WAS FOUND DYING IN AN ALLEY BY THE POLICE - VICTIM OF OPIUM AND COCAINE

Thomas McCarthy died in peace in the county jail at 8 o'clock last night. He had been taken there by the police, who had been taken there by the police, who found him in an alley at the rear of a gospel mission, on South Main street. When taken to the jail McCarthy, who was then dying for lack of coeaine and morphine, was unable to give his right name, and could tell nothing about himself. Policeman Gray, who took him to the jail, said that he had been cast into the aller and rear himself.

the alley and was lying in the snow and filth when found.

Two men were in the same room in which McCarthy died. There was no evidence of death and the men did not realize what had occurred. They made an investi-gation and reported the case to the jailer, who notified the coroner. An inquest was set for this afternoon.

Butte McCarthy was known as Hughes, and it was this name he gave when taken to the jail. It is said that his people reside at San Bernardino, Cal., and that he has a wealthy uncle in the coast state. McCarthy was well-known about the race tracks on the coast. He was sick and without any money.

A LUCKLESS LOVER

I broke it off with Anna Long-She was too short, you see; With Mabel Wright things all went wrong, We never could agree; Then there was awkward Mary Blue,

Who was so very green;
And Bessie Goode would never do,
Because she was so mean.

It couldn't last with Jennie Read, Because she couldn't write;

And, after just one day, I freed
Myself from Nellie Knight;
I soon concluded that Miss Crewe
Must seek another mate;
And gave up Edith Early, too,
Because she came down late.

Miss Wood possessed an iron will; Miss Gay was always sad; Miss Sharp could see the point, but still She said my jokes were bad; Miss Rich was destitute of "tin;" Too melting was Miss Frost; a earnest, then I wooed Miss \And—same old luck!—I lost.
