

PICKPOCKET PICKS MARK WHO PROVES TO BE WHITE HOPE

Biff! Went Mr. Boe's Fist, and Wham! Went Max to Pavement.

Five times Max Gold, "fancy dip," felt the arm of the law on his shoulder and the call of the court in his ear, and there is nothing to show that he ever enjoyed the feeling or the sound—but Oh! he was glad to get arrested last night!

Time was when Max, who is thirty-four and has a time yellowed police record, reaped rich harvests. But yesterday Max was so reduced that he went to rustling the rush hour crowd at the Manhattan and of Brooklyn Bridge. Joseph Boe's, who lives at No. 878 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, is a large and prosperous appearing citizen, and to Mr. Boe's Max devoted his earnest professional attentions. It was the easiest thing in the world to ascertain there was something of an inviting bulk in Mr. Boe's right hand coat pocket.

Max started to abstract it. To his experienced, appraising fingers, it seemed fairly to vibrate with sympathetic vibrations of riches within. Up it came under Max's gentle manipulation, closer and closer to the top of the pocket. In another second, ever so little patience, just another little pull, and even the law would have to admit that nine points of it was Max's.

"You little scrapper!" roared the erst-while placid "muck." "I've been letting you go on for the last two minutes. Now I've got you where I want you."

Mr. Boe's arm whirled around like the blades of an aeroplane propeller. He was short on science, perhaps, but undoubtedly long on indignation and purpose. Max speedily began to show signs of punishment. A crowd collected—a strange thing for Brooklyn Bridge in the rush hour. They were all for denouncing the "big brute," who seemed to take such keen enjoyment in torturing his small opponent. Any one could see that the small man was a peaceful person and anxious only to get away. Policeman Schmitzer of Traffic Squad A pushed his way to the front of the crowd, and Max, through half-closed eyes, saw him.

"Oh, officer, officer!" he cried. "Arrest me!"

"What you done?" asked the policeman, undecided.

"Biff!" landed the Boe's fist on Max's ear.

"Never mind what I done," pleaded Max, dodging behind the blue bulk. "This gentleman wants to make a complaint against me. For God's sake let him, and have it over with!"

On the way to the station house, Max walked first at the policeman's right hand and then at his left. He insisted on only one thing—that the policeman should quote Mr. Boe's. The lieutenant wanted to know what Max had tried to

"Biff!" Mr. Boe's grinned cheerfully and drew from his pocket a worn leather case. Inside it was a pair of ten-cent spectacles. "Wasn't much," he said. "But it might have been!"

"Oh!" groined Max. This morning he proved one of the finest specimens of hand-decoration ever seen in Tombs Court.

GIMBELS

Introducing "The Vienna" A New Soft Hat for Men

Evidently the maker of these fine Hats, which have just come to GIMBELS from Vienna, got an early glimpse at the new color-mixtures, which are so fashionable this Autumn in men's clothes.

His Hats reproduce these tones and it will be an easy matter for a man to select one that will harmonize with his new suit.

The "Vienna" is $3.50 and shown in a full range of sizes and colorings in the Gimbel Hat Store.

Derby Hats, New Styles, at $1.95 "Seconds" of $3 to $5 Grades

Here is where a man can make a saving of a third or more on his Fall Derby without doing violence to his pride, for the only effect that the small flaws have is on the price. Various styles, all sizes, though not in every style, and all in black.

Sale of Men's Silk Socks at 28c Pair

It is very difficult for as large a manufacturer as the maker of these Men's Socks to figure his output to a dot. He is apt to keep on the safe side—and produce above his orders.

Which is why we are able to offer 9600 pairs of these Socks, in two handsome styles, at 28c a pair tomorrow.

One style is a pure thread silk, in Rembrandt knit effect, with cotton toes, heels and tops, and is usually 65c a pair. Various colors.

The other is of plated silk, in half a dozen shot or two-toned effects; and usually sold at 50c a pair.

The Socks are so vastly better-looking than the usual 28c "Silk" Socks, that they will probably sell very quickly.

Field Glasses and Binoculars

If you wish to have a good look at the ships from the shore, we suggest excellent Field Glasses, 19-ligne, with case and carrying strap, at $4.

Such an opportunity to take a picture of Uncle Sam's sea fighters is worth seizing.

If you haven't a camera, we recommend a No. 3A Kodak which takes pictures of postcard size, 3 1/4 x 5 1/2 inches, has a ball-bearing shutter, and a fine rapid rectilinear lens, which is especially good for instantaneous work. Price, $20.

Other Kodaks from $5 to $132.50; also Brownie and Premo Cameras.

We always have fresh Kodak films and plates in stock, as well as all other Photographic Supplies.

Tomorrow—At the Zenith of Their Vogue— A Sale of Ostrich Plumes, Bands and Hats, Also Paradise Plumages—At 25 Per Cent. Less Than Regular Prices

Why these economic prices, just when such Plumages are so much in demand?—would be a very logical question for you to ask, so we shall explain how this Sale for tomorrow and Saturday is possible.

Early, very early in the season, we contracted for a tremendous quantity of these feathers, and gained thereby a large discount.

Besides, for these two days, we shall sacrifice some of our profit—to bring the prices down to the usual Gimbel standard of economies.

And there is another reason—we wish this to be an introductory event—as there are hundreds of women who are not acquainted with the fine quality of Gimbel Plumages.

The Ostrich Plumes are the beautiful French curl. And those of black are the rich jet black that is only possible when they are Egyptiandyed.

14 inches long x 8 inches wide, $3.25

Do You Realize that There Is But One Week of the Autumn Sale of Dress Goods?

And that Friday and Saturday are the last two days of these remarkable offerings, that it has taken us months to prepare?

You can hardly expect to find, for instance, after this week, a superb $2.50 quality of imported Broadcloth, in the fashionable shades of the season and black, at $1.35 a yard; or a $3.25 quality in black at $2.15. Just as extraordinary are the $1.50 Cheviot Serges at $1.15 a yard in navy blue and other colors, $1.75 French Serges, in black and navy blue, for tailored suits, at $1.15 a yard; and the excellent imported Henrietta, in desirable shades, at 75c yard, instead of $1.

In fact, every offering in the Sale is a prize that women will do well to grasp while these very low prices prevail.

The de Medici Ruff of Ostrich Plants and Bulbs Low-priced

gives a fascinating note to a costume, whether a tailored suit, a demi-tailored or a dressy frock.

Exemplifying the unusual offerings in our Conservatory in the Subway Store.

A collection of Plants, not quite perfect—Boston Ferns, Pandanas, Aracarias, Rubber Plants, and Kentia Palms; usual prices 75c and $1, this lot at 28c each.

Bulbs of all kinds, for Fall planting; Crocuses at 75c a hundred; Hyacinths, Tulips, Narcissus and Daffodils at $1 a hundred.

Because of the very low prices, and the heavy expense of handling, we cannot fill mail and C. O. D. orders.

Tomorrow, This Startling Offering— Over 3,000 SILK WAISTS for WOMEN

A Third to a Half Below Usual Prices
At $1.95 and $2.45

Which are the lowest prices for such a great quantity of Silk Waists, in the history of the Subway Store.

How We Got Them

Our waist chief found one of the largest manufacturers "tied up" with this collection of samples, odd dozens and lines too small to put on the road. And being a big man, as well as a big manufacturer, he did things in a big way and closed out the entire lot to us at a flat price, which was away below cost.

Scores of Splendid Styles
From Tailored Silk Shirts to Silk Chiffon Waists, Lace Trimmed

So many wonderfully pretty new styles at such very low prices that these Waists should sell "like tickets to the World's Series games." Early shoppers will have an advantage, as included in the great collection are—
