

HELD FOR TAKING WOMAN'S CASH IN ACID BATH CASE

Sulker Put Under $3,000 Bail,
Though Mrs Sample Was
Not in Court.

HINTS AT BLACKMAIL.

Mrs. Sample's Lawyer Says
Sulker Forced Her to Give Money to Avoid Scandal.

Just as the police had predicted, aged, lame Mrs. Mary Jane Sample, who claims to have been tortured with red pepper and acid on Sunday afternoon, did not come from her home at No. 57 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn, to the Gates Avenue Police Court today to testify to her dealings with George W. Sulker and George Wright. Her lawyer, however, who had been summoned to explain how one had been compelled to borrow practically all of the old widow's savings, without giving any security.

But, really, her presence wasn't needed, for after Magistrate Higginbotham had heard their stories and the story of the woman's lawyer, Owen Flinnery, of Ryebehead Bay, he held Sulker on two charges and put Wright under bonds as a material witness. Through this action on the Magistrate's part the Grand Jury in due season will be asked to inquire into the full story of the case of Mrs. Sample's injuries.

A Butler and Egg Man.
Sulker claimed to be a butler and egg merchant and a member of the New York Mercantile Exchange, at No. 20 Harrison street. Wright gave his residence as No. 20 Twenty-third street, Brooklyn.

"I never got a cent of Mrs. Sample's money," Wright hastened to explain as soon as he had come forward. "I got altogether $2,700 from her in loans. I have been paying her back. Once I gave her $50 and several times I gave her $10 or $5."

The Magistrate asked him about Mrs. Sample's confession that she had been caught in Sulker's company by Wright while the three families lived at No. 34 Putnam avenue. Sulker said he had been a friend of Mrs. Sample's son Paul, and after Paul's death he owned that he became intimate with the mother, who is a sixty-four year old, near-sighted, almost toothless and a paralytic.

Afraid of Wright.
"On April 16," went on Sulker, "my brother-in-law, Wright, caught me in a compromising position with Mrs. Sample. He threatened to tell his sister, my wife. I begged him not to, as I had already had some trouble with my wife because I took Mrs. Sample's daughter to a restaurant and gave her a Christmas present. He decided not to tell his wife."

Here Lawyer Flinnery put in to tell Mrs. Sample's side of the case. He said, according to her allegations, she had been innocently trapped and forced by Sulker to give him all her money on his claim that he must have it in order to close Wright's mouth.

"My client tells me," added Flinnery, "that this man Sulker threatened her life if she ever told in court how he got from her every cent she had in the world, and on Sunday she was attacked in her home by a man and two women who burned her with pepper and carbolic acid."

Judge Cuts Off Stories.

Wright tried to explain that he had never told his sister of Sulker's misconduct because he feared Sulker would run away and leave the wife without any means of support, but the Magistrate had heard enough. He declined to hear Mrs. Sulker, who was in court. On Sulker's own admission he held him for Special Sessions in bonds of $1,500 for alleged immoral acts with Mrs. Sample. He held Wright in bonds of $100 as a witness. He also held Sulker in $1,500 more on the charge of larceny until next Tuesday, when he will give him a hearing.

The police say Mrs. Sample has confessed that she blustered herself with a pepper solution and concocted the story of the Sunday attack in order to secure the trip to court today. Lawyer Flinnery denies this.

OWEGO HIT BY A GALE.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The Village of Owego, twenty-one miles from this city, was struck with a wind storm last evening, which destroyed a portion of the gas plant, unroofed the structure. Chimneys were blown down and the streets are impassable today from fallen trees and broken limbs. No one was injured.

IT WAS SETH WHO MOVED TEDDY TO PASS THE TOBACCO

Bullock Greeting Taft, Says
He Wrote Roosevelt Doleful
Letters to Get Him Going.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 28.—The

South Dakota campaign of Candidate Taft began at this place shortly after 5 A. M. today with a big meeting. Mr. Taft spoke from a platform erected close by the station. His voice was husky and hardly equal to the heavy day's work ahead of him. His itinerary included meetings at Mellette, Redfield, Wessley, with an hour and a half at Mitchell and short stops at Tripp, Yankton and Vermillion and a rally to-night at Sioux City, Ia.

At Aberdeen the Taft special changed its escort, dropping eight North Dakota statesmen and taking on the delegation from South Dakota.

Col. Seth Bullock, President Roosevelt's hunting friend, joined the meeting at Aberdeen.

"There is not the slightest doubt about South Dakota going Republican," he declared with characteristic positiveness. "I have been writing some doleful letters, though, just because I wanted 'Teddy' to pass the tobacco sauce, and you bet he did it."

Judge Taft made a pointed answer to the Democratic criticism of the rules of the House of Representatives today in telling of Mr. Bryan's assistance in the passage of the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill. "This bill passed the House," he said, "with Mr. Bryan then an influential member of the Ways and Means Committee, which originated it. It received 60 amendments in the Senate. The 60 amendments were sent back to the House of Representatives and by force of those rules introduced by Speaker Reed and taken up by the Democratic members of that House and of defeating the rule of the people, those 60 amendments were adopted in the House of Representatives and the gentleman of his side carried Mr. Wilson, the author of the bill, on their shoulders out of the House of Representatives in joy and jubilation that the bill had passed."

REMODEL THE NORMANDIE.
Hotel to be Transformed Into Bachelor Apartments.
Plans have been filed with Building Superintendent Murphy for remodeling the old Hotel Normandie, at Broadway and Twenty-eighth street, which has been in disuse now for more than a year. The improvements are designed to fit the building especially for the accommodation of bachelors. A new entrance will be built on the Thirty-third street side, the basement and part of the first floor will be fitted as a restaurant, and there will be a store adjoining the restaurant.

The improvements are to be made for Herman Wronkoff as new owner. The project of making the building over into offices has been abandoned.

GREGG M. CATLIN DEAD.
Former Newspaper Man and Assistant Secretary to the Comptroller.
Gregg M. Catlin, assistant secretary to Comptroller Metz, in the Finance Department, died today at his home, No. 64 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, from Bright's disease. He was a relative of the late Gen. Isaac Catlin. Mr. Catlin was a former newspaper man and was at one time city editor of the Brooklyn Citizen. He leaves a widow.

MURPHY HENCHMAN
PROTESTS HIS SANITY
Carry, Committed to Ward's Island, Seeks Release by Test Before Jury.
Fred A. Ware, formerly a Republican Alderman, secured a writ of habeas corpus for William F. Carry, a member of the Tammany Hall General Committee for Charles F. Murphy, Twelfth Assembly District who has been an inmate of the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane on Ward's Island for fifteen days. On the production of Carry before Justice Gerard in the Supreme Court today, Mr. Ware demanded a jury trial to determine the question of sanity.

Carry was a dock master during Murphy's term as Dock Commissioner. He was committed to the Ward's Island asylum by transfer after his commitment by the Manhattan State Hospital to Magistrate Wable to Bellevue Hospital's psychopathic ward, on the affidavit of his son, Francis W. Carry, on Sept. 14. Mr. William Mason of the Ward's Island Institution, certified that he was suffering from delusions, and that he intended to kill his supposed persecutors.

Justice Gerard adjourned the hearing until Friday, when Carry was returned to Ward's Island.

CRUISER YANKEE'S FLIGHT
ON SPINDLE ROCK WORSE.
Heavy Sea Pounds Her Against Reef and She Sinks Lower—Still Hope to Save Vessel.
NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 28.—The United States cruiser Yankee, ashore on Spindle Rock, Buzzard's Bay, withstood a constant pounding throughout the night and early today upon the jagged point of rock on which she has been impaled for nearly a week. A heavy southeast wind raised a choppy sea, and it looked as if the Yankee might give way under the powerful hammering, but observers from shore could note no change in her position other than that she might possibly be slightly lower in the water.

Other officers and crew were apparently still on board, and it was believed that the work of building the cofferdam would be continued as soon as the sea eased up a little. The fact that the cruiser held together under the heavy strain of last night gives the officials hopes of ultimately moving her from her perilous position.

THREE DIE ABOARD STEAMER.
ANTWERP, Sept. 28.—The steamer Kinghovel, from Tanager, Russia, has arrived here and reports that three members of her crew died on the trip. She has been placed in quarantine. The sanitary authorities have examined the vessel, but declare that there is no cholera on board at the present time.
