BIG WILBER WELL KNOWN ABOUT HERE

COLLEGE ATHLETE WHO PLAYED FOOTBALL IN MONTANA, DISBARRED FROM YALE GRIDIRON.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—The Montana lovers of football will no doubt remember "Big Wilbur," the guard who played with the Anaconda team of 1898, and with Percy Benson's Montana Athletics of Butte, the year following.

Before coming to this part of the country Wilbur had played the game in many different sections of the country, notably at Yale. He went back to Yale this year and made an excellent showing; in fact, he was the best line-man that had been seen on the Yale gridiron for a number of years, but several days ago he was disbarred from the play on a charge of professionalism.

Wilbur, in training, stands 6 feet 4 inches and tips the scales at 225. He can cover 100 yards in less than 11 seconds and in the hurdles and the high jump is there with the goods.

N. P. IS PAYING LESS MONEY

Taxes in This County Are Much Smaller Than Heretofore.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—It is learned from the records that were filed in County Treasurer Twoby's office yesterday that the Northern Pacific Railroad company will this year pay less taxes to the county than before.

According to the entries, on their trackage in the county the company will pay $3,369.81; for property at Stuart and Race track, $46.77; on buildings, $28.96, and for property in Anaconda, $1.35. The lands owned by the company call for $190.70, which brings the total taxes up to $3,637.59, representative of a valuation of a little more than $300,000.

Taxes to the amount of $7,495.80 will be paid by the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific, which is larger than the assessment last year.

TO CONDUCT THE CAMPAIGN

Demmes Will Meet to Discuss the Best Methods Obtainable.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—Important matters concerning the best method for conducting the campaign will come up at the meeting of the democratic county central committee, to be held tonight in the Jefferson club's headquarters.

It is likely that the committee will set the time and place for the big public rally which it is proposed to hold soon. Some of the speakers to address the big meeting are expected to be on hand tonight and deliver short talks.

WHERE WAS PROVOCATION?

Hugh McMillan Says It Was Without It That McMillan Assaulted Him.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—On the request of Hugh McMillan, a warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of John McMillan.

McMillan alleges in his complaint that last Wednesday McMillan assaulted him without provocation at the corner of Park avenue and Cedar street.

ANACONDA MILLMEN WILL AID STRIKERS

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—Success last night attended the efforts of those who have been working hard to raise funds for the striking anthracite miners in the East, and Turner hall was crowded with an enthusiastic audience.

J. C. Haggerty presided at the meeting, and after opening with a few remarks on the general situation, introduced Judge W. H. Trippett, who made an eloquent address. He refuted the contention of the coal owners that there is nothing to arbitrate, and stated that the striking miners demanded only what is their just and lawful rights, asking the same privileges as miners in other states.

After a brief address by J. H. Durston, a resolution was passed expressing sympathy for the strikers and their families, and condemning the railroads and operators for refusing to arbitrate the difference.

Others who spoke on the coal situation were J. R. Boardman, Joseph McCaffrey, A.

B. Keith, W. H. Rogers and Mayor Stephens.

During the evening a telegram was received from the Butte Miners' and Trades unions stating that $3,000 had been raised in that city. A subscription was started at the meeting last night, and it is thought that Anaconda will do as well as Butte in proportion to the population.

Under the auspices of the Mill & Smeltermen's union a ball will be given on October 14, when it is expected that a large sum will be realized.

A large committee was appointed last night by Mr. Haggerty to solicit funds for the aid of the miners, and the members will meet at Silver hall, Sunday, October 12, at 3 o'clock, when ways and means to accomplish the best results will be discussed. Contribution boxes are being put in all the prominent business places so that the general public may have an opportunity to contribute whatever they may desire.

REPUBLICAN PLANS NOT MADE PUBLIC

COUNTY COMMITTEE DOES THINGS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS—TO SEE TO REGISTRATION.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—The republican county central committee met in its regular weekly session last night and transacted some business that is evidently of considerable importance to the campaign, because it was not made public.

The one thing which they did do and are willing to have the outsider know about, was to complete a more perfect organization of the city and county. Republicanism is shining brightly in Deer Lodge county this fall, and the light will by no means be hidden under a bushel.

The registration begins next Monday. Last night the central committee took measures that will tend to result in a fair and just registration, according to law. It is that that the registration this fall will be one of the largest ever conducted in the county. Such is the interest manifested in political matters, although in a very quiet way.

AND YOU WANT TO GO DOWN

"Florodora" Will Be at the Margaret Tomorrow Evening.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—The very large portfolio of musical gems with which Composer Leslie Stuart has so artistically supplied "Florodora" has certainly reached a degree of popularity never before attained by any other musical comedy offering.

When one takes into consideration the very unusual melody with which he has supplied "Florodora," it is not to be wondered at that it should be the great success that it is.

It is hardly likely that there is any one at all musically blessed who has not been charmed by the very melodious strains of "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden," or the beautiful notes of "Under the Shade of the Palms," not to overlook the dash and spirit contained in "When I Leave Town," "I Want to be a Military Man," "Phrenology," etc., etc.

"Florodora" will be at the Margaret theater tomorrow night.

ANTLERS DANCING PROGRAM

First Meeting Has Been Set for Friday, October 24.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—The organization of the Antlers Dancing club is progressing nicely. Present indications point to a membership about the same as that of last year.

The date of the first dance has been set for Friday evening, October 24. Subsequent dances will be held every two weeks.

The Antlers is the most successful organization of its kind that ever flourished in this city, and as those in charge this year are practically the same as last, there is no reason to doubt the successful continuance of the club throughout the winter.

Suspended Sentence.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—John McMillan, who was arrested yesterday at the instigation of Hugh McMillan, who charged McMillan with assaulting him, appeared in the police court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $10 by Police Judge Hayes, with sentence suspended during future good behavior.

LEY'S PEERLESS ELECTRIC THEATRE

Opens up Saturday, and will continue every night from 7 to 10, with ladies' and children's matinees Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Realizing the wants of the citizens of Anaconda, we have gone to the expense of fitting one up which truly is a credit not alone to this city, but would be appreciated and welcomed in many of the largest populated towns of this glorious Union. We have invested many thousands of dollars, and yet we have placed the price of admission so low considering the class of entertainments to be given, that entire families can enjoy an evening's entertainment occasionally. We have added a number of the latest productions in life-moving picture specialties, and in addition Mrs. Levy, the lyric soprano, will appear in her famous electrical serpentine dances, illustrated songs and other specialties.

Admission, 15 cents; children, 10 cents. 316 East Park avenue, Anaconda.

LOCAL ROOTERS TO MARK THE VICTORY

ANACONDA FANS ARE AS PLEASED AS BUTTE FOLK AT THE GOOD WORK OF MACLANES.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—Today the Anaconda fans are pleased. They have a pleasant word for every one. And all because the Butte team won the pennant and Montana has once more demonstrated her ability to lead in whatever line she chooses.

For the past week the fans have been in a quiver of expectancy. The scores of the games were eagerly watched and a strict account kept of the standing of the teams. When last night's scores were posted, the word ran down the line that the Butte team had clinched the pennant. And then there were things doing. The work of McCloskey's aggregation has been followed closely all season, and the spirits of the Anaconda enthusiasts have been going up and down with the percentage of the "MacLanes."

There are many reasons why Anacondians are glad to see the Butte team win out. The first is that it is Montana on top. The next is that the majority of McCloskey's players are personal friends of almost all the baseball cranks in this city, and they like to see them win. And then after that there is another reason, "Jimmy" McHale is playing with the Butte boys, and if McHale played with a band of Hottentot rooters from Anaconda.

THEY HAVE INTEREST IN IT

Roach and Smith Lost by a Recent Robbery by a Bad Gang.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—One firm in this city at least is interested in the arrest of Barney Miller in Great Falls on Wednesday.

When the Northern Pacific express car was robbed last August by a band of crooks, of which Miller is believed to be the leader, a box of cutlery consigned to Roach & Smith of Anaconda was among the articles stolen.

The shipment was valued at about $348, and of that amount the local firm has recovered only about $60 worth.

SPORTING NEWS

tached to the bag and sent it clear down the center aisle back to the door at the main entrance.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons makes a good appearance on the stage. Her gowns are rich and elegant and some of the sparkling diamonds she wears were enough to cause women in the audience to yearn for a champion to marry. Mrs. Bob is also of a higher grade in her stage work than most of the company and gives evidence of the training of her maiden days.

Little Bob Is a Winner.
Little Bob Fitz is a winner with the audience. He doesn't say much, but it swelled many a youngster's heart last night to see the little fellow working the towel for his "pop" and rubbing down the big pugilist.

Last night little Bob got off a speech which wasn't down in the manuscript and he tickled the audience. The music was inimitably bad, for some reason or other, and failed to break in at the proper time. During one of the rests between the bouts, the little one stopped swinging the towel and walked to the footlights.

"Say," to the leader of the orchestra, "give us some dry music there"—and the band played.

There's just enough of the melo-drama in the succeeding scenes to carry the gallery along to the climax, when Fitz leaves to lick his man and win that purse, leaving behind him this juicy morsel as he cautions his wife to have a good meal ready for him:

"Knocking out a man always gives me an appetite."
This last served to keep the gallery on the qui vive until Mrs. Fitz sinks fainting into a seat and her dream of victory is shown with the kinetoscope, flashing the fight between Fitz and Gus Rublin. The pictures are really good and worth the price of the admission as showing a fast fight in which Fitz finally lands that awful hook and Rublin goes down for the second and last time.

It Is Worth Seeing.
Many of the men pictured in the kinetoscope are recognizable and the scene is wholly life-like and realistic.

The play closes with Fitz appearing once more, fresh from the ring where he knocked out a victory. The blacksmith comes in dressed in regulation fighting togs, with the exception that he wears a deeply carved jersey and full length tights instead of just a pair of short trunks.

There is no doubt of Fitz being a success this season on the road. The same kind of houses have greeted him everywhere and for the run in Butte the sales are phenomenal. Seats are nearly all taken for every performance.

An additional attraction at the matinee to-morrow afternoon will be the appearance of the Murphy Midgets—Leonard and Clifford—who will give a boxing exhibition with Fitz as referee.

PERRY QUEENAN TO MEET RUF TURNER

COLORED LAD MAY FIND HIM A MUCH TOUGHER PROPOSITION THAN IN FORMER FIGHT.

Arrangements have been completed for a battle in Seattle between Perry Queenan and Rufe Turner. One thing is certain—that while Queenan may not win, Turner will find him a harder proposition than when they met in Seattle a few weeks ago. The Northwestern Athletic club will pull off the fight, and the promoters are confident it will prove one of the best of the year.

When the two met before Queenan was not in the best of condition. Then his right hand was so sore that he could hardly use it to advantage on the colored boy's anatomy. His fists are once again in good condition, however, and it may be expected that he will do much better than before.

Turner is by no means an opponent to be despised and could give almost any of the pugilists in his class a tussle. The boys will enter the ring about equal favorites in the betting and one has about as much chance to win as the other. The date for the bout has not yet been set, but it will be the latter part of the month.

CORBETT-BERNSTEIN BOUT IS POSTPONED ONE WEEK

Young Champion Will Keep Himself in Condition for His Go With Terry McGovern in December Next.

Reports from Boston state that Young Corbett's fight with Joseph Bernstein has been postponed to October 16. In the meantime the young champion proposes to keep himself in good condition by meeting all comers. After the Bernstein fight he will try a go with Austin Rice, and then will consider bids for the fight with Terry McGovern. As soon as it is known definitely where the fight will take place Young Corbett says he will again go into training in order that there may be no doubt about his getting himself into the proper condition to put up the fight of his life when he defends his title of champion featherweight against Terry.

The champion is just as confident as ever that he will again defeat McGovern, but he is going to take no chances, and will be in the pink of condition when he steps into the ring in December. It looks now as though the bout would be pulled off in California, but it is rumored about that there is more than one place in the East that will make a strong bid for it.

Ruhlin's Good Work.

Ruhlin's performance in England has shown that the big man from Ohio has greatly improved since old man Fitz dropped him out at Madison Square. Before he went abroad Ruhlin had all the attributes to make him a heavyweight champion, except the punch. That he developed a convincing wallop seems pretty certain by the way he battered the rough and rugged Sharkey.

Ruhlin is big and strong and can rough it with the best of them. He is quick, shifty and clever. That he is game is certain, for he has proved it. Now with a punch he seems the only man fit to cope with the awful proposition whose single larup has laid low such a king of the mits as Fitz.

M'CLOSKEY HAPPY OVER THE RESULT

TEAM HAD AN UPHILL FIGHT AND THE BOYS ARE GLAD TO BRING CHAMPIONSHIP TO BUTTE.

PORTLAND MAKES BUTTE MANAGER A FINE OFFER

Wants Him to Run California League Team There Next Season—Probable That the Entire Team With the Exception of Marshall Will Arrive in Butte Next Tuesday Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Spokane, Oct. 10.—Manager McCloskey of the Butte team of pennamers in the Pacific Northwest league for the season of 1902, is happy over the outcome of the season's hard work.

In an interview with the Inter Mountain correspondent this morning he said: "We are winners after a hard race. We have had an uphill fight against odds. 'No other team had to battle against games away from home while the other runner had the same number home. It has been a severe season, but we won. The boys are all in good shape and elated with the idea of bringing the championship to Butte."

"Kane is the only man who has not stood the strain. He is a brilliant player, but of a nervous temperament and has worried more over the outcome than all the rest of the team. I found Elmer Smith, formerly of Tacoma, and put him on first. He has played a brilliant game. Weaver is still laid up and has weakened the team. We were fortunate in finding Spokane in a crippled condition and that made the work easier. Elsey and Frary are both laid up."

Has Had Many Offers.

"As regards my home for next year, I cannot give a definite answer. I like Butte and have had numerous offers from other places but still favor Montana. There will be many changes in the team next year and one cannot tell what will happen."

"Had I been at home for the last 20 games as has Seattle, the Clam Diggers would not have been in it."

"With the exception of Seattle we have taken every series away from home, and that shows that the boys have been playing the game."

"I knew from the start that Seattle could not stand the strain at the rate she played the first series at home. The reaction was bound to come and it did. It takes a great deal to keep up the strain after a season's work in a hard finish. The other teams have played hard against us and we had to play good ball."

To Arrive on Tuesday.

"I am not positive about the time of arriving in Butte. We want to reach our city in the day-time and will wire President Lane if we may not go from here to Helena and then go home from there, arriving in Butte at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday. We will all be there with the probable exception of Marshall. I am happy that the pennant goes to Butte the first year she is in the league."

Portland is trying to get into the California league and has offered McCloskey the managership of the team for next season. The Portland board says McCloskey is the best manager in the league and that they will have to have him. He has been made a flattering offer.

SPORTING CIRCLES ARE MUCH STIRRED

EXPULSION OF PROMINENT SPORTING MEN FROM FRENCH TRACKS HAS CREATED A SENSATION.

Sporting circles throughout the country are at present much excited over the expelling of one of the most prominent sporting men in the world from France, W. L. Cheppu, the well-known Kentucky bookmaker. Cheppu bore an enviable reputation when in this country. He is the personal friend of Enoch Wishard, the successful trainer of the Drake stable, and was one of the men to help along Lester and Johnny Reiff in their early struggles.

Bob Rose is another one of the well known. He was formerly the partner of Eugene Leigh and owned the good race horse Clifford, that was left at the post in a Brooklyn handicap. In addition he owned Tillo, a winner of the Suburban, and Lazarrone, a Brooklyn handicap winner. He was a plunging bookmaker and a great card player at all times.

J. P. Horn, who is also among the expelled, is a creation of Fred Walbaum and when Guttenburg was at its height Korn was one of the confidential employees of the "Big Four." Syd Burns went to England about six years ago with a stable of horses and has won $1,000,000 over there since.

The charges against these men are that all races on the French courses in which American jockeys have ridden have been fixed and that millions of francs have been won in that manner. All had large bank accounts when the police investigated, Rose, Korn, Cheppu and Burns having over $500,000 each to their credit in the Bank of France.

Their expulsion will probably place the racing game on a good, clean basis again. Tod Sloan lost something like $150,000 to them. They were far too shrewd for the French turf officials and only circumstantial evidence could be obtained against them. Nothing direct was brought forth in the investigation.

If reports be true Jack Wade is on the upward path again. According to advices received here, the former Montana champion is climbing the hill of virtue and has even cut out cigarettes. With a lengthy spell of bachelorhood and total abstinence Jack may yet return to his own. There's plenty of his well-wishers in Butte.

WILL LOOK UP A RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shone Want to Settle in Montana Again.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, Oct. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shone of Rochester, N. Y., arrived in the city last night and will remain some time.

Mr. Shone formerly resided in Anaconda as a member of the firm of Smith & Shone, contractors.

At the time of his marriage last spring he went East to live, but is now out in this country again, looking up a ranch with the intention of going into the stock business.
