THE HISTORY

OF THE ## REFORMATION,

Being an abridgment of Burnet's History of the Reformation of the Church of England Together with sketches of the lives of Luther, Calvin, and Zuingli, the three celebrated reformers of the continent.—By the Rev. BENJAMIN ALLEN, Rector of the Parish of St. Andre, Virginia.

RECOMMENDATION.

Having been favored, with the perusal of an abridgment of the history of the reformation, prepared for publication by the Rev. B. Allen, I with pleasure comply with his request, in giving it my humble recommendation. It contains the history of all the important facts as narrated by Burnet, and to those who have not the time or the means of consulting that writer, must prove interesting and valuable. There being a considerable class of persons under these circumstances, such a work has been wanted, and I think, the present one will be highly acceptable, as serving to meet the existing exigency.
WILLIAM H. WILMER.

Again, Citizens of Alexandria.

S. G. DEETH has the pleasure of informing you that, having recovered from his indisposition he has recommenced his on Fairfax street, at the school room recently occupied by Mr. Edmonds, where by a strict attention and adherence to his occupation and duty he will endeavor once more to merit your patronage.

Writing Academy,

An inspection of the improvement of 50 pupils of this place is the best criterion respecting the utility of the system.—To any gentlemen or ladies who are doubtful of the fact that any diligent pupil may acquire the theory of two correct hands in 15 days, Mr. D. engages to convince of their error, by perfect demonstration, whenever they will honor him with a call.

A few families may be attended by making early application. Hours of tuition from 9 to 11 and 2 to 4.—A night school is open from 7 to 9.

Conditions and terms as heretofore, exclusive of fuel, &c.

N. B. The school will continue ONE MONTH, ONLY. Those who apply early will find it to their advantage, as they will (if they choose) have the privilege of continuing the whole term without any additional charge.
