

Bought Your Suit Yet?

If you will make it a point to visit our store and try on one of our suits, you will find we are able to give you as good tailoring, more style and better fit than any other place in town, the custom tailors not excepted, and we can save you from $10 to $20 on your spring and summer suit. It is not difficult to interest careful dressing, conservative men in "Benjamin Clothes," yet we want every man and young man to understand thoroughly that these suits are moderately priced.

Perhaps you'd like a suit such as our young college chaps are wearing. They greatly favor our "Sophomore" line—accentuated styles with a tinge of conspicuous cut and finish. They are discriminating clothes buyers, these dashing youngsters, and the majority of them cannot be persuaded to accept anything but a "Sophomore."

Price range for suits $15 to $35.

John B. Stetson soft and stiff hats, $4.50 to $6.00. Mallory is the best $3.50 hat on top of earth. Panama and Sailor straws up from $1.50.

Stacy-Adams fine shoes and oxfords, $5.50 to $7. W. L. Douglas $3, $3.50 and $4. Bostonians, from Commonwealth Shoe Co., $3.50, $4.00, $5.00.

Need a Raincoat?

While you are here investigating our suits we would enjoy showing you the most distinguished lot of overcoats or raincoats ever displayed in town, the very highest type as to style and perfection in water-proofed materials makes them the finest coats ever produced. A raincoat by any other name remains simply a raincoat, but when made by the C. Kenyon Co. it is a smart, perfectly tailored garment, unusual in every way. They are the ones so extensively advertised in all the leading magazines.

Long, roomy coats, three-quarter length coats, storm coats, raincoats, motor coats, all have their place of advantage during the cool spring showers.

Coats at $15 and up to $35.

Also, you may need some new, nifty furnishings—ties, four-in-hands and bows up from 35c—Fowne's gloves, world's leading brand; Montauk shirts, crack-a-jack new patterns at $2.50 and $1.50. You'll find anything you need.

Mallory is the best $3.50 hat on top of earth. John B. Stetson soft and stiff hats, $4.50 to $6.00. Panama and Sailor straws up from $1.50.
