FEW GOOD JOCKEYS SPORTING GOSSIP OF THE DAY ARE NOW ON MARKET

Mashville, Tenn, March 3,—Since trainers have had and are having so much trouble in securing competent jockeys, owners and trainers at Cumberland park have adopted the plan of educating their own jockeys.

Nearly every training stable at this quarter has contracted with several bright little white boys for a period of from two to five years, with the hope there is in the making of them first-class jockey ma-trial.

John Drake has three jockeys with his string, viz.: Tommy Meade, the actor-jockey: Hubre, the $15,000 celebrity, and H. Wilson.

Drake has also under contract to him two little brothers named Garner. They are about 14 and 12 years old, and are sons of the night watchman.

Both are bright and quick and Wishard expects to educate them for jockeys. These little fellows only weigh about 50 pounds each and have begun to exercise horses under the instruction of the Drake trainer.

Wishard also has two little boys he brought over with him from England. They are also being educated in the art

They are also being educated in the art of riding.

John Ferriss is without a jockey, but he has contracted with D. Boland, a little brother to the one-time good jockey, J. Beland. This little fellow is under contract to Ferriss for a number of years. He is the hest prospect for a high-class lightweight jockey at Nashville. He has a graceful seat, is smart and cool-headed. Ferriss will ride him in races this season. Young Boland will not weigh over 70 pounds, and can ride almost any kind of a horse.

Gorman & Bauer have contracted with Joekey Landry, and he is to report to the stable by March 15. It is understood his salary is to be $8,000 per year. Trainer Bellew, for the Gorman & Bauer stable, regards Joekey Landry as one of the best boys in the West.

Will the second T. P. Haves are both boys in the West.

Will Hayes and T. P. Hayes are both without a regular jockey. They have contracted with three boys, John Noonan, A. J. Walsh and Eugene Ahern, and they hope to get a jockey to do the lightweight riding from this collection.

The Henddrie stable, trained by John Walters, is also without a regular jockey. Walters, like most of the trainers at Cumberland park, has under contract two little boys he secured in Canada.

FOOTBALL PLAYER NO MORE

Chicago, March 3.—Hugh Guthrie Leighton, a graduate of the Armour institute, is dead as a result of a football game in which he participated last October, Death was caused by the weakening of his heart action. James W. Kelly for March 12. The court had concluded to fix the date for opening the case for a week from tomorrow, but E. S. Booth announced that, as junior counsel in the case, he had received word that other counsel engaged would not he in the city until a later date.

"I would respectfully ask," said the attorney, "that the court fix a later date, say March 12 or 16, owing to the fact that the senior counsel is obliged to go to Victoria and will not return before March 16 or 17. I think it would be time enough if we could start on the selection of the jury, say the 12th, and then the other counsel would be able to get here in time to conduct the case during the introduction of testimony. I would say further that there is no desire on the part of myself or other counsel to delay the trial of the case, but it is necessary for my associates to be here when the taking of testimony is begun."

Judge McClernan granted the request and the jury venire will be called for March 12.

First Baseman Shaffer, or "Our Joe," as they know him over in Helena, has jumped to the Portland team of the Pacific coast league.

Who would have thought it?

They seem to get a line on things on the coast quicker than we do here. That's the funny party of it, but maybe it's the same old thing about folks at home being the last ones to get bad news.

being the last ones to get bad news.

Doubt if they know of Shaffer's jumping in Helena yet.

The writer was informed of the fact by a coast scribe, and the sender of the message said Shaffer is to receive $250 per month.

Another funny thing: Shaffer signed to play with the outlaws last Saturcey, and the Inter Monmala is the first to publish the news. Ha, ha, ha!

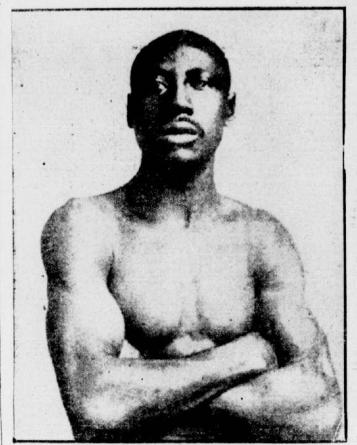

The redoubtable first baseman is to receive the fat sum of $250 per month and is to take the place of Chiles, the Portlander, who is now a fugitive from justice.

there will be no games with Bucknell until the latter college divorces pugilism from its football. There is still something of a hitch also over a rough game with Columbia, which was very rough two years ago, and thereby got into the bad books of Yale.

J. E. Johnstone, who was one of the best umpires on the American league and thereby got into the bad books of Yale, Yale will not meet Amberst this year, the minor college having declined a game because it entails too much of a strain upon its men, who can gain nothing by playing Yale, and who take chances of injuries that may count against them in their minor college championship series.

Frank Dunn called me up over the long-distance 'phone from Alhambra Springs yesterday afternoon and told me he was rounding into excellent shape. He declared the snow out there is a foot deep and has been for some days.

"That don't prevent me from doing road work," he said, "for the haven't missed a day to walk and run about five miles. Just tell my friends that I'll be in shape to do the battle of my life when I meet McCarthy on the 13th, and if I don't win it will be because Jerry is the better man.

It just goes to show that you can put about as much confidence in the average baseball player as you can in the wind—here today and there tomorrow.

They thought more of Shaffer in the Capital City than any other member of the team, with the possible exception of Wiggs. Jack Flannery valued his services enough to give him $100 advance money and to find him a good job at tending bar between seasons.

between seasons.

But he has jumped just the same, and his place in the ranks of Helena's team will indeed be hard to fill.

There is just a possibility of a chance that Shaffer is playing a sorter Piggy Ward hide-and-seek game. We, in Butte, know that Piggy means to work with Butte during the greater part of the season, no matter what he does when the season content.

It wouldn't surprise us a bit if the fat second baseman opened up with Portland.

Well, let him do it. Good enough, if he can pull Harris' leg for a couple of hundred. All we ask of Piggy is to give Butte . . .

Those who think that football is a rough Those who think that football is a rough game and that its players are rather enamored of prizefighting tactics may be interested in the announcement that confes from New Haven that the Yale eleven will meet Bucknell this fall. Bucknell last season had a team that was very handy with its fists, and the way that it handled the New Haven players just prior to the Princeton game caused a mighty and well justified how from the Yale adherents. Now the Yale management has served notice that "I know that the last two fights I ingaged in here have been unsatisfactory and I want just one more chance to demonstrate it wasn't my fault. I have already placed $500 as my side bet that I can whip McCarthy, and I have a few hundreds more to bet."

Jack Munroe, the miner pugilist, has been matched to wrestle Tom Jenkins in a catch-as-catch on contest. Jenkins must throw his opponent four times in an hour. The men will wrestle any night of the week eginning March 9 before the club making the best offer.

The Scattle Times thinks the wisest thing for the Pacific Nortwest league to do is to give away Scattle and Portland and take in Salt Lake and Ogden. We are very much obliged to the Times for the suggestion, but when a father turns to a baby son to ask for advice then it with be time for the old league to follow suggestions dropped by the outlaws.

Just wait till we get through with you on the coast before you croak. As stated in these columns the other day, McCloskey is down in 'Frisco doing something that he will spring later. We have a good idea what this something is, but are not allowed to tell tales out of school.

However, as the cheek of the Times writer is pretty thick and hard to penetrate, we will drop him a hint that San Francisco and Los Angeles may yet become part of the Pacific Northwest league.

ne part of the Pacific Northwest league Surprises are the order these days.

Mrs. Herrera, the pretty little Spanish wife of Aurelio Herrera, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Mose LaFontise. Mrs. Herrera will not go to Boulder Hot Springs with her husband, but will remain in the city until after the Herrera-Clifford fight.

Herrera, Biddy Bishop and Jerry Mc-Carthy left for Boulder last night at 8 o'clock, where Herrera will begin active training for his contest with Clifford on the 16th, and Jerry McCarthy will get in perfect trim for the scrap with Dunn on the 11th. Lafontise will go out some time today to assist Herrera. This will make a jolly crowd, and the little Mexican should be able to get into fine fettle within the next two weeks.

An incident that is of some importance to the turf, but that has passed almost unnoticed, is the killing of the Erickson race track bill, recently introduced into the Illinois legislature, and designed to prohibit hetting and pool selling on Illinois race courses. It was strangled in the committee room. The object of the presentation of this bill is still a mystery. The measure was practically a duplicate of the existing racing law, and prohibited nothing that that bill does not prescribe. It had been supposed that the hand of the Ryan people was seen in the action taken, though the end to be gained could not be guessed. Recently the suspected Mr. Ryan has been having his own troubles, some of which have melted away this present week.

The spell of indifferent bowling at the Thornton alleys was shown last night when the Buttes and Stars clashed. All five games were crack-a-jacks. The Buttes won three of the five games, but lost on the total number of pins.

J. E. Johnstone, who was one of the best umpires on the American league staff, will next year handle the indicator for the National league, according to an announcement made by President Harry Fulliam, says the Chicago News. Johnstone has officiated only one year in fast company, but made quite a hit with the public and with the players as well, as he is a good disciplinarian. His decisions are given without any hesitation and in a clear, loud tone sot that the public is never in doubt as to the rulling. never in doubt as to the ruling

I predicted several days before that contest that Young Corbett would lose if in por condition. He was not in the lost of shape, and did the next thing to losing for a champion—he could only get a darw. That decision puts Abe Attell on a par with with fetherweight champion, for Abe fought a 20-round draw with Hanlon only a month before. SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN.

Helena, March 3.—Many and radical were the changes made by the house in committee of the whole yesterday in the general appropriation bill for the executive and judicial departments of the state government. For one thing the entire appropriation for the National Guard was knocked out. First the appropriation was cut down to $2,000, but Dr. Miller said that was so small that the guard might as well have no appropriation at all, and so the guard was wiped off the slate. This will be a decided disappointment to those patriotic young men who have tried for the last two years to make the guard something of which the state might be proud, Here are the items in the bill:

Now it certainly stands to reason that if the Pacific Northwest league could live and make money for two years with only a population of 310,000 to draw from the Pacific Coast league can surely thrive, and thrive well, with 775,000 people to patronize their games, or 465,000 more than the Pacific Northwest league has. To be sure, both leagues will be handicapped more or less by reason of the fact that there will be two teams in both Portland and Scattle, but at that the coast league will have all the better of the argument, as the cities in question are the best from the standpoint of population the Northwest league has, while both Los Angeles and San Francisco, in the coast league, contain more sport-loving people than do Scattle and Portland.

Then, teo, if 'Frisco and Los Angeles are taken in the Pacific Northwest the population looks as good to us as it does to them.

GOODKIND ON TEAM

President of Helena Ball Club Encouraged Over the Outlook.

Helena, March 3.—President E. I. Goodkind of the Helena baseball club has just returned ffrom a trip over the state in the interest of baseball, and is greatly encouraged over the outlook. He spent some time in Butte, where he said the reporters tried in vain to learn something of the personnel of the Helena team.

"I am waiting," said Mr. Goodkind, "for Flannery to give out our line-up, which is without doubt the fastest team that any club in the Pacific Northwest league will start the season with. We have six pitchers signed, and two of them are southpaws. President Lane of the Butte club has a pretty good idea who composes our team, and he said to me that he thought we had the best bunch of the league, and that he was seared to death at our line-up, which will most likely be given out very soon.

"Butte will start the season with al "Butte will start the season with almost the same members in her team that she ended with last fall, for they have signed but two new men-McKevitt, who played with Spokane last season, and Father' Tom Kelley. They also expect to have Jed Smith signed in the near future, and he is a crack third baseman. Their pitching staff will only include Dowling, Roach and Gay."
