The subject of this sketch was born in Clinton, N. C., August 20th, 1865. His parents, Thomas and Pernetta Morrissey, moved with him to Magnolia, N. C., where he received his early education, thus laying the foundation for the brilliant and useful career which he has led. He attended the State Colored Normal School, at Fayetteville, N. C., from which he completed the course of studies in 1887. From this school he entered the classical department of Livingstone College, at Salisbury, N. C., from which he graduated with first honors of his class and the degree of A. B. in 1891.

Soon after his graduation he was united in matrimony to the talented and cultured Miss M. E. Cotten, a graduate from the famous Shaw University and a teacher in the public schools of Winston, N. C. He entered the ministry and joined the North Carolina Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Zion church at New Bern, N. C. in 1885. He has filled some of the most important appointments of his church in the states of North Carolina, Tennessee and Alabama. He is now the popular pastor of the Big Zion church at Mobile, Ala., one of the largest congregations of Methodism in the South.

He was a delegate to the General Conference of his Church in 1892, at Pittsburg, Penn., and again to the General Conference at Mobile, Ala. in 1896, and to the General Conference held in Washington, D. C. in May 1900 during which time he was a member of some of the most important committees of that august body. He was four years the President of Greenville College, Greenville, Tenn., and by his untiring and self sacrificing efforts he succeeded in making it one of the foremost schools of the church. As a further evidence of his interest in the educational welfare of his people, he is a trustee of Greenville College, Greenville, Tenn., and also of the Rion Institute, Mobile, Ala.

His alma mater, Livingstone College, conferred upon him the degree of A. M. in 1900. As one of the correspondents to The Star of Zion, the official organ of the A. M. E. Zion Church, his articles to that paper are always widely read and favorably commented upon throughout the Church.

He is now the brilliant and fearless editor of the Church Observer, which he publishes at Mobile, Ala. Although he has recently begun the publication of The Observer; already, it is regarded as one of the leading religious newspapers of the race in the state, and its circulation is rapidly increasing. While the Church Observer is devoted to the moral and religious welfare of the race, it reserves the right to give free expression to its opinion upon any and all questions affecting the welfare of our people and the country in general. He has also written a book of sermons entitled "The Christ of the People," which is now in the press and will soon be issued.
