MISSOULA PEOPLE PRAISED

WALLACE FOREST-FIRE REFUGES CANNOT SAY TOO MUCH IN GRATITUDE.

That the Wallace people who fled before the flames to Missoula last week were really grateful for the hospitality with which they were received in this city, is shown by the fact that they took home with them stories of their kind reception. The Idaho Press says the following:

A number of the Wallace people who returned last night from Missoula via Spokane and were on the relief train that went from Wallace to Missoula Saturday night when the fire broke out here, give a glowing report of the hospitality extended them by Missoula. Their story of the ride to Missoula tells that the train was in great danger several times of being cut off by the flames and even of being burned.

"The fire pursued the train all the way to St. Regis," said Mrs. E. A. Lockhart today. "The train kept stopping to take people on all the time and our progress seemed fearfully slow. We thought the fire would catch up to us many a time."

"The Missoula people should be given hearty praise for their kindness toward the Wallace people and others on the train. They endeavored to see that everyone was cared for. I was standing in the office of the Shepard hotel when a man walked in and asked if he could get a bed. He said he had no money. He was told that lack of money made no difference whatever and that he surely could have a bed."

"Mrs. Otto Graffenberger, wife of the engineer at the brewery, returned last night with her five children, coming from Missoula by the way of Spokane. "Missoula certainly did treat us fine," she exclaimed. "When the relief train pulled into the depot we found breakfast was all ready and waiting for us. A committee was there and took hold of the situation, seeing that everyone got rooms and something to eat. Not a person stepped off the train but what someone would speak to them and ask them if they had any means to care for themselves."

"I had four of my children with me, Willie being left behind by accident. The committee sent us a meal ticket worth $5 for use while in Missoula. When we got ready to leave for home they furnished our family with transportation to Spokane. "In Spokane the first thing asked for was money. They wouldn't do a thing for us."

Willie Graffenberger, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Graffenberger, was among the passengers on the relief train that left here for Spokane Saturday night. When Spokane was reached he went straight to the Spokane hotel and stated to the clerk that Wallace had become too hot for him, he had come to Spokane and he wanted a room and bed. A Wallace woman who was there took charge of the lad at once.

Be sure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. Changes of water and climate often cause sudden attacks of diarrhoea, and it is best to be prepared. Sold by all dealers.

This relinquishment must be sold at once, and for a few days will accept $320 cash or will trade for town lots or livestock.

SAVINGS BANK LAW EXPLAINED

POSTMASTER ROSS SENDS FOR INFORMATION—THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT.

"No," said Postmaster Ross when questioned regarding a dispatch from Washington last night which said that he had asked that the local postoffice be made a postal savings bank depository. "I did not make a formal application, but merely wrote to the department to find out just when the law would be in operation. I have received many inquiries regarding the new law and several people have even come into the postoffice with money which they wanted to deposit. I have not yet heard from Washington, but it will be some little time, I think, before the law becomes operative."

According to the terms of the bill, as finally passed, any person over 19 years of age may deposit money in the post office banks. Not less than $1, or multiples of a dollar, may be received, but the depositors may purchase at the postoffice a 19-cent card to which may be attached special stamps sold at 10 cents each. When a sufficient number of stamps have been attached to the card to give it a value of $1, or a multiple, it may be entered as a deposit.

No person may deposit more than $100 a month, as the postal bank is designed for small depositors. Two per cent interest will be given once a year except in case a depositor has more than $500 balance. The deposits shall be placed in a local bank by the postmaster at a rate of interest not less than 2 1/2 per cent. In case none of the local banks will accept the money at these terms the nearest bank that will accept such a deposit in the territory will accept such a deposit; the money will be placed in charge of the government.

The depositors may at any time invest their money in United States bonds. The government binds itself to pay all deposits with interest, and by so doing does away with all possibility of panic or closed doors. The law, according to present plans, will be tried out in some of the smaller towns first, and as soon as the system is perfected all cities will be permitted to accept deposits.

OLE ERICKSON BEGINS HIS HOMEWARD VOYAGE

Ole Erickson has started for home. Sweden has tired him. It proved not to be the place that it once was and Ole is pining again for the mountains, fresh air and productive soil of Montana. This is the substance of a message sent by postcard, or brevitor, to W. H. Smith and W. H. Reed. Ole sends his regards to his Missoula friends. The message follows:

"Frank Heide, I just talked to you and the boys in Missoula. So write you and send you my regards to all. I just tacked I start back for Missoula so I think I been in Salden long enof so halo to all. "Yurs trolo

THE WEATHER

It was water, water everywhere yesterday with a great sufficiency for thirst-quenching purposes, plenty with which to put out the forest fires and enough left over to get enough mud in the streets a little so that male Missoula when he went to his dinner got the "Now, Henry, stop tracking in here with your muddy feet. And on that clean floor that I spent all day scrubbing. It seems to me" spied road to him. The weather man found 59 of an inch in his little pan when he made out his report and is still rather razed over it. His official report, even as it will be sent to the weather bureau, reads:

Maximum.....59
Minimum.....46
At 6 a. m.....
Thermometer.....49
Barometer.....26.66

At 6 p. m.....

CATARRH CAN QUICKLY BE CURED

A bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, that will last a lifetime, and simple instructions for curing catarrh make a Hyomei outfit.

Into the inhaler you pour a few drops of magical Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me). This is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within and now you are ready to breathe it over the germ-infested membrane, where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrh germs. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalyptol combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, coughs, colds, or money back. It cleans out a stuffed-up head in a few minutes. Sold by druggists everywhere, and by Geo. Freisheimer in Missoula. Complete outfit $1. And remember that extra bottles, if afterward needed, cost only 50 cents. Breathe it, that's all. To break up cold in head or chest in a few minutes, pour a teaspoonful of Hyomei into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor.

FURNITURE ARRIVES IN MISSOULA

NEW STEEL FIXTURES FOR COURTHOUSE RECEIVED AND UNLOADED.

Yesterday the new fixtures for the county courthouse were unloaded and carried to the building. Steel filing cases, desks and bookcases, all of the finest make and best quality, were in the shipment, and a day or two will see at least part of the building furnished in a style which will be in accord with the structure. One carload was received Wednesday and another was unloaded yesterday. This car was shipped on August 16 and another is now on the road which was started on August 23. These two cars will carry the bulk of the furniture, but it is expected that another car will be sent later. The new furniture was critically examined and inspected by all of the courthouse clerks yesterday, and all of them were enthusiastic over it. The difference between the new fixtures and the old is so great that it cannot be described and with the arrival of this single shipment the dinginess and instability of the present furniture has increased. When it is all installed the building will indeed be a credit to Missoula county.

THE LIFE ABUNDANT IS SUBJECT

DR. H. O. BREEDEN ADDRESSES LARGE CONGREGATION AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Dr. Horvay O. Breeden preached to another large audience at the Christian church last evening. Dr. Breeden took as his subject, "The Life Abundant." His discourse was typically good and his eloquence was displayed to a fine advantage.

The music was an important feature of the meeting. The Lintt brothers deserve great credit for their ability. Under the direction of Professor W. A. Lintt the chorus work has made great progress. Nearly 40 people sang in the choir last night and the result of even the short period of training was easily visible. G. P. Lintt sang an effective solo.

Tonight Dr. Breeden will preach again at the Christian church and on Sunday morning will conduct three services. The morning service will be the regular Sunday meeting of the church. In the afternoon a special women's meeting will be held and in the evening Dr. Breeden will address the union meeting at the Harnois theater. The music of the Lintt brothers will be a feature of each of these meetings.
