"THEY SHALL PAY"

When her father died in prison from the disgrace following a Wall street manipulation that had been framed on him, Margaret Seldon swore to make the guilty men pay for the wrong done her father. Then began the girl's lone fight. She pitted her wits and cleverness against their brain and brawn. First one, and then another, she plotted against, and found sweetness in her revenge. But love put a stumbling block in the way when she set out to ruin the son of the third man, who had died. Did she make him pay for his father's wrong? Did she make herself pay to avenge her father? A DRAMA FOR EVERY DAUGHTER WHO LOVES HER FATHER!

KNIGHT CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.
Lemon Ave.
Saturday and Sunday was our first quarterly conference and meeting. Our energetic pastor, Rev. W. S. Bush. is a live ever since his coming in December, he has manifested a great interest for our welfare and as Sunday was the first quarterly meeting of his ministerial career, all eyes was turned in that direction and to our astonishment both the quarterly conference and Sundays meeting was a great success surpassing all efforts along this line for fifteen years; the congregations larger and the donations greater. Knight Chapel is again on the map. Rev. Rush has a part of the educational assessment for Paul Quinn College already collected and the prospects for a good years work is truly fine. The union service was full of enthusiasm. Dr. Mays of the Congregational church in Dallas preached the first sermon. Dr. G. E. Brown, of White Rrock, also delivered an awakening address. Revs. F. D. Williams, J. H. Bush. J. H. Hardeman, Rev. Garrity with the pastor of the Baptist church was preacht, spoke words of encouragement with the helping hand, the collection was more than $30.09. This is wonderful and we are proud of our pastor. Our church and Sunday school with all the departments are getting along nicely. Next Sunday is our regular pastors day all are invited to come and worship with us.

Rev. C. W. Abington, Pastor.
Rev. F. D. Williams, Asst. Pastor.
The services were well attended all day Sunday, the pulpit at each service being filled by visiting ministers.
Rev. W. D. Miller, Zone Director of the Educational Drive of the Tenth Episcopai District of the A. M. E. church preached for us at 11 a. m. His text was found in 35 chapter of Proverba and 18 verse: "Where there is no Vision. the People Perish; but he that keepth the law, happy is he." His sermon was both instructive and spiring. At 6:30 p. m. the Allen Endeavor League had an interesting meeting. The Pres. Bro. A. C. Carr is inviting the members of the church especially the young people to attend the League. A program is rendered each Sunday.

At 7:30 p. m., the Rev. Mr. Montgomery, a product of Paul Queen College, Waco, Texas, preached for us. His text was found in the 1st chapter of Genesis and 3rd verse. "And Gad Said Let There He Light and There Was Light." The young man proved himself a deep thinker and a forceful speaker and his sermon was short but well delivered.

On Sunday, March 19th, Is our second quarterly conference and rally day. Each member and friend is requested to give 35:00 to help on the church indebtedness. When our pastor, Dr. Abington, returns we want him to feel that we have been idle during his absence. Now let each member do his or her part and success will be ours. The Presiding Elder will be with as and will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. at 3:30 p. m. all of the A. M. E. churches will be with as in a union service. Everybody is Invited to be present and worship with 18.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday was largely attended. 11 o'clock services were conducted by Rev. McIllveen who preached a powerful sermon. The deacons and deaconess board held a rally meeting at 3:30 p. m. which proved to be successful $15.00 was realized in this meeting. The B. Y. P. U. held a lively session The president of this auxiliary is about to report for Oklahoma to make that city his future home. The members of Salem as well as the B. Y. P. U. regretted very much to loose this fine young man and his family, they will be missed greatly. Rev. McIllveen preached again in the night services using for this text, the 23rd Division of the Psiams. There were six added to the church. On last Monday night at Conference there were $100.00 raised. We are inviting all the public to come and be with us at all time and we will see that you are made welcome at all dines.
