

TODAY'S NEWS FROM THE SMELTER CITY

AL. STEVENS' BEAVER TRAP

Clever Invention of a Rock Creek Miner Who Does a Little Hunting on the Side—How It Worked Beautifully and How the Inventor Was First One to Be Caught by It.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Jan. 26.—Al. Stevens, who lives on the main fork of Rock creek, in Granite county, although a miner and prospector, is also something of a trapper. In a letter to a friend in this city he describes the result of one of his trapping expeditions down the creek a few miles below Moose lake, near which his cabin is situated.

cause the points of the nails were filed as sharp as needles and barbed. Stevens is getting out some good ore that he expects to ship in the spring and when he began to figure up his profits on that and add the price of several hundred beaver skins, he felt pretty good. He could not make his mind whether it would be a trip around the world or an orange ranch in Florida.

IN LIBRARY AT OLD MANILA

Would Like to Get Fifty Books From the Smelter City.

Anaconda, Jan. 26.—Reports from Mrs. L. G. Smith, who has charge of the alcove for Montana's donation to the library at Manila, shows that many donations are being made. The daughters of the Revolution have the matter in charge and Mrs. Smith was asked to take charge of the Anaconda department. It was stated by the committee that they would like to get 50 books from this city, and from the way in which they are beginning to arrive it looks as if the hopes of the ladies would be fulfilled.

HIS FINEST EFFORT YET

Evangelist Schivera Addresses an Audience at the Margaret Theater.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Jan. 26.—A big revival meeting was held by Rev. Frederick Schivera, the evangelist, at the Margaret theater, last night. His talk on "What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" proved to be the finest sermon which he has so far delivered in this city.

REV. ROBBINS WILL BUILD UP CHURCH

REV. H. E. ROBBINS.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Jan. 26.—Rev. H. E. Robbins, the new rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, is already becoming a prominent figure in the community. He is a man of great energy and ability and it is expected that through his efforts the congregation of St. Mark's will be considerably increased. As rector of the church at Fort Benton he organized what became known as the best vested choir in the state and he is giving the same attention here to church music that he did in his former charge.

JOHN HENRY IS UP AGAIN

Able to Be Off for San Francisco, Where He Will Convalesce.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Jan. 26.—John Henry, who has been confined at St. Ann's hospital with what is claimed was one of the most persistent cases of typhoid fever that has ever been in the institution, left yesterday for San Francisco.

The disease attacked Mr. Henry many months ago, and several times it was feared that he would die, and all hopes were given up. He will remain in California until spring.

DO NOT BLAME MATHEWS

His Friends Say He Worked Whenever He Could Get It.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Jan. 26.—The friends of J. T. Mathews, the man who was lately arrested for failing to provide for his children, declare that the children have not been sent to Helena by the county, but that Mathews has sent them there himself, and that he has agreed to take care of them from now on.

They also declare that the man did not neglect the little ones nor refuse to work, but that he worked whenever he could obtain employment and was simply a victim of circumstances.

WESTON IS OFF TO THE CAPITAL TOWN

TAKES BALLOTS AND POLL BOOKS TO HELENA, WHERE THEY WILL COJUNT VOTES OVER.

John Weston, the clerk and recorder of Silver Bow county, will leave for Helena tonight with more trunks than the average traveling man who "makes" the Montana territory carries with him. The trunks contain the ballots and the poll books used at the 53 precincts in the recent election in this county. The legislature proposes to recount the ballots in the contest case. Each trunk weighs over 300 pounds and all are larger than the ordinary trunk.

The trunks will be shipped to Helena by express. Mr. Weston had to bear the expense of purchasing the trunks and may have to pay the expressage, but he expects that the legislature will reimburse him. There are about 16,000 ballots besides the poll books in the five trunks. It is understood that the legislature will select clerks to recount the ballots, working in relays of eight hour shifts.

"They will want to quit the job when they open the first trunk and see the number of ballots," said a deputy in Mr. Watson's office who helped pack the ballots in the trunks. "It is no small job to count that number."
