Dr. Norcross and Miss Ella Cox Will Quietly Wed This Evening

Dr. C. V. Norcross and Miss Ella Cox have been married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. R. Adams, several miles out on the Public Road, corner of Broadview and dependence street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James D. Holmstrom.

The bride was a most attractive girl, and the groom a gentleman of good breeding. Miss Cox is a native of Butte and has been a prominent figure in commercial and social circles here for several years. Her husband is a highly respectable citizen who has been employed as a bank agent. The couple will spend their honeymoon at the Union Camp, Whitehall, Montana.

dr. C. V. Norcross and Miss Ella Cox

SCAVENGER MAKES A HAUL.

Beckas a Valuer and Bell of Montana Went Out the Century.

Allotment in the last drift was made to the subdivision of a tract of land in the vicinity of Butte City. The allotment was made by Bell Gillman, who proved the allotment and was signed by Bell Gillman, and was a check of the facts.

The allotment was made to the subdivision of a tract of land in the vicinity of Butte City. The allotment was made by Bell Gillman, who proved the allotment and was signed by Bell Gillman, and was a check of the facts.

The allotment was made to the subdivision of a tract of land in the vicinity of Butte City. The allotment was made by Bell Gillman, who proved the allotment and was signed by Bell Gillman, and was a check of the facts.