A DECLARATION

I warn my opponents that the fight has only just begun. Whatever may betide in the future, of one thing the disciples of an easy opportunism may rest assured—I will never abandon the men and women who drew around me to battle for these principles. They and I stand with our faces toward the morning; we will never be undered from one another; and we will never yield the ground we have taken or flinch from the fight to which we are pledged.
—Theodore Roosevelt.

SET FIRE TO THE SEA?

Strategists are wondering how Wilhelm means to cross the English channel. Could he risk a general naval battle; and could he hope to win? He could not, unless he has a surprise to spring upon the world.
Wilhelm has sprung several surprises. There is his new explosive, battering down the strong fortresses; and there are his howitzers, which nothing but burrowing can foil. Has Wilhelm something similarly effective in naval warfare?

The theory is advanced, as a long shot, that he means to set fire to the sea—that he will lure the British into the channel—their whole channel fleet —and!

THEN—AND NOW.

Within the memory of a majority of men now living, socialists were persecuted. Openly to embrace the party was to risk economic ruin, even social ostracism.

Today, the socialist goes everywhere and is received as well as anyone else.
All this in a generation.

This persecution has had its inevitable reaction. It has left the socialists bitter.

We believe their party would advance more quickly if they would drop the martyr air and cease their indiscriminate attacks on all who happen to view things in a different light.

The Germans can build a Zeppelin and send it up, in three months; but it doesn't take near that long to bring one down.

Lies brought about this war—shams, lies and misconceptions. War will cease when the masses of every country know the truth of things.

Don't be a curststone Christian. If you could have been in church last night, and were not, you have no right to criticize.

Neither side can blame the world for considering reports of Belgian battles at La Basse fishy.

The Chief Friend you will ever have is You; so You ought to give Him a square deal.

FLUX

American politics are getting pretty badly mixed up these days. The lines are so loosely drawn that one scarcely knows where to rank himself. And there may be a decade of this, before the inevitable realignment, between radical and reactionary, is completed.

At present, there are within the progressive, the republican and the democratic ranks men who belong with the socialists—the radical extreme; and there are hosts of republicans and democrats who belong with the middle-of-the-road party, which is the progressive. The final bourbon party is to be named; it will compose the reactionaries in both the democratic and republican parties as we now know them.

For, roughly, when we have passed this state of flux, we shall find politics divided between the old and the new; between those who hold property more sacred than life and those who hold life more sacred than property. In the bourbon party will be found those whose selfish interests place them there, supplemented by those who hope to get into the affluent classes or are directly opposed to them.
This party will cling to the laws, traditions and conceptions of dead centuries. The new party will hold a bite and a roof and a rag supreme over all other earthly considerations and will aim to change the laws and economic systems very radically.

The progressive party as it now exists is the middle-of-the-road organization because it is halfway between the extreme radicals and the extreme reactionaries. The bull moose, if successful, might accomplish many things without serious civil disturbances; the radical extremists will not reach their goal without trouble.

The next election is not only a bye-election but will come under such circumstances that the popular verdict will not bear directly upon the great economic battle of the future.
The people realize that America is in a very tight place and hundreds of thousands who may vote differently in 1916 will be cautious next month. On the whole, we cannot see how Nov. 3, next, can bear the slightest significance.

By 1916, the war in Europe should be over and we should be free again to turn our attention to our own affairs.
Then, we shall see what we shall see.

CONSOLIDATION CAN NOT INCREASE TAX

Helena, Oct. 21.—(Special).—To The Missoulian: I observed in the headlines a day or two ago a statement to the effect that President Bowman is against consolidation. On reading the statement of President Bowman I find that he only says that he does not believe it would be well for the school of mines to be moved from Butte, and the author of the article wanted that I should give as wide publicity to this as I had to some of the other statements about President Bowman. The fact of the matter is that I have never

It does not take the profoundest student in the work to see by comparison that practically everything that is given at the school of mines is given at the other two schools, and that one man added to the faculty of the agricultural college could, without doubt, take care of the few boys who go to the school of mines. President Bowman certainly did not mean to be misleading when he spoke of this schedule having been prepared "years ago."

One thing the people should remember and that is that it is impossible

The Way They Take It

NOT A POLITICAL ISSUE.
(Montana Daily Record.)
The Independent says that of the initiative measures which will be submitted to the voters November 3, the one proposing the consolidation of the University of Montana, the State College at Bozeman and the School of Mines at Butte "has become a party issue." Explaining why it believes the consolidation is a party issue, the Independent continues:
"From the inception of the movement to consolidate these schools, Governor S. V. Stewart has been actively opposed to the proposition, and together with Attorney General Kelly, Secretary of State Alderson and others, the governor is opposing the proposition in his campaign addresses.

"Recognizing Governor Stewart, as we must, as the head of his party in Montana, it can be said that the consolidation proposition is a political party measure—opposed by the leaders of the democratic party in Montana.
Friends of Governor Stewart and his political supporters, will, therefore, be called upon to vote no on this proposition."

It may be that Chairman Arthur of the democratic state committee regards the consolidation matter as a party issue; it may be that Governor Stewart and other state officers also do. But there are thousands who do not so regard it. Governor Stewart may have made it a party issue, or a "political party measure," as the Independent says, but if he has, he will certainly not have the support of that other leader of the Montana democracy, Senator T. J. Walsh. Only a little while ago Senator Walsh wrote a strong letter which was generally published in the papers of the state favoring consolidation and giving his reasons. Former Senator Paris Gilson is a democrat, and he favors consolidation.

On the other hand many republicans favor consolidation, and many will oppose the measure which seeks to consolidate. In Missoula there are both democrats and republicans. The people of that city have gone on record as favoring consolidation, without regard to politics. In Bozeman the sentiment is against consolidation. There are republicans and democrats in that town. It cannot be said consolidation is a party issue in any sense of the word, and neither the Independent, Chairman Arthur nor Governor Stewart can make it one.

THE EASIEST WAY
TO END DANDRUFF

STOP FALLING HAIR AND ITCH-ING SCALP

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and dizziness of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair, and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notifies it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need.
This simple remedy has never been known to fail—Adv.

HOW TO MAKE TEA.

To make a good cup of tea is a very simple matter, but it is also something which every housewife does not know how to do. In the first place, an earthenware teapot should be used in preference to silver-plated, copper and other metal vessels. Allow one teaspoonful of tea to each person and one for the pot, and heat the teapot with hot water before putting in the tea.
Then let fresh water come to a boil, pour over the tea, and let it steep.
The teapot should be kept scrupulously clean, and owing to the accumulation of tannin on the inside, it would be well, once in a while, to put soda in the boiling water in which the teapot is washed.
