

HE SEES NIGHT LIFE OF CITY BY LIGHT OF BLACKJACK STARS

Ticket to Land of Dreams Cost One Watch, Value $150, and $10 Cash.

HE'LL NEVER COME BACK Philadelphia Is Lively Enough for Mr. Katz and He's on His Way.

The night life of New York was a thing David Katz, a jewelry buyer of Philadelphia, long ago determined to investigate. He saw a bit of night life in New York before the sun rose this morning. It resembled a rain of shooting stars, four hundred and eleven rings of Saturn and eighteen separate and distinct likenesses of the planet Mars on a rampage.

This display of celestial pyrotechnics became visible to Mr. Katz when a New Yorker, a regular participant in night life and a total stranger to the Philadelphia jewelry buyer, rapped Mr. Katz on the head with a blackjack.

"I'm going back to Philadelphia on the first train," said Mr. Katz as soon as he was steady on his feet again, "there isn't money enough in Wall street to hire me to spend an hour in this town after sunset."

The Philadelphia's dip into New York by night started at Fourteenth street, where he went into a moving picture show not far from Tammany Hall. That was in itself a giddy experience for Mr. Katz.

As time passed he grew more reckless. He went into a saloon on Third avenue and took a drink—only one, mind you.

ON THE BOWERY HE KNEW HE'D FIND NIGHT LIFE.

"Then," said he, "I was not sleepy. I thought I would take a stroll along the Bowery. It seemed probable I would be able to see some real night life at close quarters on that famous street."

Not long thereafter a trolley car conductor saw one man rap another man over the head with some short, dark object. The man who was struck toppled over and the man who did the striking, after fumbling at his victim's clothes for an instant, fled. The conductor meanwhile totted his police whistle vociferously.

Policeman Bach heard the whistle and came at a gallop. He found Mr. Katz lying in a heavy shadow cast by a pillar of the elevated structure. There was a long contused wound in the rear of Mr. Katz's cranium.

"I didn't see what it was that happened to me," explained Mr. Katz, when he arrived at Bellevue, "but my impression is that somebody seized two blocks of elevated railroad and threw it at my head."

When the rest in the Philadelphia's scalp had been sewed up and the doctors had done everything else they could for him, Mr. Katz discovered that he had been robbed.

"By cracky," he exclaimed, "my watch is gone. It was a good watch, too—cost me about a hundred and fifty. I didn't have but nine or ten dollars on me. That's gone, too."

He felt in all his pockets, drawing forth a small piece of stiff paper. THANKS, HE STILL HAD A TICKET HOME.

"Thank Heaven, I've still got my railroad ticket," he cried, joyfully. "Which is the most direct way to the Pennsylvania station? I want to get there just as quick as I can. I don't care if there is no train due to leave. I'll wait at the station until one does go."

He finally accepted a nickel for carfare from the policeman, who asked him to tell more of himself.

"What does it matter?" replied Mr. Katz. "I have been stopping at one of the Broadway hotels. I won't say which one. But I'm not even going back to my hotel. This town is no place for a man from Philadelphia. I will write for my baggage."

home, No. 144 East One Hundred and Sixty-fifth street, the Bronx, were destroyed to-day by a fire which started shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. The firemen extinguished the blaze quickly. Mr. Wilson placed the damage at $5,000. He was unable to account for the blaze.

SUICIDE LEAVES 8 CHILDREN. Walter Who Lost His Work Could Not Support Family.

Walter Bloomfield, who found himself old at forty-five, could not see how he could longer support a wife and the dependent ones of his eight children, so he locked himself in the bathroom of his tenement apartment at No. 147 Baltic street, Brooklyn, some time after midnight last night and turned on the gas.

There his wife and two older daughters found him early to-day, dead. Dr. Ducat of the Long Island College Hospital, who was summoned, said that death had intervened several hours before the body was discovered. Bloomfield had been a headwaiter, but he went out with the waiters' strike last summer and he never regained his job.

WILL TONE UP THE STOMACH AND STRENGTHEN THE NERVES

The stomach of the American people is degenerating, caused from overeating, lack of exercise and neglect of health laws. We stuff our bodies with all kinds of food and all the food we can eat, fail to take sufficient exercise, eat too hastily and without proper discrimination as to diet. Then again, women eat too much candy and sweetmeats. This is bad for the welfare of the individual, but even more so to the community, because of its prevalence.

Such a diet becomes a habit and an abnormal craving is created. Taken with irregular hours of sleep—too little sleep one day and too much the next—the stomach gets out of order and the entire nervous system is shattered. It is this on every hand every day. It is Cooper's New Discovery will tone up the stomach, aid in the digestion of food and strengthen the nervous system. It will also regulate your bowels, relieve you of constipation and restore your energy, ambition and appetite. For sale at all druggists.

It makes little difference what you need—a World Want will go get it.

A Serious Joke on The Rabbit

The U. S. Gov't has been experimenting to discover the poisonous quality of Caffeine (found in coffee).

57 healthy rabbits were given an average dose of 5 1-10 grains.

—They all died.

See Gov't Bulletin No. 148, Bureau of Chemistry.

A cup of coffee contains over 2 1-2 grains of Caffeine; enough in two cups to kill a rabbit.

Of course this joke was on the rabbits.

A goodly number of humorous Americans play the same joke on themselves and keep it up until some fixed form of disease sets in, as a result of the daily dose of Caffeine, in quantity enough to kill a rabbit, but only enough to

Cripple a Man

Not at one blow, but by little blows repeated daily.

Of course some systems are strong enough to stand all kinds of abuse, but when a man or woman observes a growing nervousness, or heart trouble, stomach, bowel or eye disturbances, it is time to quit the daily dose of coffee and see if Nature will begin to heal.

It is easy to shift from coffee to Postum. The food beverage has the deep, seal-brown color which turns to a golden-brown when cream is added. The flavor has the crisp tang so winning to the palate and the cup is made instant by one struck spoonful of the powder.

INSTANT POSTUM

stirred in a cup of hot water, and there you are.

The change from coffee to Postum works wonders.

Grocers sell Instant Postum
