

R. Edgren's COLUMN

No Need of Uncle Sam Fearing the Outcome of the Next Olympic Meet at Berlin.

THESE many splendid performances of the college athletes at the famous Penn relay meet Saturday shows that America is keeping up her credit in the games which will be at their best when the next Olympic meet is held in Berlin.

Copyright, 1913, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

With such lads as these growing up and coming into athletic competition every year Uncle Sam doesn't need to worry over losing his supremacy in track and field for some time to come.

M'CARTY is working hard in preparation for Wednesday night's bout with Frank Moran.

TO-NIGHT at Bridgeport Welsh fights Al Ketchel. Even Freddie is falling for the easy money thing.

BAPTIST NELSON, out West, is making loud noises indicative of an agitated mind.

FARLEY is appointed DEPUTY DOCK CHIEF.

Old Employee Taken Out of the Ranks to Fill Important Appointment.

Mr. Farley succeeds B. F. Cresson Jr., who was appointed by former Dock Commissioner.

NOTHER fighter who is ambitious to become a traveller is Johnny Lore.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gas—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

MANY BIKERS TUMBLE IN HANDICAP RACE.

Thirteen riders tumbled in a bunch during the professional handicap race at the Velodrome cycle track in New York yesterday afternoon.

Willie Coburn and Edward Rupprecht had been leading for four laps when the backmarkers were put out of the race by the fall.

Kramer captured the open event after a wonderful sprint from the pocket he was in when the bell rang.

Granda, who had lost a lot of skin from arms and legs in the handicap tumble, had Patrick O'Sullivan heir on the seat behind in the tandem race.
