Calve in "La Navarraise" Again Stirs a Big Audience

"Pagliacci," Which Preceded It, Fails of Its Usual Success.

"LA NAVARRAISE," with Calve, for whom Massenet wrote the one-act opera, as Anita, the principal character, was repeated at the Manhattan Opera-House last night. The splendidly realistic stage picture, with all the faithful attention to detail which Mr. Hammerstein gave the work at its initial performance at his Thirty-fourth street house, again compelled admiration. The emotions were deeply stirred; the senses were enthralled; there was no time until after the curtain to analyse the effect. The prima donna, not always in her best voice, impersonated the heroine superbly.

Dalmores as Araquil, the lover of Anita, was altogether a proper associate for her. He sang delightfully and emulated her successfully in dramatic zeal. Arimondi made a picturesque and dominating figure as the General Garrido. Gilibert took the part of Remigio, Araquil's father, in the place of Sevilhac; Gianoli-Galetti was Bustamente, the sergeant, which Gilibert was at the first performance, and Altchevsky again was Ramon, all acquitting themselves well. The soldier chorus was fine individually and collectively. The nocturne was beautifully played, and Campanini well deserved his curtain call.

Before the Massenet opera, Leoncavallo's "I Pagliacci" was put on, with changes in the cast which robbed it of its usual compelling effect. Zeppilli as Nedda disclosed an inadequate voice and was altogether amateurish. Ancona, who always sings well, handicapped by his make-up, failed to individualize the character of Tonio. Reschiglian might not be expected to do as well as Sevilhac, the best Sylvio New York has seen. The redeeming feature of the performance was Bassi's Canio, with his impassioned "Ridi Pagliacci." Venturini, as usual, was a competent Arlequino, and the chorus was sonorous. Campanini more than once allowed the orchestra to play too loud.

There was a large audience that was fairly demonstrative, and that sat spellbound throughout the gun-firing powder-smelling, nerve-racking, emotional progress of Massenet's effort to be of the latter day realists a leading apostle.

SYLVESTER RAWLING.

VITTORIO ARIMONDI

HOBBY, FAST DRIVING.

Former Police Commissioner William Hobby, of No. 25 Prospect avenue, Mount Vernon, was arrested last night on a charge of speeding in St. Nicholas avenue, from One Hundred and Sixty-fifth to One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, at twenty and one-half miles an hour. Mr. Hobby said he had no idea that he was violating the law, but gave bail.

ACTRESS SAYS HE TOOK HER PATENT

Mexican Mine Owner's Widow Causes Arrest of Man She Met on Train.

A handsome woman, elegantly gowned and wearing many diamonds, who said she was the widow of W. S. Gage, a Mexican mine owner, last night caused the arrest of Arthur D. Jacobs, who described himself as an agent, living at No. 1530 Brook avenue, Bronx.

The police say the woman found Jacobs filing a lock off a door of her apartments, at No. 213 West Thirteenth street. She accused him of taking the plans of a device invented by her husband, which she was about to patent. On her accusation Jacobs was locked up in the Charles Street Police Station, charged with grand larceny.

According to Mrs. Gage's story she met Jacobs on a Lakewood train. She wanted to go on the stage and he agreed to cast her in a play. Learning, she says, he was married and had been in a sanitarium for his health, she saw several theatre managers herself and got an engagement. Before her marriage to Gage, she said, she was in "Carmen" and had recently returned to New York from a trip around the world to go to work to keep the wolf from her door. She refused to give her stage name.

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong?

The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 328 W. 36th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

Custom Misfit Clothing at Less Money Than Ready-Mades Cost You

Perhaps you do not know what misfit clothing is—to make a long story short, they are suits and overcoats left on the hands of the leading merchant tailors through some trivial matter—the garment may have been a perfect fit, but the whims of some people, particularly those of the "well to do," are mighty peculiar. They usually pay the loss sustained by the tailor who makes the garment, and you are therefore the one to gain through this. Every garment in our store bears the original label of the maker.

You can buy these Garments for less than one-half the tailors' prices
