

COUNTY MEETING.

The Whigs and Antimasons of Somerset County are requested to meet at 2, P. M. on Tuesday the 14th of July, at the Court House in Somerset, for the purpose of appointing conferees, to meet the conferees of Fayette and Greene, to put in nomination a candidate for Congress.

By order of the County Committee. Next Governor--Gen. Markle.

We perceive that several journals are agitating the question as to who shall be the next Whig candidate for Governor, and a disposition manifested in certain quarters to push the claims of Gen. IRVIN. We repeat now what we said before, that against Gen. Irvin we have nothing to urge. Believing him to be an honest, devoted Whig, a man of strong mind, and deservedly popular in his own district, we hope to see him the Whig candidate for Governor at the PROPER TIME, when, if our life be spared us till then, we shall take pleasure in giving him our humble support.

Something About Butter.

A gentleman of this county, who had last year engaged in the Butter business, informed us recently, that the Baltimore dealers had determined for the future to have all Butter inspected before purchasing. It appears that they have come to this determination in consequence of having last year received some lots which were sold to them as "Glades Butter," but which on examination proved to be a very inferior article.

Militia and Volunteers.

Gen. CAMERON, on presenting in the Senate lately the proceedings of a meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia, tendering to the Government their services in the existing war with Mexico, stated that Pennsylvania had a muster roll of two hundred and thirty thousand militia, and a volunteer force of thirty two thousand--making altogether two hundred and sixty-two thousand men, which is more than half the number that Buonaparte marched into Russia when he attempted the conquest of the great Empire of the North.

A "Democratic War."

The Philadelphia Keystone, a rampant locofoco sheet, designates the present war with Mexico as a "Democratic war," thinking no doubt thereby to be able to make a little capital for the Administration, whose conduct in the matter has been censured by some. We believe the Keystone to be correct in its designation, in so far as the BRINGING ON of the war is concerned; but as regards the FIGHTING PART, we think it most egregiously in error.

Vote of Thanks.

Congress has passed a vote of thanks to the officers and men of the Army of Occupation for their gallant conduct in the recent engagements with the Mexicans on the Rio Grande.

Speech of Mr. Stewart.

We refer the reader to another column for some remarks of Mr. Stewart in regard to the existing war and the pay of those who are to do the fighting part. All are aware that, until further enlistments take place, the Government's main reliance for troops will be upon volunteers--and it is this meritorious class of soldiers whose pay Mr. Stewart wishes to have increased to ten dollars per month--just two dollars more than Members of Congress receive per day.

The National Fair.

We are gratified to learn that the great National Fair, recently held at Washington City, proved entirely satisfactory to the friends of Home Industry, and did not fail to convince even the most sceptical free traders that, under the operations of the present excellent Tariff, our manufacturers and artisans can cope successfully with those of any other country. And we are the more gratified at this result, because the project of holding such a Fair originated with our Representative in Congress, Hon. ANDREW STEWART, who rallied to his aid influential men from the several States, to carry out that enterprize, and to whom the nation is therefore mainly indebted for this great triumph of our workmen over those of Europe.

A Prize.

The New Orleans Delta states that the United States Marshal had seized the Mexican schooner Juniata, under process issued against her as a prize of war, she being owned by citizens of Mexico.

Polkism.

James K. Polk's brother, William H. Polk, who receives a salary of $4,500 for going to Naples in the character of Envoy, is said to be spending his time in the city of Paris.

THE FLOUR MARKET.

Flour is down in price, both in the east and west. In Philadelphia it is selling at $4, in Baltimore $3 87, in Cumberland at $3 50, and in Pittsburgh at from $2 50 to $2 87.

Edward Webster, son of Daniel Webster, is raising a company at Boston, to proceed to the seat of war.

We see it reported that fifty bushels of strawberries were sold in Cincinnati one day week before last.

The "Somerset Guards," commanded by Capt. S. W. PEARSON, have resolved to "go to the wars," should their services be needed.

The books for subscription of stock in this company were opened in Pittsburgh on the 9th inst., and nearly 6,000 shares taken the first day.

Henry Clay, Jr., it is said, is raising a Volunteer company to march against Mexico.

George B. Crittenden, a Captain in the new regiment of Mounted Riflemen, was in the famous battle of Mier, which was fought some years since.

George W. Kendall, who was one of the prisoners taken in the Texas expedition against Mexico, has joined the Army under Gen. Taylor.

The citizens of Hagerstown, Md., have determined to erect a monument to the memory of Maj. Ringgold.

THE SEASON.

The present season has been very favorable to vegetation and the growing crops are far advanced. The prospect for an abundant harvest never was better.

Fayette County.

The Whigs of Fayette, at their recent county meeting, adopted a series of resolutions, from which we clip the following:

RESOLVED, That in the present condition of our beloved country--involved in war with a neighboring Republic, while we feel justified in pointedly condemning the policy of our rulers, who have unnecessarily brought this war upon us, yet as Whigs, and lovers of the country, we highly approve of the course of our whig brethren in Congress in providing MEN and MEANS for the prosecution of the war.

RESOLVED, That in answer to the base insinuation that the "whigs are not the friends of the country," we point triumphantly to a SCOTT & TAYLOR and RINGOLD, and a host of other whig officers of the army and navy, as whigs ever ready to sacrifice their lives and their fortunes in defence of their country.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the whigs of this Congressional district are due to our able and indefatigable Representative, ANDREW STEWART, Esq., for his untiring defence of the Tariff--for his project of a NATIONAL FAIR to counteract the influence of the exhibition of British manufactures, in one of the rooms of the Capitol, got up by the friends of James K. Polk, enemies of the Tariff, to prostrate domestic industry--and also, for his recent though unsuccessful effort to raise the pay of volunteer soldiers.

The meeting appointed William Colvin, Alexander Black, and Sebastian Rush, as conferees to meet with others from Somerset and Greene to nominate a candidate for Congress.

Kentucky Volunteers.

The Washington Union says: "When it was proclaimed that the government had called on Kentucky for troops to prosecute the war against Mexico, such was the zeal displayed, that two companies, started to the capital to report themselves to the governor as ready to march; one of them on arriving at Lexington, was apprised that he was preceded by the other, who had only left a few minutes and immediately drove post haste to be in first; the other learning the object, increased his speed, and both continued the race until one unfortunately broke his buggy, and left an apparently easy contest to his rival; but, nothing discouraged he ungared his horse and mounted without saddle, and by taking a near cut beat his antagonist to the executive chamber, but was informed that the number required had already been accepted; in the meantime the other came up, when both crest fallen and disappointed, inquired if they would not have preference in a war with England; such is the spirit that pervades our country."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.--The Convention of the two branches of the New Hampshire Legislature on Friday elected General ANTHONY COLBY, the Whig candidate, Governor for the ensuing year, by a majority of 21 votes. The vote stood--for Anthony Colby, 146; for J. W. Williams, 125.
