GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE.

Boulder.

A Masonic lodge is in process of organization in Boulder.

The Boulder branch of the Patriotic Order Sons of America has died of inanition.

Water was struck in the Gaffney well in the rear of the bank Tuesday at the depth of twenty feet.

The German measles are visiting a number of the young people in Boulder. None are seriously ill, however.

County Attorney M. H. Parker, of Boulder, and Postmaster John Andrew, of Elkhorn, were appointed notaries public last week by Governor Toole.

Died, at Elkhorn, Monday, Feb. 9, of consumption, A. Fred Bright, aged about 58 years; at Basin, Tuesday, Feb. 10, of bowel trouble, the infant son of Mrs. Truman Hopkins, aged about seven weeks.

The wedding of Ferd S. Wolpert and Miss Hulda Kiedel took place Wednesday afternoon in Boulder at the residence of the lady's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baria, Mrs. F. Morrow, T. F. Murray, Sam Robertson and others were among the Boulder visitors to the Butte carnival yesterday.

The Boulder orchestra will give a masquerade ball in Hopkins hall in Boulder next Friday evening, Feb. 13, which promises to be very largely attended.

The Odd Fellows ball at Elkhorn, on the 22d inst., promises to be a very pleasant affair. Its management is in the hands of excellent committees and no effort will be spared to make it a perfect success in every respect.

The I. O. G. T. of Boulder, have been more than unusually prosperous of late, having received into the order many new members, thereby getting a larger scope of talent. They have therefore decided to give a free entertainment on the anniversary of the lodge, on Thursday evening, February 19th.

Glasgow.

The young folks had a very pleasant dance at Walker's hall last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wilson, sister of J. M. Duffy, left last Wednesday night for her home in St. Paul.

The costs in shops of mileage and witness fees, on account of the great distance to be traveled from Glasgow to Glendive, will probably reach the snug sum of $1,500 for this term of the court.

J. M. Duffy left the first of the week on an extended visit to his former home in Minnesota. He will also visit the twin cities for business purposes.

A new piano arrived at the home of Mr. Lennan this week. Better news never comes to Glasgow than such announcements, as Glasgow is noted for her musical talent.

All persons shooting firearms within the town limits will be prosecuted by the committee on safety.

The banking house of Robt P. Lewis expects to be ready for business about the 15th inst. In the meantime certificates will be issued to any one desiring to make a time deposit.

Wm. White, who has been very ill for some time, is better now and will probably entirely recover. His case is a complicated one, very difficult to treat successfully.

Game of all kind and wolves are very plentiful in the vicinity of Malta. If the stock association would distribute some free poison it would be the means of getting them killed off.

Malta offers a standing reward of $200 for any locality in the county of the same number of inhabitants, that can show more veterans of the late war than she can.

Benton.

Born, Tuesday, Feb. 2, to the wife of Raphael Morgan, a daughter.

Married, at the Holy Name mission, on Tuesday, Feb. 3, by Rev. Father Turnell,

A. E. Allison to Miss Sallie Wright, both of Robare.

Deasara, O. G. Cooper and George A. Clarke, two of the leading woolgrowers of western Chouteau county, are in attendance at court.

The funeral services of Mrs. Jane B. Patterson occurred Sunday morning at St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city at 11 o'clock. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and many friends who came to pay their last tribute of respect remained standing through the services.

District court convened Monday morning. The grand jury was called. There were some excuses, but enough were present to make up the regular number of seven. The following are the names of grand jurors now sitting: O. G. Cooper, foreman; C. D. Crutcher, Chas. Lepley, James M. Arnoux, J. E. Patterson, J. P. Cupp and H. L. Halliday.

Geo. W. Cook, of Placian, is in attendance at court as interpreter for twelve Indian witnesses, who are to testify in the whisky cases against Williams, Long and "Silver Tip." Among the Indians are three officers of the agency police force: Capt. Four Horns, a venerable and intelligent looking old Indian with snow white hair; Lieut. Little Dog, a jolly, fat, good-natured looking officer, who appears to enjoy his blue uniform and good living; First Sergeant Wan, Russell, an educated fellow, who is also a good interpreter.

C. E. Conrad and T. J. Todd are having their ice houses filled with next summer luxury. Charles Rowe, of the Overland, has a force of men with an ice plow and teams at work opposite Smith's ferry landing putting up ice. The ice is seven inches thick and is as clear as crystal. By packing carefully on edge, it can be preserved without much difficulty.

G. K. Warren Post No. 20, G. A. R., of this city, will give a grand ball on the evening of March 17th of Ireland, Comrades Dexter, Duro and Cummings have the matter in charge, and propose to make it a great success. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the post relief fund.

Gold T. Curtis took $23,000 out to Sand Coulee Wednesday to pay off the miners today.

James Dwyer has entered suit for divorce against his wife, Annie Dwyer, alleging desertion as the cause.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gehring Wednesday at noon. Both mother and child are doing well.

M. J. Cosgrove has purchased the cigar and confectionery store in the Dunn block owned by John Annensch.

Attorney Poorman has commenced the erection of a handsome cottage residence on Fourth avenue north, near Fourteenth street.

The contract for the erection of the six two-story frame houses to be erected for Barnes & Crowinshield on Fourth avenue and Twelfth street north has been let to William B. Roberts, the contractor.

The ice harvest in Great Falls promises to be beautiful and of excellent quality. Near the shore the ice is about twelve inches thick and in the middle of the bay about eight inches. It is as clear as crystal.

"Gambler" Pete Kough, one of the participants in the row with Jack Benson in the Milwaukee beer hall Friday night, was tried before Judge Rice and sentenced to pay a fine of $40 and undergo forty-five days' imprisonment in the county jail, the jail sentence to take effect Thursday at noon if caught within the limits of the city and to be operative for one year's time in case he should return. Pete lost no time but departed for Neilhart.

The party given Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McClelland in honor of Miss Cora McClelland was one of the most enjoyable ever given in the Gator-act city. A new and unique game, called progressive jackstraw, was introduced and furnished great fun to the guests, who were mostly new beginners. Prizes were awarded the same as in progressive euchre, and were won as follows: Head prizes, R. H. Matteson and Miss Newman; progressive prizes, A. Crockett and Miss Rich; booby prizes, Mayor Dinkerman and Miss Cochran. A tempting repast was served the guests and the hour was late before the guests could tear themselves from such a delightful scene.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Noah Walker & Co., of Baltimore, have executed a deed for the benefit of their creditors. The bond filed is for $125,000.

Miss Kate Drexel took the black veil of the new Roman Catholic order of the Blessed Sacrament Thursday morning at Pittsburgh.

President Hartwell, of the North Middlesex Savings bank, of Ayer, Mass., said that the deficit of Cashier Spaulding will reach at least $25,000.

Thursday morning a former janitor of the building attempted to rob the Citizens' bank, of Minneapolis. He secured the money, but was captured before he had gone far.

E. M. Gross, the veteran ball player, is getting up a club to go to Tacoma, Wash. He has therefore received the following players: Silver Flint, Bill Phillips, Randolph Kemmer, Jack Horan, Spinney Healey, John Hilery, Fred Jevne, Geo. Hooks and Tony Suck.
