DAN PATCH IS TO BE AN EXHIBITION PACER

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. New York, March 30.—Milton E. McHenry, the driver of the great pacer, Dan Patch (1901), has gone to Memphis, where he will remain for some weeks, then go to Cleveland and take charge of the speedy son of Joe Patchen. He cannot say at present just what his program will be with Dan Patch, as a great deal will depend on the wishes of M. W. Savage, who now owns the horse. That he will be sent exhibition miles as soon as he is in condition is an assured fact, but just what territory will be visited has not yet been definitely settled. Mr. McHenry is confident that the great pacer will lower the world's harness record before the close of the season, and he will be trained with that end in view. There is a probability that Mr. Savage will decide to exhibit the horse on the Northwestern tracks during a part of the season, but the dates have not yet been arranged. Mart Demarest, the noted trainer and driver, who is still rusticated at Hot Springs, is of the opinion that the famous hobble pacer, Prince Alert, is the only sidwheeler in the country that has a chance to beat Dan Patch, and he is rather anxious to test his theory by making a series of match races; but it is doubtful if the new owner of Dan Patch will consent to such an arrangement. While, with a few exceptions, every trotting horseman in the country believes that Dan will be able to set a new world's record this year, they are also of the opinion that if there is a horse that can give him an interesting argument in a race it is Prince Alert, and a match or a series of match races between them would be the most sensational event that could be imagined.

LOS ANGELES REPEATS OLD DOSE

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Los Angeles, March 30.—Los Angeles yesterday made it four straight. The score was seven to four. The game was played in a fine drizzle but few of the 4,500 spectators left their seats. The pitchers had a hard time of it owing to the wet and sticky ball. Hickey hit two batsmen and walked three. Summary—Three base hits—Hollingsworth; two base hits—Hemphill, Jansing; sacrifice hits—Rose, Spies, Hollingsworth; first base on errors—Los Angeles, 2; Seattle, 4; left on bases—Los Angeles, 8; Seattle, 13; bases on balls—off Corbett, 7; off Gray, 8; off Hickey, 3; struck out by Corbett, 4; by Gray, 2; by Hickey, 3; double plays—Toman to Hollingsworth to Dillon; Jansing (unassisted); Boettger to Campbell; hit by pitcher—Crawath, Hoy, Hamman, Schwartz; wild pitch—Hickey; umpire—McDonald; time, 2:05. TACOMA WINS ON HER FIRST APPEARANCE

Tacoma, Wash., March 30.—McKibben's tigers made their first public appearance in a practice game with the Tacoma Athletic club and won the game by a score of 23 to 2. The leaguers' outfield was short two men, who have not yet arrived. All the pitchers were tried out except Maupin, who umpired, and Harmon, who played outfield. McKay, the Californian, and Johnny Baker, the Missouri south-paw, made fine showings in the box. Attendance, 1,500.

NEIL WON'T MEET FORBES

Detroit, Mich., March 30.—Frankie Neil of San Francisco has notified the Metropolitan Athletic club of Detroit that he cannot meet Harry Forbes at Chicago April 22, as had been planned, as he would require more than the intervening time to become acclimated. The men may meet here in June. The club is negotiating with Jack Root and "Kid" McCoy in an endeavor to substitute them for Forbes and Neil April 22.

SCORES MADE BY THE GUN CLUB OF BUTTE

There was lots of fun and plenty of good shooting at the shoot of the Butte Rod and Gun club yesterday afternoon on the home grounds. There were four events. The club medal went to P. A. Allen, who made 24 out of 25 singles. C. H. Smith won the Confar medal at 20 singles and five pairs with a total of 26; he only missed two in each. The first three events were at 25 and the last was the shoot for the Confar medal. The weather was perfect and a large crowd was present to witness the shooting. After the gun club events several ladies tried their hands and one succeeded in making nine out of ten: Here are the results: Names. 1 2 3 4 Nicky 20 18 19 20 Allen 25 18 24 18 Vucovich 14 16 19 16 Willoughby 15 15 19 20 Walker 22 20 21 25 Smith 21 21 20 26 Burton 18 16 19 22 O'Brien 15 14 18 19 Renick 19 18 20 20 Jones 18 18 18 18 Yancy 18 19 20 20 Smylie 19 19 19 19 Wright 23 22

RAMSEY'S BASEBALL AND BOXING FROM THE COAST

Seattle, March 28.—Just one little taste of their own medicine makes the outlaws squeal like a pig under a gate. When the news reached here that Charley Reilly had grabbed off three of the Seattle outlaw team's players and had a deal on for four more, the men who are in the game for "the love of the sport" began to yell for help. President Lou Cohen of the local outlaws said: "There's only one thing for the two leagues to do. They must get together and agree to protect one another. If they don't the players will run baseball out on the coast. They will be doing the hurdles all summer. It will be impossible to have discipline. Whenever a manager says anything a player doesn't like the player will push out his chest and say he will go to the other fellow." This talk sounds just a little bit funny coming from the head of the local outlaw organization. They did not believe in organized baseball and protection while they were sneaking over the back fence stealing Dugdale's players and making a deliberate attempt to put him out of business. But when they see that a player who jumps a contract will not be loyal to anyone, and that any manager who raises the price a two-bit piece can start them jumping like jackrabbits they begin to see the value of an organization that makes a contract worth something. President Cohen said he would not be surprised to see his team come back from California with only five of the players who started out. These five are amateurs, or semi-professionals, for whom there is no strong demand. When the outlaws invaded the city they took on considerable airs in discussing the matter. They said: "This is simply a matter of business with us. We are putting in a new team, just as a man puts in another hotel or a theater. We will stand or fall on the merits of the case. If we put up the best ball we expect the patronage. If we do not then the crowds will go to Dugdale." That sounded fair enough and there was no disposition to quarrel with the newcomers until they began to show their hand. Their first move was to try to wreck Dugdale's team by stealing his players. They got some of the boys to jump, but it is not a cinch that they will stay the season through or even remain after removing time, April 15. Now they are hard at work on a plan to force Dugdale out of the park he used last year. They have circulated a petition among the property owners asking the council to put a street through the park. There is no use for a street in that locality, and the petition can have but one object—forcing Dugdale out to the Madison street grounds, which are three miles from the city. One of the largest property owners in that section signed the petition because he is a friend of the man who brought it to him and had confidence in the honesty of his motives. When he learned the real object of the petition, however, he ordered his name taken off, and others have followed his example. Dugdale does not seem at all disturbed in the matter, and still insists that he will play in the old park this year. If he does he will give the outlaws a hard fight. When the Butte team opens up here this year there will be a lot of fans on hand to give a warm welcome to Billy Nash. That old-timer has a lot of friends in this city, and when it became known that he had broken into the game again and would play in this league there was a lot of favorable comment. Until he was hit on the head by a pitched ball Nash was the peer of any outfielder in the business. That accident made him a little shy at the bat, however, and he dropped out of the big league ranks. Another old leaguer who may have a new lease of life this summer is George Treadway, who began last season with Butte. Treadway is in better physical condition now than he has been for ten years. He has been working hard all winter and has cut out the amber stuff. He is out at the park working every day, and the way he clouts the ball is something fierce. It would not be surprising if the old boss was given a chance by Dugdale this year, for even if he is a little slow in the field, his batting will more than make up for it. It is remembered here that Treadway did some great hitting for Butte at the beginning of last season, but he got to dissipating and it was all off. In one game he hit Stovall so hard that he made that youngster wobble on his legs. Jimmy Britt came back here from his wild goose chase to Butte thoroughly disgusted with Bidly Bishop, and said he was sorry that he did not take a punch at Bidly after tearing up his money. The Seattle sports who have seen Jimmy in the ring think he is the real goods, and that no lightweight in the country has anything on him. He is strong, fast, game and intelligent, a combination hard to beat in the squared circle. The boxing game will open up here next month. The grand jury will have died of old age by that time and the embargo will be removed. A better class of fighters will be seen here than in the past, and the contests will have to be on the square or the kibosh will be clapped on again for keeps. If the right kind of an opponent can be found for him Britt will probably fight here in the near future. No dub is wanted, but if a man can be found who will give him a good stiff argument the deal will be fixed up. He is the greatest drawing card on the coast today. There will be a large delegation of Seattle sports at the ringside when McGovern and Corbett square off in San Francisco March 31. Opinion is about equally divided as to the outcome of the fight. If it were certain that Corbett is in good shape the bulk of the Seattle money would go on him, for he is as strong as McGovern, does not flinch from the gaff, has all the better of it when it comes to coolness and generalship and has the advantage of a knockout to give him confidence. It is known that McGovern is as fit as a fiddle, and it also known that Corbett hates to train as badly as the small boy hates to wash his feet in the summer time. If the writer is permitted just one guess, he will pick Corbett to win if he is in the shape he ought to be for a fight of such importance. RAMSEY.

GEBHARDT HANDICAP, OAKLAND'S BIG RACE

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. San Francisco, March 30.—One of the features of the week's racing at Oakland will be the Gebhardt handicap for 2-year-olds, to be decided next Saturday. It will be over the future course, and it is the first time the youngsters have been asked to go the distance. W. B. Jennings and company maintain a strong lead over the other owners with $26,115 to their credit. Green Morris, who shipped to New York Saturday, won $18,000 during the season. Ninety owners won sums exceeding $1,000. The California Jockey club has distributed $360,000 in stakes and purses.

TRACK IS GOOD FOR MONTGOMERY HANDICAP

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Memphis, Tenn., March 30.—Indications are that the Montgomery handicap will be run over a fast track, under fair skies. The backers of McChesney, the favorite, are confident of his success, while W. W. and Floarline, the Tichenor entry, and Ordnung, owned by B. W. Schorr, have a strong following. George Odum will have the mount on McChesney, Bullman will ride Ordnung, and Robbins will be astride Floarline. Riots at Valencia. Madrid, March 30.—It is reported that serious republican outbreaks have occurred at Valencia. The troops are confined to barracks and street meetings in Valencia are forbidden.

'FRISCO SPORTS SAY TERRY LOOKS GOOD

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. San Francisco, March 30.—All is now in readiness for the battle tomorrow between Young Corbett and Terry McGovern for the featherweight championship of the world. Eddie Graney has been selected to referee the bout and his selection has met with the approval of every one. Both McGovern and Corbett are in fine fettle. Terry is already down to weight, but Corbett is having a hard time getting down to 127 pounds, which he must make at 4 o'clock the afternoon of the fight. There has been but little betting on the result of this fight, but this was mainly because the sports were waiting for the referee to be chosen. What few wagers have been placed were at odds of 10 to 8 on the Eastern boy. It is the consensus of opinion among local sporting men that Corbett cannot duplicate his performance at Hartford when he laid McGovern low in the second round. Harry Corbett is one who thinks McGovern will land the long end of the purse. "I will admit that Corbett is the cleverer of the two youngsters," said Harry Corbett this morning in answer to the Inter Mountain's representative, "but McGovern can hit faster and other things being equal I think this is the point that counts. I will be at the ringside ready to wager any part of $5,000 that Terry is the goods." McGovern has quit training but Corbett will have to keep continually at work in order to reduce to the required weight.

SPORT GOSSIP

OUR INQUIRY DEPARTMENT "Sporting Editor Inter Mountain: "Dear Sir—Would you please publish in your paper if there is a high kicking record; if so, please state who made it and when and where it was done. "A BUTTE SPORT." There is a high kicking record although it is not to be found in many record books. The official record for the high kick is 9 feet 8 inches. It was made by C. C. Lee in New Haven, Conn., March 19, 1887. What tell! Feels warm enough to start the baseball season right now. Get ready, Piggy! Steady, Pete! Piggy Ward, the Friar Tuck of balldom, dropped in on the smoke yesterday morning, fat as ever. Ward says it don't seem like the same old smile since McCloskey left. Who said we haven't got the baseball moving now? The Junior season opened yesterday when the Silver Bow Juniors whitewashed the Juvenile Juniors to the tune of 4 to 0. Westgate and Dwyer formed the battery of the winners. What rot! The idea of those dark hints emanating from San Francisco to the effect that Pete Dowling is going with McCloskey's crowd. Now, wouldn't that make you eat hay! As though Butte hasn't done her share in giving up the best manager in the league and three of the best players, or among the best, in this part of the West! They must take Butte for some sort of baseball fountain, where good players and crack managers flow out by the dozen, all made to order. Not on your latest 10-cent photograph will we give up Dowling! We are counting on Pete to lick the very crowd that "Frisc papers would have us believe he is going to toss with. It's a cinch that he will pitch a g a i n s t McCloskey's crowd. San Francisco aggregation, and if he's in good form that day it's almost as certain he will wallop them. No, thank you! Lou Houseman says: "The Weller future book on the American derby now has played every one of the 120 entries for the classic, except three—Fore and Aft, 80 to 1; Lord Touchwood, at 300 to 1, and Discharged, at 1,000 to 1. "Commissions have been rolling into the office of Weller in the Mellers' building all the past week, and these have been coming from all parts of the country. "Some of the bets laid since the last quotations were issued follows: "From Memphis—$10,000 to $200 on Au Revoir. "From Memphis—$10,000 to $200 on Bardolph. "From Memphis—$9,000 to $150 on Claude. "From Louisville—$9,000 to $300 on Early. "From Louisville—$6,000 to $200 on Linguist. "From Louisville—$10,000 to $200 on McGee. "From San Francisco—$10,000 to $100 on Americano. "From Oakland—$12,500 to $50 on Action. "From Washington, D. C.—$8,000 to $200 on Grey Fair. "From New York—$12,000 to $3,000 on Irish Lad. "From New York—$9,000 to $300 on Lord of the Vale. "From Little Rock—$12,000 to $150 on Sigmund. "The public is taking kindly to the place and show prices laid against the candidates by Weller. Place and show prices are based on 50 and 25 per cent of the straight price, which is considerable of a hunch over anything the other future books are laying. "There's a hitch in the arrangements to build a big amphitheater over the Holland skating rink, where boxing contests could be held. Wonder what's the matter? Bryne was sure the work would start by April 1, but now he says "nay." That's too bad. "The following letter has reached the sporting editor's inquiry department: "Butte, March 20, 1903. "To the Sporting Editor Inter Mountain:

BOWLING AGAIN AT BOTH ALLEYS

After the state bowling tournament which was held in Butte recently that branch of sport suffered from inertia. Now things are stirring again. The Pfister alleys have an individual tournament on and the old winter league series has been resumed at the Thornton alleys. In the list of individual averages at the Thornton alleys Ellis leads with a safe margin. Out of 60 games played he has made a total of 11,601 pins or an average of 193.21-60. Kohl is second and Van Ellis third. Following is the standing of the teams in the winter league series with the percentages of games won: Team. Played. Won. Lost. Pct. UNION BOAT CLUB REINSTATES TITUS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. New York, March 30.—The Union Boat club today reinstated C. S. Titus the oarsman. The club passed a resolution which recited that there had been an irregularity in his expulsion and added: That the said expulsion be rescinded solely on the ground of such technical irregularity. President Sinnott of the club said tonight: "We want to be perfectly just in dealing with Mr. Titus, but, at the same time, we do not concede excellence in watermanship is a sufficient reason for exemption from club discipline where it is desirable." Titus brought suit in the courts to compel the club to reinstate him and the matter was to be heard Tuesday of this week. The technical irregularity mentioned was that Titus had only 28 days notice of a trial when the constitution requires 30 days' notice. The club wanted to try him because he had been talking through the newspapers about its management instead of filing formal complaints with the officials.

CORBETT AND JEFF WILL DRAW WELL

San Francisco, March 30.—It is expected that the Corbett-Jeffries fight will break all coast records as a money drawer. Ruhlin and Jeffries, who fought the last time here, showed to a $31,000 house and about the same amount was in the box office when Fitzsimmons and Jeffries entered the arena. It is thought that the receipts can be swelled to more than $40,000 with the two Californians as opponents. The bout will be well advertised and methods heretofore not followed will be resorted to to draw people to the city. INDIANAPOLIS RACE MEET Indianapolis, March 30.—There are 110 entries in the Indianapolis combination meet for July 4-11. The purses amount to $31,000. Entries now in are from many states. There will be running events on the first, third and last days. The Indianapolis derby for $2,500 will be run July 4. The total assets of Chicago university are $1,283,375.95. President Harper wishes to increase the salaries as follows: Professors, from $3,000 to $4,000; associate professors, from $2,500 to $3,000, and assistant professors from $2,000 to $2,500. A pension system is also being considered.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

Advertisement for SSS (Swift Specific) medicine. The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored spots break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
