

Alexandria Gazette & Daily Advertiser

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, RYAL STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

VOL. XXI.]

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1821.

[No. 3936]

A Livery Stable

Now opened on the premises formerly occupied by Thomas Triplett, on Washington street, between King and Prince streets, where citizens and travellers can be accommodated with a careful ostler, and hay and grain three times a day for fifty cents, or by the month at ten dollars. As there is a large lot attached to the premises, with the accommodation of a pump, Druggers, and those that have horses for sale, will find it to their advantage to call, as they may get hay by the small, & grain as they may want it; and those disposed to purchase horses, by leaving a description shall have the earliest notice.

JAMES ALLISON & Co.

February 1

District of Columbia,

Alexandria County, ss.

WAS committed to the jail of this county on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man named Kinzey Jones, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, and of a lightish cast; says he has been accustomed to following the water in the bay trade. He claims freedom, and states he has a mother in Baltimore, on Federal Hill, by the name of Dorcus Jones, and that he served an apprenticeship in Baltimore to the sailmaking business with William Ward. The owner is desired to come, prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

ANDW. ROUNSAVELL, Jailor.

District of Columbia, to wit

County of Alexandria, ss.

IN CHANCERY. Joseph Smith and William Smith, under the firm of Joseph Smith & Son—Plaintiffs, Against Francis Adams, jun. and John D. Herbert, and Philip H. Henop, late joint merchants and copartners under the firm of Adams, Herbert & Co. and Maurice Herbert—Defendants.

THE defendant Philip H. Henop, not having entered his appearance and given security according to the statute and rules of this Court; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, upon affidavit filed, that the said Philip H. Henop is not an inhabitant of the District of Columbia—it is ordered, that the said defendant, Philip H. Henop, do appear here on or before the 1st day of the next term, and answer the bill of the complainants, and give security for performing the decrees of the Court, and that a copy of this order be forthwith published for two months successively in one of the public newspapers printed in this county, and that another copy be posted at the front door of the Court-house of said county.

Teste, M. I. LEE, C. C.

District of Columbia, to wit

County of Alexandria, ss.

IN CHANCERY. Bryan Hampson—Complainant, Against

John Spence, and the President, Directors, and Company of the Bank of Alexandria, Defendants.

THE defendant John Spence, not having entered his appearance and given security according to the statute, and rules of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, upon affidavit filed, that the said John Spence is not an inhabitant of the District of Columbia: on motion, it is ordered, that the defendant, John Spence do appear here on or before the first day of next May term, and answer the bill of the complainant, and give security for performing the decrees of the Court; and that the other defendants, the President, Directors, and Company of the Bank of Alexandria, do not pay away, convey, or secrete, the debts by them owing to, or the estate and effects in their hands belonging to the said absent defendant, John Spence, until the further order or decree of the Court; and that a copy of this order be forthwith published for two months successively in one of the public newspapers published in this county, and that another copy be posted at the front door of the Court-house of said county.

Teste, EDM. I. LEE, C. C.

District of Columbia, to wit

County of Alexandria, ss.

IN CHANCERY. John McClure, assignee of Sarah Burke, Complainant, Against Richard L. Galloway, Bryan Hampson, and Joseph H. Hampson, the last trading under the firm of Bryan Hampson & Son—Defendants.

THE defendant Richard L. Galloway, not having entered his appearance, and given security according to the statute and rules of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, upon affidavit filed, that the said Richard L. Galloway is not an inhabitant of the District of Columbia: on motion, it is ordered, that the defendant, Richard L. Galloway do appear here on or before the first day of next May term, and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and give security for performing the decrees of the Court: And that the other defendants, Bryan Hampson & Son do not pay away, convey or secrete, the debts by them owing to, or the estate or effects in their hands, belonging to the said absent defendant, Richard L. Galloway, until the further order or decree of this Court; and that a copy of this order be forthwith published for two months successively, in one of the public newspapers printed in this county, and that another copy be posted at the front door of the Court-house of said county.

Teste, EDM. I. LEE, C. C.

January 27

New Almanacs.

ALMANACS For 1821.

Just published, and for sale by JOHN STEWART.

Orphans' Court,

Alexandria County, ss.

February Term, 1821.

ORDERED, That the executor of William G. Adams, deceased, do insert the usual notice to debtors and creditors, 3 times a week for three weeks in the Alexandria Gazette and Herald. A copy.

Teste, A. MOORE, Reg.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE.

That the subscriber, of Alexandria County, in the District of Columbia, has obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the estate of William G. Adams, late of the co. aforesaid, dec'd. All persons having claims against the said dec'dent are hereby warned to exhibit the same to the subscriber, with the vouchers thereof, passed by the Orphans' Court, on or before the 12th day of August next, or they may by law be excluded from all benefit to said estate; and those indebted thereto are required to make immediate payment. Given under my hand this 12th day of February, 1821.

HUMPHREY PEAKE, Executor of William G. Adams.

District of Columbia,

Alexandria County, ss.

WAS committed to the jail of this county, on the 5th inst. as a runaway, a negro woman, named LETTY, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 8 or nine inches high, of large features, and has rather a coarse appearance, with a small scar in one of her eye brows. She says she was sold about twelve months since by Mr. Strother Jones, near the White Post, Frederick county, Va. to southern traders, from whom she escaped a few days afterwards at Fauquier Court House, in the same state, but does not recollect the name of her last master or masters. The owner is desired to come, prove property, pay charges and take her away, otherwise she will be disposed of as the law directs.

AND. ROUNSAVELL, Jailor.

January 11

State of Maryland.

Charles County, ss.

ON application to the subscriber, one of the judges of the orphans' court of Charles County, by petition in writing of William Cox, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said William Cox has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said William Cox is in actual confinement for debt and for no other cause, and the said William Cox having entered into bond, with sufficient security, for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said William Cox be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the several papers edited in the District of Columbia once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, in the said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said William Cox should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed. Given under my hand this 10th day of October, 1820.

FRANCIS DIGGS.

True Copy. Teste,

JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

January 13

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Kenelm St. Clair, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Kenelm St. Clair has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Kenelm St. Clair is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, and the said Kenelm St. Clair having entered into bond, with sufficient security, for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Kenelm St. Clair be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the first Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Kenelm St. Clair should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk of Charles County Court.

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the Judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Giles Green, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, & being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Giles Green has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Giles Green is in actual confinement for debt and for no other cause, and the said Giles Green having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said Giles Green be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday in March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, in the said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said Giles Green should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the Judges of Charles County Court by petition in writing of James Barnes, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said James Barnes has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said James Barnes is in actual confinement for debt and for no other cause, & the said James Barnes having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said James Barnes be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, in the said county, on the said 3d Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said James Barnes should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of George Harrison Thompson, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said George Harrison Thompson has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland; and being also satisfied that the said George Harrison Thompson is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause; and the said George Harrison Thompson having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said George Harrison Thompson be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said Geo. Harrison Thompson should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed. Given under my hand this 10th day of October, 1820.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

January 19

To Rent,

And possession given between the present time and March next, that elegant and commodious three story brick house, the

Union and Marine Hotel, situated on Union-street, near the Potomac. It is admirably calculated for the accommodation of travellers from Maryland, and seafaring gentlemen. It has been occupied as a tavern for many years past. For terms apply to

ANTHONY RHODES.

January 25

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the Judges of Charles County Court by petition in writing of Luke Sheirburn, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Luke Sheirburn has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Luke Sheirburn is in actual confinement for debt and for no other cause, and the said Luke Sheirburn having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said Luke Sheirburn be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next; he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown in the said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said Luke Sheirburn should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk of Charles County Court.

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the Judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Benjamin Freeman, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of Assembly, for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Benjamin Freeman has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Benjamin Freeman is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause; and the said Benjamin Freeman having entered into bond, with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—it is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Benjamin Freeman be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in the said county, on the third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Benjamin Freeman should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state, as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, CLK.

January 12

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Zachariah Green, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Zachariah Green has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland; and being also satisfied that the said Zachariah Green is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, and the said Zachariah Green having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Zachariah Green be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday in March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, in the said county, on the third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Zachariah Green should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state, as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

January 18

Genuine Garden Seeds.

WM. YEATES offers for sale, at reduced prices, at his garden, near Alexandria, a general assortment of GARDEN SEEDS, mostly of his own raising, and all warranted of first quality; also an assortment of fruit trees, choice kinds, flowering shrubs, dwarf box, for edging, cabbage plants, cauliflower do. with other variety, with an extensive collection of green house plants, of the most rare kinds.

The Leesburg Washingtonian, and Winchester Gazette, are requested to insert the above three times, and the National Intelligencer three times a week for six weeks, and send their accounts to this office.

February 5

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the Judges of Charles County Court by petition in writing of William M'Conchie, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said William M'Conchie has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said William M'Conchie is in confinement for debt and for no other cause, and the said William M'Conchie having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said William M'Conchie be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday in March next; he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown, in the said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said William M'Conchie should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk of Charles County Court.

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Thomas G. Barnes, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1815, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Thomas G. Barnes has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Thomas G. Barnes is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, and the said Thomas G. Barnes having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said Thomas G. Barnes be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, at Charlestown, in the said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Thomas G. Barnes should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state, as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk.

January 25

Charles County Court,

November Term, 1820.

ON application to the judges of Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Samuel Amerg, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel Amerg has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland; and being also satisfied that the said Samuel Amerg is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause; and the said Samuel Amerg having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Samuel Amerg be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, at Charlestown, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said Samuel Amerg should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state, as passed.

Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clerk of Charles County Court.

January 12

Masons Wanted.

SEVENTY-FIVE stone masons wanted to work at Fort Monroe, Old Point Comfort, where constant employment and good wages will be given for the first rate workmen, and none others need apply. Also, fifty able bodied laboring men, black or white, to attend on the workmen. Apply at the above Fort to Bolitha Lawes, who has lived at the place for a long time, and can say it is very healthy.

The National Intelligencer, Baltimore Federal Gazette, Leesburg Washingtonian, and Winchester Gazette, will insert the above four months, and send their accounts to this office.

December 5