TRIED TO SHOVE HIM BOGUS COIN

BARTENDER IS CHIEF WITNESS IN CASE OF YOUR UNCLE SAM AGAINST SULLIVAN.

James Sullivan, who was arrested under the name of Tom Sullivan on a charge of uttering and passing bogus dollars on Louis Werlin, keeper of a saloon at No. 815 Utah avenue, on July 14, is being given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Naughton. The hearing began today, but was continued without completion until 11 o'clock tomorrow in order to secure the presence of Mr. Werlin's brother, who took in three bogus quarters during July 14.

Sullivan was arrested in a cabin at the rear of No. 705 Wyoming street. John Tighe, Tom Kelly and another man were with him and were also arrested. All, with the exception of Sullivan, were discharged from custody yesterday, as there was no evidence to connect them with the bogus money deal.

Before the hearing began Policeman McGillie turned over to the commissioner three bogus quarters and a bogus dollar, the jingle of which was like that of the real article.

Werlin told the commissioner that Sullivan had bought a can of beer and gave his brother the bogus dollar from which to deduct 25 cents, the price of the beverage. The alleged money was handed over to the witness at the time of the transactions and the latter said he told Sullivan he could not do any business with that brand of coin there. He said Sullivan got mad about it and tried to convince him the coin was good. Then Officer Byrne was called, but before he arrived Sullivan had left the place without his change.

Werlin's brother intends to testify that during the same day Sullivan passed one of the three quarters on him and that he took in the other two from some one he thought was Sullivan.
