J. ALBRIGHT'S COLUMBIAN SYRUP.

THIS Medicine has proved itself a sovereign remedy, when all other means have failed, in curing the following diseases, viz:
Necrosis, or affections of the bones; King's Evil, or Scrofula; White Swelling; Inverterate Ulcers, Liver and Biliary complaints; Rheumatic affections of the head and system generally; Ulcers of the Mouth and Throat; Discharges from the Ears; Syphilis and all diseases arising from an improper use of Mercury.

As a general depurative, or cleanser of the blood, this medicine possesses invaluable powers and has proved itself highly beneficial, as a spring and autumn alterative; also when given to children after vaccination.

The numerous testimonies published in its favour from highly respectable sources, showing its superior healing power to that of Peppercorn, and other remedies, are sufficient to establish its merits, beyond a parallel.

The following recommendatory notice, is from a regular graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and is of the late Dr. S. B. Barton, Professor of Materia Medica, Natural History and Botany, in the University of Pennsylvania.

Medical Recommendatory Notice.

Having recommended the use of J. Albright's "Columbian Syrup" in my private practice for nearly two years, and having witnessed its decided efficacy, in many cases which had previously resisted the usual remedies, now with much pleasure give my testimony in its favour, by stating that I have prescribed the Syrup with great success, in Ulceration of the Mouth and Throat; Scrofulous diseases; Rheumatic affection of the Head; Liver complaints; Chronic Rheumatism; scald head; Discharges from the ears; diseases prevailing among children particularly; Carious affection of the bones; Mercurial cases and secondary Syphilis. The length of time many of the diseases have been cured, convinces me they are permanent; and may with propriety be said, that its healing qualities rank it among the first remedies of the present day.

JOHN J. MAYWEG, M. D.

The following certificate is a striking instance of the superior efficacy of the Columbian Syrup, over that of Peppercorn and Catholicon; although those Medicines were used to a large extent without effect, and the disease still progressing, the Syrup after being prescribed but a short time, checked the progress of the disease and in a few months performed a perfect cure.

Communication.

An important cure performed by J. Albright's "COLUMBIAN SYRUP," in New Haven, copied from the Connecticut Herald of January 15, 1828. I was afflicted with wandering pains in different parts of my body, which commenced in the Spring of 1822, and lasted about 18 months, from which time it settled in my right knee and began to swell, and continued swollen during the winter. I tried many things to heat it, but all to no effect. In the month of March, 1824, it ulcerated and broke—from that time it spread to a large sore, which was two inches in diameter. In August, the same year, the ulcers began on the lower part of my knee pan, gathered and broke there, and spread to the size of a man's hand. During the fall and winter, I had the advice of many surgeons and physicians, but all to no purpose; it continued to grow worse. In the summer of 1826, I took 2 bottles of Scott's Peppercorn, from which I found no relief; in the fall of the same year, I took 4 bottles of Potter's Catholicon, also without effect. In January, 1827, I began on Swain's Peppercorn, and that also failed of affording relief, but my leg was very bad. Sixteen large ulcers were on my leg, one on the calf four inches in diameter, one on my knee the size of a man's hand, one above on the outside of my thigh four inches in diameter, and 13 small ones. On the 8th of April, 1827, I began on the Columbian Syrup, and in two months and a half my leg was healed up soundly and has remained so.

This cure I attribute to the use of Jacob Albright's Columbian Syrup. I am now well and can walk any reasonable distance with convenience.

RHEUMATISM!

BY THE USE OF
DR. JEBB'S RHEUMATIC LINIMENT.

Copy of a Letter!!
Charlestown, (Mass.) June 23, 1827.

To the Proprietor of Dr. Jebb's Liniment.

Dear Sir—I deem it a duty I owe to suffering humanity, to acquaint you, and through you the public, should you think best) of the unexpected and surprising cure performed on myself by the use of the above most excellent medicine. I have been for more than thirty years, and sometimes most severely, afflicted with the Rheumatism, have been frequently rendered perfectly helpless, and in consequence confined to my bed, when it has required two persons to move me, being in such extreme pain: I have several times been under the care of the most eminent physicians, but procured only temporary relief. I one day noticed the advertisement of Dr. Jebb's Liniment, with the testimonials accompanying it, and was induced to try a bottle, which I used without much sensible benefit. I concluded, however, to persevere, and bought another bottle, and was greatly relieved, and by the use of half the third bottle, was wholly cured, and have never since had a return of the pain, which I had not been free from a month at a time for thirty years, and it is now more than three years since I was cured. I would most earnestly advise every person suffering under this painful complaint, not to despair of a cure, so long as they can obtain "Dr. Jebb's Liniment." You are at liberty to make any use of this you may think advisable.

Most respectfully yours,
CALEB SYMMES.
To the foregoing testimony, many other unquestionable proofs might be added, in favour of the superior Liniment of Dr. Jebb. Nothing but a fair trial, which the proprietor confidently solicits, can give an adequate idea of its unrivalled efficacy, in mitigating, and thoroughly mastering, the excruciating disease, to which it has been successfully applied in a multitude of cases. The operation of the Liniment is often immediate; and has frequently cured rheumatic affections of years standing, in four and twenty hours. It is also recommended with confidence, as one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, sprains, and chilblains. Price 50 cents.
