ATHLETICS FLY TO SUPPORT PASTIME

(Continued from Page Eight.) ized the stand taken by the Iowa professor as amusing. He said: "Why, this idea is not only absurd, but the facts will not bear out the statements he has made. I trained at college for six years—years of the hardest kind of training—and I have never felt better in my life; yet it has been years since I left college and gave up the training. Of course, I kept up a certain amount of gymnastic work, because it has so become a part of my life that I feel miserable if I don't."

THOMAS MACNAMARA DEAD OF PNEUMONIA

FORBES GETS DECISION OVER THE ENGLISHMAN

(Continued from Page Eight.) and a right to eye. Tokell's left eye was nearly closed at the end of the round. Round 8—Forbes put a left on Tokell's neck and followed with a left on Tokell's bad eye. The men came together in a hot exchange, Forbes having the better of it. Forbes put a savage uppercut on Tokell's chin, jarring him badly. Forbes put a light left to the shoulder, getting a stiff right counter on the ribs. Tokell put a hard right on the ribs and followed with an uppercut on the chest, receiving a right hook on the ear. Tokell uppercut again, getting a stiff left to the stomach and a right to the ribs. Forbes put a hard straight left on Tokell's left eye, which swelled to the size of an egg.

STEAL NEWSPAPERS AND THEN SELL 'EM

SMALL BOY ARRESTED FOR THEFT SAYS HE MAKES A VERY GOOD LIVING BY THE PRACTICE. The police have kept a close watch lately on boys supposed to have been stealing newspapers from the porches of various homes. This morning Arthur Schultz, a boy of 15 years, was caught in the act of stealing the paper in front of Alderman Siebenaler's door in the Paumie block on West Galena street. Schultz was promptly arrested and taken to the city jail.
