BOARD ORDERS FURTHER CUTS IN FIGHT TO FORGE 5-CENT MAXIMUM TELEPHONE RATE

Public Service Commissioners Not Satisfied With Offer of Trust and Fix a New Schedule.

After close analysis of the reduced rates offered by the New York Telephone Company, the public service commissioners declared that the New Yorkers were not given all that they entitled to and further rate cut was ordered. The three principles for which the New Yorkers had been asking were:

1. A maximum charge of five cents per minute for local calls.
2. A cut in the rates between principal points.
3. A limit on the rates for long distance calls.

The telephone company has not yet agreed to the commissioners' demands. They will be considered when the telephone companysubmit.
