Review of the New-York Market.

ASHES -Pots are very dull at the rates quoted in our Price Current, and Pearls are heavy at $5,75. Of Pots here are in market short of 2000 barrels and about 1500 tarrels Pearls. The amount shipped from New-York dur-

COAL, both Liverpool and Anthracite, are very high; he market is quite bare of the former, and the dealers in the latter are always ready to put up the price when there is no foreign competition.

COTTON.—Since our last week's paper went to press

there has been sold for exportation about 2400 bales. Up-and and Fiorida 1300 bales sold at 8 a 10½ cents and 100 bales of New Orleans at 9 to 11½ cents. Total amount received at New-York during the month of October, from bbls, sells at $6,624, and prices rather on the decline. FRUIT .- Two cargoes were sold at auction on Tuesisy and the prices are quite down. FLOUR AND MEAL -Western Flour is firm at $6 00.

crate; 1000 bushels Genesce sold last Saturday for shipsent to Bermuda at $1,35, cash. Northern Rye comes in slowly, and the sales show some improvement in prices; 2500 bushels brought 66 a 67 cents, not delivered ; 2000 do. 69; a 70, delivered and 1500 do, on terms not transpired all for distalling and part yet to arrive. About 1500 bush do North River Barley have beed sold at 59 a 50 cents.— Northern Oats fore in fair supply and demand in lots for tome use at 50 a a 51 cents; no Southern here. The artivals of Northern and Jersey Corn are light, and of Southern the worker has been bare for several days; the mics are 4000 bushels Jersey in lots at 70 a 71 cents; 2000 Southern 65, both measure; 2700 North River 66, weight, tot delivered, and 800 do, on terms we did not learn.

Export, from 1st to 31st October,

Corn 11,567 bushels.

HIDES.—We have only to notice sales of 258 green ulted Mobile, su; pored about 7 cents, cash; and 420 dry Georgia on terms not transpired. About 4000 Rio Grande wrived during the week and remain unsold

LEAD .- There has been a sale of 3300 pigs Missourite arrive at $2 cents, less 4 per cent. for cash; a parcel of tinis evening.

160 pigs has been taken for export at 4½ cents, 6 mos.

MOLASSES—Continues excessively dull, and sales are effected with difficulty: 120 hhds Surinam sold in lots at 16 cents: 50 do Cuba at 20; and 25 bbls Gaudaloupe at 25, all 4 mos.

NAVAL STORES—About 1000 bbls Wilmington Turpening have been taken for manufacturing on terms not transpred, but supposed at $3,12½, and 500 bbls North County for $2,55½, cash. Spirits Turpentine may be appeared at 35 cents, and dull. No sales of Tar or Rosin for shipment.

OILS .- Whale continues scarce; sales for home use are low made at 35 cents, cash. Linseed remains dull, with lut few sales. There is very little Olive in casks in first lands last sales $1.35, 6 mos.; 4(0 baskets Marseilles, Nice, &c. brought $3.50 u $3.75, 4 months. No further operations in Crude Sperm, and the business in Manufacared is yet moderate.

PROVISIONS .- Both Beef and Pork continue very placty and dull, and our quotations are but little better has nominal. Prices of Beef have not varied materially, but those of Pork have further declined, and are now behered to be lower than at any former period. Among the sales we notice old Mess Beef at $7 a 7.75, the latter price for city; new, in lots, $7,37; a $7.75, according to quality : 250 bb's old city Prime $3,75, and new Prime in $1,25 a $4,75. Of Pork, 500 bbls Western Pri u $6,50; some Mess $9 a 9,50 for Western, and $10 for Lover County. Lard is again a little lower, with sales of bols at 6}, and kegs 7 cents. Cheese in casks sells read; ly at 6 a 7 cents, which is an advance of 1 a cent, but in
