

SOCIAL WORLD.

The restoration of festivities after the Lenten season was the event of the week in social circles. The solemn fact was, however, that Lent had not been as clearly observed as it might by society, and hence while the throng of pleasure seekers was increased last week, there were many who could not see much difference between before and after the supposed religious suspension of gaiety. There were balls and suppers and suppers and balls in number to suit almost anyone, and so there were forty days previous.

Mrs. M. D. Currier, of Waldoborough, Maine, is visiting Mrs. G. W. Mayce. The Kangaroos met at Gen. Flower's residence on Ashland avenue, Thursday evening last.

The Swedish society Vega will give a calico ball, at Pfeiffer hall, on Saturday evening, April 14.

Mrs. Geo. W. Magee and son have returned to the city after an extended trip through the East.

Mrs. V. C. Seward and daughter, of Stillwater, are guests of Mrs. S. S. Taylor of Sherburne avenue.

J. R. Hegen and wife, of the celebrated Grandin farm, Dakota, are among the guests at the Merchants.

Mrs. E. E. Reiser has arrived at San Antonio, Texas, in safety, and will remain there for three or four weeks.

Mr. Henry M. Taber and wife, and the two Misses Taber, New York city, have apartments at the Merchants.

Arthur Hutt has resigned his position as scenic artist at Wood's Opera house, and will soon leave for St. Louis.

Miss Maggie Porter, who added so much to the choir of Christ church on Easter Sunday, will assist in the singing at that church to-day.

The fine residence on Rice park which they have been erecting for a year past, was occupied by Drs. Stewart and Wheaton and their families yesterday.

Dr. W. B. Robb, a recent graduate of the Medical university, New York city, arrived home yesterday morning. Dr. Robb will probably locate in St. Paul.

Mr. F. B. Jilson having salted down quite a comfortable fortune in the recent sale of the telephone company has gone East with his wife for a pleasure tour.

Miss Patty M. Flandrau, daughter of Judge Flandrau, will be married to Mr. Tilden R. Selmes in June at the home of her aunt, Miss Julie Dinmore, Boone county, Kentucky.

Gen. R. N. McLaren leaves here in a day or two for an extended absence from the city. It is possible he may receive a Dakota appointment before his return and remain in that territory.

Norman Wright, Esq., of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the owner of considerable property in this city, will come to St. Paul in a few weeks to make this his permanent abode. He will engage in active business here.

The Excelsior Social club will give their second dance at College hall April 10. Stein's band has been secured for the occasion. All those who receive an invitation may be sure of a very pleasant time.

Miss Lily Matheis, daughter of John Matheis, entertained in royal style a party of about forty friends at her Walnut street home on Friday night. Prof. Roese supplied the music, and the evening was a delightful one.

At the part rehearsal on Thursday evening, preparatory to the Thomas concert, there was a conspicuous absence of male voices. This will not do, gentlemen, and the friends of the enterprise are growing nervous, fearing that it may impair the excellence of the festival, which with your necessary co-operation will surely prove a grand success.

Indianapolis Sentinel: W. J. Freaney, one of the most popular and energetic business men of this city, left Thursday for St. Paul, Minn., where he has established a branch of his plumbing establishment. St. Paul is to be congratulated in securing a gentleman of the worth and business integrity of Mr. Freaney, and Indianapolis loses one of its most respected and promising young merchants.

The X. L. met at Dr. Higbee's last Tuesday evening, on which occasion there was a large attendance. Two papers were presented upon Milan. The first, which treated of the physical and historical features of the famous city, was read by Mr. Bernard and showed care in preparation and was well received. Mr. Barton followed by giving an interesting description of the churches and the great cathedral. Mrs. Dorr and Miss Nellie Thurston sang a duet. Mr. Thurston and Miss Coddling each contributed a solo.

At the recent "Old Folks' Concert," at the Dayton Avenue Presbyterian church, the singing of Miss Julia Coddling gave great delight. This estimable young lady possesses musical talent of a high order and is a vocalist of promise. It is to be hoped her sweet, melodious voice will often be heard in public. At the same pleasing entertainment Mr. Nathan Ford was upon his native heath as "time-beater" in fact his many friends are clearly of the opinion that he rather "beats" old Father Time himself, which is a compliment this genial gentleman is wholly worthy of.

The Easter services by the children at Christ church was one of the most charming and gratifying that church has ever enjoyed, and if such occasions could frequently occur it would greatly add to the spiritual and social interest of the Sunday school. The carols rendered by the choir of boys and the choir of girls were spoken of with especial approbation. It is gratifying indeed to see young children so proficient in the divine art of song, and we hope that special attention will continue to be paid to the development of this choice gift.

Reception and Fancy Dress Party.

The third annual reception and fancy dress party of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm's juvenile dancing class came off at Sherman hall last evening, and it can be said without exaggeration that it was the most brilliant affair of the kind ever given in the city. The reception commenced at 7 o'clock and continued until 10, during which time the following programme was given: March, Lanciers, Waltz, Saratoga Lanciers, Newport Glide, Lawn Tennis Quadrille, Polka Bohemian, Military Schottische, Saratoga Lanciers, concluding with the German. The music was by Siefert's orchestra. A large number of spectators, principally parents of the members of the class were in attendance and manifested a very lively interest in the bright and interesting scene presented. The costumes were exceedingly rich and tasty, and represented princes, cavaliers, soldiers, peasant and flower girls, gypsies, the seasons, shepherdess, folly, fairy, pages, George Washington, gleaner, Spanish girl, London lad, Italian rainbow, Zingara, Patience, archer, sailor, domino, snow, courtier, juggler, nobleman, Polish lady, Marguerite, Raymond and Agnes in the story of Vilhan, in addition to which there were several fancy dresses that cannot be described in detail. The combination of colors, as the fair and gallant wearers moved through the figures of the different dances was most charming, as was also the courtly dignity of the young gallants, and the winning grace with which their attentions were received by their fair partners.

A Unique Entertainment.

Those who were fortunate enough to be at Plymouth chapel Friday evening witnessed one of the most unique entertainments of the season. The costumes were fine and as the different characters appeared in their frames in the art gallery the effect was far more like fine old oil paintings than one could imagine. The paper costumes worn by those who composed the "Wild Flower Garden" were especially noticeable, being made by the young ladies who wore them. Daisy, rose, pansy, sunflower and poppy were represented. The "Twins" created no end of fun. The number and variety of the characters were a surprise to the visitors. Mrs. Bessie Strong Worthington as "Dolly Varden" rendered some fine selections. Mr. Willich as a "Wanderer" sang a German song in his best manner and the entire programme was fully enjoyed.

The Indian chief was represented by one who has served as scout and interpreter among the Sioux and who gave a short oration in their language.

Masquerade Ball.

The union depot employees give a masquerade ball at Market hall on Tuesday evening next. The remembrance of the great success of their ball last year will draw many new faces the current season. There will be a grand street parade on Tuesday afternoon, which will be led by Prince Carnival and his cavaliers. One of the features of the evening will be the awarding of the following prizes:

1. For the most graceful round dancing couple will be awarded the championship and two beautiful gold medals.
 2. For the most elegantly dressed lady will be given a handsome silk plush dressing case.
 3. For the most comic dressed lady will be given an elegant toilet set.
 4. For the most elegantly dressed gent will be given a very rich hammered water pitcher set.
 5. For the most comic dressed gent will be given a fine cut glass wine set.
 6. For the best masqued gent will be given a large cabinet mirror.
 7. For the best masqued group, $10 gold piece.
 8. For the most natural and complete animal masque, $5 gold piece.
- The prince and princess will be appointed and are not entitled to a prize.

A Correspondent Who Don't Agree With the Fairbault Assassin.

To the Editor of the Globe: St. Paul, March 30.—There is not an educated Irishman in Ireland or America who has a thought that the Emerald Isle can make any progress towards securing its rights as a province of Great Britain, from that government, by the use of explosives, destroying property and endangering the lives of the innocent as well as those of the guilty, by the use of the knife or gun of the secret assassin, or by any other barbarous or violent measures, which only serve the British government as an excuse, and one which the civilized world will not interfere with, to rivet the chains of Ireland's oppression still tighter.

The course taken by Farnell and other distinguished real friends of Ireland, both of her nativity and not of it, in fighting for the amelioration of the sufferings of the Irish people in parliament, and those seeking to release her from the unjust laws of landlords, and secure her impartial trial in the courts, has met with the universal sympathy of the civilized world, and was sure in the end, with gathered impetus and adherents in the house of commons, to bring about a revolution in England's obnoxious method in governing that country.

But the Phoenix park murder, and the blowing up of the government buildings in London with dynamite, and the reign of terror threatened by the importation of deadly explosives into the cities of England, are the acts of a mad and unreasonable set of hot-heads on both sides of the Atlantic, who by these acts retard for years the liberation of Ireland from a shameful thralldom.

If the intelligence of the Irish citizenship of Ireland and America could hold the fort and suppress the wild spirit of folly of those who want to hoist the world with a petard in five minutes and to have their own personal hatreds thus gratified, the cause of suffering Ireland would sooner be served, but as it has been in the past, and is in the present, the efforts of that nation's wiser minds to win her redemption from despotic rule, by strategic and diplomatic measures, have always been frustrated by the uncontrollable belligerent mistakes of their own race.

The strong sympathies of that people as a people, their valor in the armies of the old world and in those of this republic, their wonderful generosity towards their suffering kinsmen, and their unquerable love of their native land, give them the admiration of the civilized world, and it is one of the strangest of things strange, that their revolutionary spirits fail so signally to take guidance from those who among their own statesmen, churchmen and professional minds are always discountenancing and condemning these violent and hair-brained measures, which, when undertaken, have always come to naught, and proved so disastrous in consequences to a true and good cause, only to be triumphant by the exercise of sound judgment and common sense.

RAIDING REDSKINS.

A Conspiracy Amongst Them—Our Troops Not Keeping Posted—More Men Killed—Citizens Threaten to Take Vengeance in Their Own Hands.

St. Louis, March 31.—A correspondent of the Republic, writing from Globeville under date of the 20th inst., referring to the Indian troubles, says: Agent Wilcox obstinately denies that any Apaches are off the reservation, but no statement of his, official or otherwise, has any weight with the people, for his previous statements regarding the status at San Carlos prove false. It is demonstrated that the massacres in progress in both territories are perpetrated by the White Mountain Apaches from San Carlos, allied with some of the Jans and Jerommas Chiricahua fresh from Mexico. These latter are the San Carlos Apaches who left the reservation Sept. 30, 1881, returned unmolested to San Carlos the following April and renewed their strength by the accession of Chief Locost's band and after killing the chief of police, Sterling, and an Indian scout, went on a grand raid throughout the territory. After killing 143 people altogether, they returned to Mexico from which they have recently emerged again. Connection has been kept up during the winter between these Chiricahua chiefs in Mexico and their confederates in San Carlos and a thorough understanding exists between them. The feeling against Gen. Crook is outspoken and severe, because he has not made himself acquainted with these facts, and taken measures to prevent an outbreak or to meet the Indians who were known to be coming up from the south.

FIFTY-NINE PERSONS KILLED IN NINE DAYS.

TUCSON, ARIZ., March 31.—The White Mountain Indians are on the war path this morning. Unless something is accomplished, there is certain danger of an attempt by an organized body of citizens from Clifton, Globe, Tombstone and the San Carlos reservation people, not waiting to give Crook an opportunity. Twenty-seven were killed in nine days at Hermosillo, Mexico; thirty-two persons killed in nine days by hostiles moving toward Arizona through sparsely settled regions.

THREE MEN KILLED.

LORENSBURG, Cal., March 31.—A dispatch from Separ states that three men were killed between Separ and Animas valley this morning. The Indians came within one mile of Separ last night to an abandoned house. Capt. Black and his rangers are following the trail. A fight may be expected at any moment. The Indians are doubtless making for old Mexico, and fears are entertained they will reach there before the rangers can overtake them.

COMING IN SHORT OF FULL NUMBERS.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., The shortage of rations issued this week is less than usual and amounts to 7,000 pounds on count today. Simmons, who does that work, said to Chief Skinny Tail, there is not one-sixteenth of your band here, and I will not count you out all. Another chief was eight men short out of a small band. Mass meetings will be held throughout the country to take steps regarding the Indian question.

TO SPARE NO PRISONERS.

TUCSON, A. T., March 31.—It is reported that Capt. Dougherty, who is scouting the country between Dragoon summit and Sulphur Springs valley, has had orders from Gen. Crook to take no Indian prisoners. J. H. Carroll, of Gila Valley, was surrounded by a large band of Indians north of Carlisle last night, but escaped into Richmond.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—A gentleman from Arizona confirms the report that a general society exists among the whites in Arizona to exterminate the male Apaches on the San Carlos reservation, and all found roving north of the frontier. The reservation is looked upon as a mere refuge for the Indians, where they retire when hard pressed to obtain provisions, arms, etc., ready for another raid. JUDGE MCCOMAS' WIFE AND THREE PROSPECTORS KILLED.

SANTA FE, N. M., March 31.—The Shakespear Guards, Capt. Black, doing service against the Indians, have made their appearance on the lower Gila. Black moved through the Skins pass, above the canon route, usually taken by the Indians returning to Mexico. This together with the fact that regulars were moving out on the railroad, caused the Indians to cross the plains into the Burr mountains. Black procured fresh horses and followed so closely that the Indians were compelled to abandon their horses and plunder, and took to the mountains on the South Pacific road on foot. When last heard from Black was in hot pursuit. It will be difficult for mountain troops to follow into the mountains. The movement into New Mexico is not a raid, but an effort to get back into Mexico by the least difficult route.

They killed Judge McComas, wife and three prospectors yesterday because they happened to be in the route of escape. Black is reported to have fought to-day and lost several men, but it lacks confirmation.

Thompson, with a body of the Fourth cavalry, is still in pursuit, and will follow the hostiles into Mexico. A recent treaty gives them the right.

RECRUITS GOING ON.

St. Louis, Mo., March 31.—Eighty-seven recruits from the Fourth and Sixth cavalry, the former stationed at New Mexico, and the latter in Arizona, have been sent from Jefferson barracks, twelve miles south of this city, since the 22d inst., and sixty more for the First cavalry in California will be sent in a few days.

DE LESSEPS.

His Latest Undertaking in Africa.

The indefatigable De Lesseps is starting on a new adventure. In a few days he will be in North America, on behalf of a private company, to look once more into the project of an inland sea in the desert of Sahara to the south of the French possessions. The project has been often talked of, but it was thought to be decisively condemned when the government commission reported the other day that it was not practicable. M. de Lesseps and his company were by no means satisfied with this conclusion. They sent an agent of their own to make reports, and M. de Lesseps is now going to test this report for himself. There were nearly a hundred gray-beards, it appears, on the commission, and M. de Lesseps thinks there were too many by half. They came to the conclusion that those parts adjacent to the sea through which it was proposed to cut the canal for flooding the low-lying region were rocky and hardly to be pierced. M. de Lesseps declares they are of sand. "They are very much above the sea level," says the commission. "They are nothing of the sort," says M. de Lesseps. His theory here, as at Suez, is that what has been may be again, and he is strongly of the opinion that there was once an interior sea or great salt water lake in this region. The savants reported against that conclusion; "if there had been, we should have found in the present dry bed large deposits of salt, and we find nothing of the sort." M. de Lesseps has no more respect for this opinion than for the others. "You may have a salt sea without salt deposits where salt currents pass through what would otherwise be a fresh water lake, as in the Mediterranean and elsewhere." M. de Lesseps professes to have had enough of savants and government committees; all that he wishes in this instance is to be let alone. He wants to have the glory of putting his name to a third great engineering work of all time; but can he do it by merely stealing a few days from his work at Suez and Panama? It is magnificent, but hardly engineering; at this rate he will find his Moscow one day: Qui trop embrasse mal etringle!
