and Henry A. Richmond by Gov. Hill has created much commotion among the Civil-Service reformers, some of whom insinuate that Gov. Hill's act was a political one.

The removed Commissioners were appointed by President Cleveland while he was Governor. The triends of Gov. Hill approve the removal.

They say that Mr. Jay and Mr. Richmond was not in political sympathy with the Governor and construed the civil-service laws of the State to sait themselves and radical civil-service. Board of the State who ware in sympathy with him and his administration, and who would use practical methods in the examinations for appointments.

There is no fault found with Gov. Hill's appointments of Civil-Service Commissioners to succeed Messrs. John Jay and Henry A. Richmond, removed, and Augustus Schoonmaker, who resigned some time ago to become an Interestate Railroad Commissioner.

The new Commissioners are Gen. Daniel E. Siekles, James H. Manning, son of the late Daniel Manning, and George H. Tread well. The last is a well-known Republican of Albany County and a prominent G. A. R. man.

The Republican Senators may refuse to confirm the new Commissioners. If they do so the State will be without a Board to carry out the Civil-Service law.

There is a question whether the Governor has not the power to appoint the Commissioners without consulting the Senators if the appointments are made while the Legislature is not in regular session.

CLERK M'GOWAN'S WAY,

Musbands and Wives Reconciled by Bein, Left to Themselves.

John McGowan, who is one of the brightest clerks in the police courts, has a way of his own to reconcile an estranged husband and wife.

This morning a young couple named John and Ellen Malony were before him at the Tombs, the husband a prisoner for abandon-

"Sit over there with your wife and talk it over," Mr. McGowan said to him. What's the use," growled the husband.

"What's the use," growled the husband.
"We sin't suited for each other, anyhow. She has a terrible temper."
"You haven't," ejsculated the wife,
"You're an angel, ain't you?" and the next thing she did was to sob violently.
Much against his will the husband sat down beside his wife, and the two remained for some time in silence.
"Don't let them see you watching them," said the clerk. "When they think they are not noticed they will begin to talk."
Sure enough, when the eyes of the bystanders were not directed upon them, they began an animated conversation.
Half an hour later the couple stood once more before the clerk. Both wore smiling faces. They had made up their first quarrel, and left the Courtroom arm in arm.

STRONG, HEALTHY AND PENNILESS.

Pwenty-two Half-Frezen Men Committed to the Workhouse.

Twenty-two strong, healthy men who are miless and out of work applied to Justice on B. Smith, at the Essex Market Police Court, this morning to be committed to the Workhouse for the winter.

They were almost frozen when they applied for shelter at the Eldridge street p for shelter at the Eldridge street police station last night. This morning Capt. Allaire directed Policeman Waehner to arraign them at Essex Market.

There was only one American in the lot, and not one of them was a citizen. Many of them were young men who had been probably led astray by evil companions.

The names and ages of the youngest are John Fisher, 19; Robert Kennedy, 18; John Webber, 20; John Brendel, 20; John Stahl, 19; Frank Mallah, 19; Philip Hoffman, 20.

A young man who gave his name as John Beilly had a German countenance.

"Is that your right name, John Reilly?" asked Justice Smith.

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"How long have you been in this counter."

CITY COURT CHANGES.

A Ramor that Commissioner Croker's Friend Will Succeed Chief Clerk Reid.

There is a rumor around the City Hall that several changes are to be made in the clerical force of the City Court, formerly the Marine Judges Hyatt and Hall, Republicans, on San. 1, and then all six Judges of the Court will be Democrats. It is believed that a new combination on patronage will be made.

It is said that John Reid, the Chief Clerk of the Court, with a salary of $8,000 a year, is in danger of removal. If reports are true, Michael Daly, a prominent Tammanyite of the Eighteenth Assembly District, and a warm personal and political friend of Commissioner Richard Croker, is to get the place.

place.

Mr. Reid is a follower of the Wigwam and was appointed to office by Mr. John Kelly, but he has no leader behind him now.

Musicians Make a Good Suggestion. The members of the old Board of Directors of the Musical Mutual Protective Union gave a reception to the members of the new Board at 64 East Fourth street yesterday afternoon. It was sug-gested that a home for aged and unirm musicians and the widows and orphans of members of the union be catablish. A concert by a large orchestra was suggested as a good way in which to start the movement.

The old and new Boards thanked THE WORLD for the help that it had given them,

All for a Friend.
John O'Donnell, of 929 East Fourteenth street, topped up to a friend who was recutessly firing a revolver in that street last night and took the weapon from him. Just then a policeman appeared and arrested O'Donnell. In vain did the latter project that it was not his revolver, and he was held for trial at Easex Market Court this morning.

All for a friend, "asid O'Donnell as he was led not the prison.

STARK NAKED IN THE STREET.

Michael Cannon's Cold Walk in Bloocker Street This Morning. The police of the Mercer street squad had remarkable prisoner this morning. At a few minutes after 8 o'clock a patrolman found Michael Cannon, thirty-one years old. of 80 Wooster street, wandering in Bleecker street without a stitch of clothing. He was insane from drink.

The patrolman got some wraps, and throwing them around the man, hurried him to the station, whence he was transferred to Belle-vue Hospital. No. 80 Wooster street is a cheap lodging-house. Cannon went there yesterday in an

No. 80 Wooster street is a cheap lodginghouse. Cannon went there yesterday in an intoxicated condition, and was suffering from delirium all night. This morning he partly clothed himself, wrapped a coverlet about him and stated out. He went into some hallway and there undressed himself, and then with the bed-cover flapping about him, started for a walk.

The policeman found him at South Fifth avenue and Bleecker street, the centre of an interested group of small boys. He was chilled through and could not articulate when asked where he lived. By the time that he reached the station he was almost unconscious from the cold.

How he managed to walk from the neighborhood to the place where he was found without being arrested is a question which the police have not yet answered.

POPE LEO'S JUBILEE.

Catholics All Over the World Awaiting Next Week's Ceremonials at Rome,

Roman Catholics all over the world are inerested in the jubilee of Pope Leo, the celebration of which will begin with the new year, and which is attracting an enormous number of tourists to Rome. The jubilee will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Pope Leo's ordination as a priest of the Roman Catholic Church.

The gifts, addresses and memorials which are at present pouring in from all Christian lands will all be exhibited at the Vatican. Elaborate preparations are at present under way to make this exhibition a memorable feaway to make this exhibition a memorable feature of the jubilee.

Inquiries come to Rome daily from all parts of Europe, for particulars as to the programme of the ceremonial, for the exact order of events was not arranged until very late. The "faithful" will be entertained by the Monsignori at the various monasteries.

A number of prominent Americans are expected to be present, including James G. Blaine, Miss Gail Hamilton Dodge and Jay Gould. There will be delegates from all the Catholic countries in the world.

DUGAN KNOCKED OUT BY HARDING

A Game Prize Fight Which Took : Place Near Troy This Morning. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

TROY, Dec. 80. -Con Dugan, of Brooklyn, was knocked out by Jack Harding, of Philaplace near here early this morning.

In the twentieth and last round the Brooklyn man was caught under the chin by a right-hander and went down in a heap. His seconds were unable to bring him up within the prescribed ten seconds, and the fight, which had lasted one hour and nineteen minutes, was awarded to Harding.

Both men were horribly battered and the fifty spectators pronounced it one of the hardest ring contests which has ever taken place in this vicinity.

"mysterious man with the flowing whiskers," was charged this morning in the Jefferson Market Police Court with burglary on the home of John P. Groves, of 148 West Houston street. While Mr. Groves and his family were out during Tuesday evening the "man with the flowing whiskers" broke into the kitchen by the rear window and collected $500 worth of jeweiry which he pawned. A pair of bracelets he left in a saloon at Fourth avenue and Tenth street, and this sot gave him away, He was arrested and after some persuasion confessed his guilt. This morning he was held for trial.

He Aveided Disgrace by Suicide.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.1]
AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 30.—Dr. Oscar Samosts, AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 30.—Dr. Oscar Samosts, a druggist here, discovered this morning that B. C. Healbig, one of his trusted bookkeepers, a very popular young man, aged ninetees, was an embezzier in the sum of $300. The discovery was make known to the young man, who excused himself for a few minutes and took fifteen grains of strychnine. He was discovered a few minutes afterwards baving convulsions, and in fifteen minutes was dead. She Will Not Sit in His Lap Again

Paul Beherus, a spirit rectifier, of 16 Prince street, was in the liquor saloon at 58 South Washington square on Christmas Eve, and a young woman tamed Lizaie Williams set in his lap. After the young woman had arisen and gone away Paul missed $35 from his inside pocked. It was not until last night that Lizaie was caught. At the Jefferson Market Court this morning she was held for trial.

Samuels estimates the damage to his stock of hats at $10,000, and B. Levy, handkerchiefs, $5,000. William H. Hart, also on the second floor, lost $3,000. Max Bernstein's loss to his clothing stock was occasioned by smoke, and was trifling. It was discovered that the fire was started on the cellar floor by some coals from a stove which had been kept alight all night.

Not as Good a Man as "Sully." Luther Pollard, who gave his age as twenty-one years in the Jefferson Market Police Court this orning, said that he was a lumber merchant from Boston, Mass. He came to New York yesterday to see the sights and take in New Year's Day. At 12 o'clock last night he entered the Casino Café and proceeded to "do the place up red," when Police-man Herlich, of the Nineteenth Precinct, was called in. Luther told the policeman that unless he was as good a man as. "Buily "he had a hard contract on hand. Herlich landed the young man in the police station without difficulty. "What are you, an actor?" asked Justice Duffy. Duff.

No. I'm a lumber merchant from Boston," said the young man.

"You dress like an actor," returned His Honor.

"Cau't I dress as I like?" retorted the youth in reply.

"Idid not want to criticise your dress—you are fined $10," remarked the Justice. The youth drew out his wailet and paid up.
