Dividing Line Between Montana and Wyoming—Narrative of the Driver—Out in the Rain.

One hundred and fifty miles as the horse flies was the distance intended to be traveled on the outward voyage, and sixty miles of that could be covered on the Rocky Fork trail.

Two solid vestibule trains each way daily between Montana and the east. The high and dry altitude traversed by this line is outcooded by invalids as most beneficial.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO CUT TIMBER. In accordance with the provisions of section 5, rules and regulations prescribed by the honorable secretary of the interior, May 5, 1891, the undersigned, hereby give notice that, at the expiration of twenty-one days from the first publication of this notice, I will make written application to the honorable secretary of the interior, with authority to enter and remove all the merchantable timber, consisting of pine and fir, on the following described public lands, to-wit: Beginning at the mouth of Spring creek (a tributary of the north fork of the Musselshell river) and on section 16, township 9 north, range 10 east, running north six miles, thence west six miles to the mouth of the Checkerboard creek, also a tributary of the north fork of the Musselshell river, thence east two miles to the head of Cooper creek, also a tributary of the north fork of the Musselshell, thence east five miles to the point of starting. The most of said land being unreserved land, but a small part lying in township 9 north, range 10 east, and the rest lying in what would be township 10 north, range 10 east. Said land being mountainous and not fit for agriculture, and contains about (500,000) five hundred thousand feet of timber. E. M. WOODWARD, Applicant, Helms Sulphur Springs, Mont. First publication Nov. 13, 1891.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO CUT TIMBER. In accordance with the provisions of section 5, rules and regulations prescribed by the honorable secretary of the interior, dated May 5, 1891, the undersigned, J. C. Lane, whose ranch is located in the northwestern part of county, Montana, hereby give notice that, at the expiration of twenty-one days from the first publication of this notice, he will make application to the honorable secretary of the interior for permission and authority to cut and remove all merchantable saw logs suitable for manufacture into lumber, consisting of white and yellow fir, white pine and spruce timber, upon certain tracts of lands situated on Spanish creek in the northwestern part of county, Montana, which are public lands and are as yet unreserved, and described as follows, to-wit: Commencing at Spanish creek, a tributary of said West Gallatin river, and running up said creek on both sides a distance of eight miles, and joining thereon about 1,000 feet of the north fork of the river, and thence north. The character of the above described land is very rough and mountainous, and wholly unfit for agricultural purposes, and is covered with pine timber, which is scattered, rough and scrubby, the greater part of which is of small size, and is not suitable for removal in years past. (The purpose for which timber will be used will be for supplying lumber for various purposes, such as for farmers and other residents of Gallatin county, and the timber intended to be cut is such as is of sufficient size to make merchantable lumber. J. C. LANE. [First publication Oct. 25, 1891.]
