appeared on the ground and yanked him off to the lock up. As justice does not work on Sunday the vag will have a good long time to sober off in.

End of the Strike.

McKENESPORT, Pa., Aug. 5.—It is generally ordered this morning and non-uniform men are unmoored. As the authorities began making arrests last night it has had a quieting effect.

The authorities have posted the riot act over the town. Manager J. G. Flagler accompanied the men to work at 5 o'clock this morning. Women stood on two blocks and bleated like sheep, but none followed. The non-uniform men will be protected under all circumstances by the company, and citizens. Increased forces in mill to-day and the strikers feel blue. The strike may be called a failure so far as this place is concerned. Arrests will be made of any man or woman who molests by word or action any person desiring to go to work. This is specifically ordered by Burgess Inskeep. No further trouble is expected.

Sent Up for Three Years.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 5.—August Bland-vaski, the theatrical manager who was arrested for forgery in this city a few days ago, pleaded guilty in the criminal court this morning and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the house of correction.

Robert T. Lincoln is now the sole survivor of the family of Abraham Lincoln.

NO MORE SPARKING EXHIBITIONS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The corporation council decides that a contest such as the recent glove fight between Sullivan and Wilson, is a prize fight within the meaning of the law and the police have ample power to prevent any such exhibition and to arrest all parties concerned, principals and spectators.

THE LOUISVILLE FAIR.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 5.—The Louisville Fair association has been obliged to change the date from October to September 12.

The meeting will continue five days, with two tracts each day, beginning with the Kentucky station race for $15,000, Nutwood and Alexander being required to go to wagons. The programme is said to be most extraordinary in attractions and $1,200 of the premiums have been given by the business men of Louisville.

AND THE END IS NOT YET.

LONG BRANCH, Aug. 5.—The executive committee of the Monmouth Park association find that Kelly's charges against Walton are not sustained. The committee, however, added a new rule prohibiting giving presents to jockeys for the purpose of making them win races. Walton says he will sue Kelly for defamation of character.

Effects of the Storm.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 5.—Information today is that trains on the Ohio Central road are not running further south than Mohabala, and will require several weeks of repair before they can get beyond that point. Their loss by the water spout of Thursday is much greater than at first suspected. From three miles north of Corning down to South Bend and up the west branch of the Ohio Central to Buckingham, a distance of sixteen or eighteen miles, the track is almost entirely destroyed. For miles it cannot be observed that a rail was located there. Most all the line's stock in the two valleys was swept away. It is believed the loss to the railroad, mines and private individuals will aggregate $500,000.

About thirty striking freight handlers returned to work in New York Saturday at the old rates.

The Work House.

A meeting of the directors of the St. Paul work house was held this morning at the mayor's office. Every director was present, Mr. Lamson in the chair, John J. Watson secretary.

Many questions incident to putting the work house in operation at an early day were canvassed. Communications received from several of the great institutions of the kind throughout the country were read and considered.

The election of a superintendent was postponed until the return from the east of those directors who have been instructed to visit the similar establishments in other cities. The directors evidently "mean business" and it will not be many weeks before looking in jail will be obsolete in St. Paul and that dread thing, labor, substituted therefor.

Chicago Horse Fair.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—The programme for the Chicago horse fair, September 6th to 23d, inclusive, announces premiums aggregating upwards of $15,000. There are eleven events, including the following: $1,000 purses for the 2:45 class, 2:55 class, 2:31 class, 2:35 pacing, 2:30 class, 3:00 class, 2:35 class, a free to all pacing, and for a 2:17 class; a $2,000 purse open to all stallions and a special four year old stake open to Phil Thompson, Farce, Bronze, Fred Crocker, Jay Eye See and Waiting, and any other four-year-olds. If two of those above-named start the association adds $1,000, if three $1,500, if four or more $2,000. A special sensational purse will be announced for the last day, about September 1. The entries close Monday, August 15, at 11 p. m.

At Chautauqua.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Ex-President Rev. Mark Hopkins, D. D., of Williams college, delivered his memorial address on Garfield in the amphitheatre, which was crowded by a large audience, which repeatedly cheered the venerable speaker. At 4 p. m. the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific circle was celebrated. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. J. H. Vincent, the originator of the plan; Rev. Dr. Mark Hopkins, Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. church, and Rev. Dr. Leonard, of Cincinnati.

Murder Most Foul.

CHILLICOTTE, O., Aug. 5.—Benj. Wilshire was murdered late this afternoon. The circumstances point plainly to a man named Giddings as the murderer. Two weeks ago Mrs. Wilshire eloped with Giddings. Wilshire was followed and induced his wife to return. Giddings appeared to-day, and half an hour before the killing Wilshire and Giddings were seen to enter a cornfield together, where shortly after a farmer having heard two shots found Wilshire's dead body. Giddings has escaped.

Cannot Agree.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Private advices from Boston state the conference between the officers of the Burlington, Atchison and Union Pacific roads adjourned without reaching an agreement, but will meet again next week. It is believed here they will agree on a compromise allowing the three companies to occupy certain territories in Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado with new lines.

Yellow Fever.

BROWNVILLE, Aug. 5.—About fifty cases of fever here and increasing rapidly. One death, a German named Tuast, recently from Europe. The conflicting reports about the existence of the disease at country points are not reliable.
