SUGAR TRUST AGREES TO CUT IN THE TARIFF

But to Put Its Stock on the Free List Would Invite Trade Disaster.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The free sugar plan of the House Democrats, regarded by leaders as one of the virtually assured features of the tariff revision programme of the coming extra session of Congress, so far as the House is concerned, focused attention on to-day's hearing before the House Ways and Means Committee. Witnesses were present representing the American Sugar Refining Company, with Acting President Edwin F. Atkins as its spokesman, the beet sugar and other interests.

The House claims that placing sugar on the free list may save American consumers $115,000,000 annually, while the Republicans, charging that free sugar would surrender an important industry to foreign importers, assert that it would deprive the Government of more than $52,000,000 revenue.

Mr. Atkins, in his testimony, contended that abolition of all duty on all sugar would cause the termination of the Cuban reciprocity treaty, under which Cuban sugars get a preferential rate of 20 per cent., and Cuba gives preferential rates of 20 to 40 per cent. upon goods coming from the United States. He also declared that free sugar would open the United States markets to the importation of refined beet sugars from Europe upon the same terms as raw sugars in competition with domestic refined.

"The American Sugar Refining Company," said Mr. Atkins, "wishes to be recorded in favor of a reduced tariff upon sugar. It is our belief that a moderate reduction, which is not so great as to endanger the domestic and insular industries, or to reduce such sources of supply, would accrue to the benefit of the consumer and would neither increase foreign values on raw material nor increase the refiner's margin of profit per pound.

"We are opposed to the abolition of all duty upon sugar, for the following reasons:

"It would at once destroy one of the largest sources of revenue, some $52,-000,000, for the substitution of which no provision has been made.

"It would cause the termination of the Cuban reciprocity treaty, under the provisions of which a preferential rate of [illegible] per cent. is accorded to Cuban sugars, and Cuba gives preferential rates upon goods coming from the United States of 20 to 40 per cent. Under this treaty, the United States buys practically all the Cuban sugar crop at a price considerably under the world's parity, and sends to Cuba in exchange upward of sixty million dollars' worth of merchandise, the greater part of which was formerly imported from Europe.

"Free sugar would open the United States markets to the importation of refined beet sugars from Europe, upon exactly the same terms as raw sugars. In competition with domestic refined, and we should expect to see, as formerly, large imports of this class of granulated sugar from Germany and Austria.

"Free sugars, while present production is maintained," he said, "would drop prices here so low as to destroy the Louisiana industry east of the Mississippi River—depress Porto Rican and Philippine sugars far below their production cost, and make Hawaiian production unprofitable, thus largely curtailing our present sources of supply.

"Once this production is so reduced," declared Mr. Atkins, "foreign prices would advance until domestic producers could enter the field again; and meanwhile disaster would be widespread, and consumers would get but a temporary benefit."

PHILLIES SOLD AT LAST TO LOCKE'S SYNDICATE.

Stock of National League Club Formally Turned Over by C. P. Taft.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15. — The Philadelphia National League Club was sold to-day by Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati to a syndicate headed by Will Locke, the former secretary of the Pittsburgh club. Locke will be president of the new club, and his backers have announced that he will have absolute and complete charge of the team. Locke announced that Charley Dooin would continue as manager.

Every detail of the purchase was attended to in advance, and the meeting to-day was merely to have the stock turned over officially to Locke and for the formality of appointing various men as his associates in the new organization.

Locke stated that David Snyder, his father-in-law, would probably be elected secretary-treasurer of the club.

REAL ESTATE MEN FILL COURT-ROOM TO LEARN HOW JACKSON GOT RICH

Handler of Long Island Property Is Put on Trial for Swindling Patrons.

The Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court was crowded to-day with real estate investors and operators, anxious to hear how Edgar R. Jackson, president of the Jackson Brothers' Realty Company, made nearly a million dollars on Long Island property. Jackson is on trial before Justice Goff on one of two indictments for grand larceny filed against him last July. One of the indictments allege he defrauded Winfield Scott Libbey, a millionaire manufacturer of Lewiston, Me., of $18,000, given him to invest in land around Garden City. The other indictment charges Jackson with the theft of $5,000 belonging to Miss Mary Griffin of Akron, O. False representation is charged in both indictments.

Assistant District-Attorney Nott moved the trial of Jackson on the Griffin indictment to-day. He told the jury Jackson had purchased a number of acres of land at West Hempstead in the fall of 1910 at $2,200 an acre and by false representations made those interested with him in the deal pay him $4,000 an acre for the property.

Miss Griffin said Jackson gave her glowing accounts of his realty business, telling her the properties he had bought could be sold at a profit of $1,000 an acre. The land, although valued by Jackson at $243,700, was subsequently sold under foreclosure at $70,-000, the amount of the mortgage.

According to Mr. Nott's story Jackson utilized a young woman, Ruth E. Dace, as a dummy in his real estate transactions. It is alleged real estate transferred in her name never really left the control of Jackson Brothers. James W. Osborne, former Assistant District-Attorney, is defending Jackson.

Ex-Mayor Fined $500.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 15.—Ex-Mayor Albert Moore, now in the mining business in Arizona, pleaded guilty yesterday to two counts of indictments charging complicity with gambling and the social evil. He was fined $250 on each count.

Breaks a Cold in a Day

And Cures Any Cough That Is Curable. Noted Doctor's Formula.

"From your druggist get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Take one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children, according to age." This is the best formula known to science. There are many cheaper preparations of large quantity, but it don't pay to experiment with a bad cold. Be sure to get only the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If your druggist does not have it in stock he will get it quickly from his wholesale house. This has been published here every winter for six years and thousands of families know its value. Published by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago.—Advt.

How She Fooled the Doctor

Three years ago my little girl, Angela, was taken sick with the scarlet fever and later dropsy set in; her face and limbs swelled and her eyes puffed. A leading physician here at the time, treated her without the slightest success. A sample of your Swamp-Root having been left at the house at the time, I resolved to try it, and as it agreed with her stomach I continued using it with grateful results. The inflammation began to subside after she had taken the first fifty-cent bottle, and after she took two large bottles she was pronounced cured by the doctor and has been in good health ever since. The doctor came to see her every day and examined her every second day until he pronounced her kidneys in perfect condition.

Now then the doctor was under the impression that I was giving my girl his medicine, but as his medicine had failed to do a bit of good, and desiring not to offend him, I did not tell him I was giving her Swamp-Root and he did not know the difference. I did not use one drop of his medicine after I started my girl on Swamp-Root, and have always felt that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root saved my girl's life, for which I am grateful.

I cannot praise it too highly.

Very truly,
