STATE SOCIETY DOINGS

Dillon, Oct. 24.—Last evening's reception tendered to the friends of the State normal school by the executive board and the president of the college was a largely attended and very successful function. There could not have been a more fitting celebration in honor of the opening of the new dormitory.

The new furniture had been installed and the public had an excellent opportunity to admire both the furniture and the new building. An orchestra furnished excellent music during the reception and dancing followed later in the evening. The evening will long be remembered by all who attended the reception, which was a distinct social success. Both dormitories were thrown open to the public.

In the parlors of the old dormitory, the reception committee consisted of Governor and Mrs. B. F. White, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kresss, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Swain, Mrs. Anna Owsley and Mr. Leonard Eliel, were to receive the guests at 8:30 p. m. They were assisted by the Mesdames E. J. Pasmore, W. C. Bagley, J. E. Monroe, Ezra Allen, G. T. Paul, C. R. Squire, the Misses Carson, Thormyer and Mott.

Riley B. Cooper and Mrs. Miranda A. Williams, both of Salmon City, Idaho, were married Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Shaffer lodging house, Rev. A. B. Martin of the Presbyterian church officiating. The wedding was private, only a few witnesses being present. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper returned Thursday morning to Salmon City, in which place they have both resided for a number of years, Mr. Cooper being one of the old timers of the section.

John H. Shesser of Horse Prairie was a visitor to Dillon Monday.

The Manse society met with Mrs. T. B. Landers Thursday. There was a good attendance.

Mrs. F. E. Foote entertained the members of the Needle club Wednesday.

The X. V. N. club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. J. B. Poindexter.

BOZEMAN

Bozeman, Oct. 24.—A very pretty social event occurred last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Walter Hartman and daughters entertained at their Central avenue home, a large number of guests enjoying the delightful hospitality dispensed. The refreshments were unique and artistic, marshmallows on little skewers being furnished the guests to toast at a beautiful silver candelabrum, containing five wax candles, while nut ice cream, cake and other refreshments were furnished in the dining room. The reception was in the nature of a "coming out" for the Misses Madge and Zoe Hartman, being their first formal introduction to society.

Mrs. Frank Wilton entertained the Rocma Dozen club at a dinner last Wednesday at her residence on Church avenue North, dispensing rare and delightful hospitality. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Esgar, Bartz, Noble, Mitchell, Hawkins, Cruickshank, Osborne, Rystrom, Wilton and Miss Whitbeck. The club will meet November 2 with Mrs. Frank Mitchell, 295 Church avenue North.

Mrs. P. J. Davies was the recipient of a novel surprise party a few evenings ago. She was persuaded to make preparations at her home for a surprise party for a neighbor and then the tables were turned on her, when all the company trooped over to her residence and disposed of the refreshments she had prepared, at the same time reminding Mr. and Mrs. Davies that it was the anniversary of their marriage and wishing them many returns of the day. The following were present: Mesdames E. C. Murray, Congdon, Holliday, Schlechten, Felenzer, Brandley, Fannie Francis, Mae Merryman, Duncan, Bromley, Ira Davis, Reese Wells, R. Esgar, Ida Davis, Schroder, and Misses N. R. Whitbeck, Gertrude Brandley and Blanche Barker.

Mrs. W. N. Cook and daughter have gone to Alhambra Springs on a visit.

BILLINGS

Billings, Oct. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Spear celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding last Saturday and the affair was one of the very successful social events of the season. Six children, Charles Spear, Mrs. M. L. Hoyt and Mrs. Paul McCormick of this city, Willis Spear, Jr., W. H. Spear of Wyoming and Mrs. Emma Dilworth of Idaho, were grouped about them, while of their 45 grandchildren 32 were present and one of their eight great-grandchildren, Miss Lillie Spear of Wyoming. In addition to these a brother and sister of the venerable Mr. Spear also attended, the former having come from his home in Missouri to be in attendance. In the afternoon Mrs. McCormick gave a dinner in honor of the event, to which only relatives were bidden. It is safe to assume that never before in this state was a meal served at which the guests were so many and all of one family. Many of those at table had not met in years and it proved a joyous reunion for all.

From 7 until 9 in the evening a reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Spear and many hundreds availed themselves of the opportunity to pay their respects and felicitate Mr. and Mrs. Spear upon the auspicious event and wish them many more years of happiness and peace on earth.

Not the least among recent social affairs was the card party given by Mrs. E. H. Hollister at her home, North 31st street. Whist was the game played and there were many interesting incidents. Mrs. Edward Card was the winner and received as a present a handsome china plate.

The game ended at 5 o'clock, when a three course luncheon was served consisting of escalloped oysters, wafers, olives, celery, cranberry jelly and coffee; fruit salad with whipped cream, macaroons, vanilla ice cream and cake. Mrs. W. N. Hassler, Miss Lucille Brewer and Miss Georgia McConnell assisted the hostess in doing the honors. Twenty-four ladies were present.
