The fire started in the kitchen of Bolinsky's flat. He was awakened about dawn by the stifling smoke. Jumping out of bed he discovered that the kitchen was in flames.

Forgot About Woman.

Instantly losing his head, he forgot all about his young woman boarder, and fled out into the hallway screaming incoherently.

His cries awoke the Wolinskies and the Kiels and they could have easily made their way upstairs by a front staircase had not the smoke deceived them into the belief that the staircase

"No One Knows"

By Francis Mack. A charming little ballad of sweet simplicity.

"Cuddle Up a Little Closer, Lovey Mine" By Otto A. Hauerbach and Karl Hoschna. The big hit of "Three Twins."

As sweet as the flowers it tells of. Fleta Jan Brown and Herbert Spencer.

Pixley & Luders's best song in their new musical play "Marcelle."

Burnside. Biggest song hit the New York Hippodrome ever had. Also a musical feature of "The Pled Piper." "My Own United States"

By Stanislaus Stange and Julian Edwards. The song which the National Song Society has selected to succeed "The Star Spangled Banner" as a national anthem.

The best ballad ever written by that trio of song masters, Ernest R. Ball. Dave Reed and George Graff Jr.

"Just Some One"

By Caro Roma. Said by authorities to be one of the best works of this eminent woman composer.
