SHORTER CHAPEL'S NOTES. Rev. Robert L. Pope, B. D., Pastor.

Our spring revival is now in progress and already signs of showers of blessing appear. Under the forceful gospel sermons by Dr. J. P. Howard, than whom the race has not produced a more successful evangelist, increasingly large crowds are being drawn to the meetings and already a number of persons have been led to confess Christ and others, who were on the back ground, have renewed their covenant. The Billy Sunday campaign had a most wholesome effect upon other races, but our people were practically speaking, untouched. It is hoped that the coming of Dr. Howard to Denver will be the means of a great shaking up of our people here and will be the means of adding to the membership of all of our churches.

The Lord used Dr. Howard in a most remarkable way in St. Louis, Mo., where in a two months campaign more than three hundred persons were received into the church. It is our prayer that the Lord will accomplish as much through him in Denver. Dr. Howard's sermon topics for tomorrow will be as follows: 11:00 a. m., "God's Great Love." 8:00 p. m., "Repentance." Since a great outpouring of the public is expected at both services, comfortable seats can be assured only to those who come early.

Our Easter rally will be concluded tomorrow, when every member who has not already complied fully with his obligation, is expected to report his assessment in full. Remember, friends, that excuses are not negotiable. If you want to put your officers in position to pay off the church's indebtedness, you must make a sacrifice. Be loyal to your colors. If you are Red, stand by Mrs. Daniel H. Williams, and if you are Blue, then rally to the call of Mrs. Mattie P. King.

Come! and see the Grand Fashion Show, Redeemer entertainment, April 21, East Turner.

Sunday being the Annual Missionary Rally of the Episcopal Sunday Schools of the city when the Lenten offerings will be presented, the choir and Sunday School will join in the procession at St. John's Cathedral, Fourteenth avenue and Washington street. Mrs. Lillian Hawkins-Jones, our noted vocalist, will very likely render "Consider the Lilies of the Field," by Topliff. All parents and relatives of the Sunday School children, as well as members and friends of the Church, are requested to attend this service, which begins at 3 p. m. sharp. Bishop Lloyd, President of the Missionary Board, will preach. The choir and Sunday School will meet the Vicar at the Church of the Redeemer at 2:15 p. m., whence they will proceed to the Cathedral. Confirmation service on Tuesday, April 27th, by Bishop Brewster of Western Colorado.

Columbine Temple No. 11, S. M. T., will give a series of entertainments beginning April 29th, at Miss Ada Gibson's, 2942 Glenarm St., following dates, May 27th and June 24th. Locations for May and June later. Keep off dates.

THE ZION BAPTIST CHURCH. 24th Avenue and Humboldt. David E. Over, D. D., Minister.

Our series of gospel meetings closed Tuesday night and Dr. Jones left Thursday for Colorado Springs, where he will spend Sunday, and then on to the Pacific coast. Undoubtedly the series has brought a great blessing to Zion in deepening the spiritual life of the people. God used the sermons of Dr. Jones to search and sift Zion as he has rarely done before. Many have been brought closer to the Lord and are prepared for a closer walk than they have ever known. Among those who came into the church, twenty-five were received for baptism.

Mrs. Edwin Seldon, of Broadway Baptist church, one of the leading missionary workers of the city, addressed the ladies of the Mission Society last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Branton Tule, a field worker, who has spent about fifteen years in Africa, was also present and gave a short address. With these two women of experience and power present, the meeting was necessarily one of rich interest and helpfulness.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning from the subject, "The Word of God." All the friends are invited to be present. The rite of baptism will be administered at the close of the service.

Next week the activities of the congregation will take up the regular schedule. A full page of announcements may be had from the Church Bulletin at the Sunday service.

Mr. Jesse Williams, son of Sister Priscilla Williams, who died last week, was buried from the church Tuesday afternoon. The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

The infant daughter of Sister Hattie Smith was buried Thursday afternoon from the home. The friends will remember to comfort our sister through their prayers.

There has been much improvement among the sick of the congregation during the last few weeks. Among those who are yet confined are Mother Riley, Sister Arbuckle and Sister Todd. Others are convalescent.

Next Thursday night the famous Glee Club of Tuskegee Institute, Booker Washington's school, will sing at Zion for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Every lover of music will be present.

THE PEOPLE'S PRESBYTERIAN. E. 23rd Ave. and Washington St. Pastor, J. A. Thos-Hazell, S. T. B.

Sermon topics, Sunday, April 18: 11 a. m., "Judgment in God's House." 2:30 p. m., services at the Mission. 4:15 p. m., Y. P. S. C. E. 5 p. m., "Man's Chief End."

Amidst the inclemency of the weather, just about the time the people began to gather, the cantata rendered last Thursday night was all that the audience could have expected. Without exception there were sentiments of praise and satisfaction for the participants on the program. The cantata was a financial success. We take the opportunity through these columns to thank the people who contributed to make the cantata such a success. The program will be repeated the first Sabbath afternoon in May.

The choir will sing at Aurora Presbyterian church tomorrow night. The Rev. J. Mont Travis, Presbytery's chairman of Home Mission work, is now supplying the church.

The Presbytery of Denver convenes next Tuesday in the 23rd Ave. Presbyterian church. Elder J. Matlock represents the Union Presbyterian church, Dearfield. The Presbytery, through the Home Mission committee, requests Mr. O. T. Jackson, Governor's messenger, to tell them all about Dearfield colony.

Next Wednesday night the congregation is summoned to hear the annual report of the Presbytery and to take action on some very important matters.

THE COLORED CITIZENS' LEAGUE

This organization, inaugurated on April 6th, 1915, has the best interests of the people at heart along industrial, commercial and political lines, and in its declaration, pledges itself with the support of the people to establish strong, influential, clean, righteous and practical ways and means to assert our rights in accordance with the law and ever strive to gain the recognition which we merit as a whole, but which is being forfeited to us on account of the actions of some politicians in our city.

There is at present among us a class of men who have a peculiar tendency to turn every patriotic and other public movement into some underhand political scheme to blindfold the people and carry out their selfish motives and desires. Such actions should be discouraged and frowned upon before they result in an open disgrace, as those who are guilty possess no honest interest in any cause launched for the benefit of the race and eventually sink to the element of destructive agents who pride in doing everything to impair the progress of things constructive. It is getting to such a state that even when a body of citizens resolve to stamp out this evil by calling a public meeting, representatives of this unfortunate class will appear in large numbers to disrupt, annoy and make unintelligible by their continuous interruptions the proceedings of the meetings. The time is therefore ripe when the community, tiring of this action, should begin to get rid of this class of people. If these same persons who are so anxious to further this immoral course would be so zealous as to exercise the same amount of honest care for the commercial, industrial and political interests of their race by supporting race enterprises with money and not wind, establishing and patronizing business houses contributing to the upkeep of the church which helps spread civilization, and not enjoy in their present unprofitable action the race would come in for betterment in an ennobling degree. No small clique of decrepit politicians represents the public interest. They may have the right to choose their own course in politics, but they should stick to politics and not be forever trying to deceive the public. No honest public movement need lack for followers, because it must first emanate from a trustworthy source, go before the public on its merits and not be the result of a policy born in a night and brought to light by some parasite. When our men scheme, let them scheme for themselves. When they wish to be patriotic let them get rid of their selfishness, get out of their narrowness and work with preness of thought and action for their race and country. This the Colored Citizens' League proposes to do and we trust may carry out their plan successfully.

Blessings of Imagination.

Though a man never fights, he can imagine himself a scrapper, and the nation that remains on good terms with the world may still have the comfort of believing that it would clean up all comers if driven to it. Peace is a blessing that runs no risks of disillusionment.—Toledo Blade.

Financial Genius.

Mr. Foghorn—Take out your debt in singing lessons! You're crazy! What kind of a voice do you think I have? Professor Squeale—Like a steam whistle, only worse. But when you've taken one lesson in your home the neighbors will raise the money and pay the debt.

Johnny's Distinction.

"Dear sir," wrote the anxious mother, "I am afraid Johnny is not trying enough." "Dear Madam," replied the harassed teacher, "I assure you that Johnny is trying enough. He is the most trying boy in the class."—Stray Stories.

"Dey say dat you can't git sumpin' foh nuffin," said Uncle Eben. "But de gemman dat done collects de taxes wifout makin' no improvements shows me dat it kin be done."

Flattery Wasted.

The Flatterer—"But don't you think your son is wasting his talents in this little burg?" The Magnate (caustically)—"Of course he is, but he might as well waste them here as somewhere else."—Life.

Romance to Reality.
