The Epworth league gave what is known as a weigh "social" at the home of Mrs. Wright on Thursday evening. A large quantity of tickets were numbered, these were fastened on the ladies, and cards correspondingly numbered were given to the gentlemen. The gentlemen were then expected to look through the rooms until he found the lady with a card numbered like his own. When the desired number was found the lady was escorted to a pair of scales and weighed. The gentleman was told the weight, and was expected to pay half as much for his and the lady's supper as her weight. The gentleman who got a seventy-five pound partner could well laugh at the man who drew the number worth a mutton whose weight was nearly two hundred. A great deal of amusement was gotten out of the performance, and none of the ladies tried to disguise their weight. Games were played and a pleasant evening spent. The money goes towards purchasing a piano for the league.

The entertainment given by the W. C. T. U. of this city on Thursday evening was a most excellent one. The singing was fine, the recitations more than satisfactorily rendered and the entire programme well presented. The following is a programme of the evening's entertainment:

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

What the Knowing Ones Know. PREPONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE Society Women May Learn.

Much valuable information regarding the care of the complexion from their professional sister for there are no women who take care of their faces as professionals do, and none are so good judges of the means and materials for preserving the skin. To them complexion is BEAUTY, and beauty capital. What some of them say.

A candid opinion from the famous American catarric, one of the most conscientious women on the stage.

Chicago, November 13. Mr. Wisdom: Dear Sir—I beg to thank you for the delightful and refreshing "Robertine" you so kindly sent me. I have used the toilet preparatory to the most celebrated hairdressing salons in London and Paris, but consider your "Robertine" their superior in point of purity and excellence. Wishing you the utmost success you deserve, I remain, Faithfully yours, EMMA ALBRIGHT.

The "Jessie Lilly" the most celebrated beauty living, who has had every opportunity of knowing whereof she speaks, expresses herself as follows.

ANGLESIA, COTTAGE, L. B. July 2, 1888. Messrs. Wisdom & Co.: Gentlemen—Although it is very expensive for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have used it every day for the last fortnight. I have found your Robertine an excellent preparation for removing sunburn, tan, and the effects of cold winds, etc. Please send me at once a dozen bottles each, as I am leaving for Europe Saturday day week. Yours faithfully, LILLIE LANGTRY.

An unsolicited tribute from the great and beautiful emotional actress: August 11, 1888.

Your "Robertine" was so highly spoken of in San Francisco, and a lady friend induced me to try it. It is very fine and an excellent application for whitening and beautifying the face and hands. The Robertine Powder is delightful. Very truly, FANNIS DAYTON.

The endorsement of a dramatic artist, celebrated on two continents. June 4, 1887.

Dear Sir—I have tried your "Robertine." It is excellent. I shall be pleased to recommend it to all my lady friends. Believe me, yours truly, MARGARET MATHIAS.

The world renowned contralto approves of it. What she says. BALDWIN, November 2, 1887.

Dear Mr. Wisdom—I have tried your "Robertine," and it gives me great pleasure to say that it is excellent for the complexion, being one of the best articles of the kind I ever used. Yours sincerely, Z. FREEDLITZ.

A testimonial prized for its truthfulness. BALDWIN, November 2, 1887.

I consider your Robertine for the complexion the finest preparation I have ever used. It is perfectly harmless, and I am sure no lady's toilet is complete without it. Yours respectfully, MAUDE GRANBERG.

The fair rising young star, and one of the most popular and prominent women on the American stage, grows enthusiastic over it. August 30, 1888.

Dear Mr. Wisdom—Many thanks for the box of Robertine Powder. I have used it for the stage also, for the street, and find it almost impossible to do without. The Robertine and Robertine Powders are requisites to any lady's toilet, and a precious boon to the people in the profession. Yours truly, MARGARET MATHIAS.

A compliment from a popular artist who I advise to endorsing anything but our excellence. GENTLEMEN—I find your Robertine an excellent preparation for the complexion, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to all. Yours truly, EMMA ALBRIGHT.
