CIVIL COURTS.

In the Circuit Court an action was brought by Joseph Martin, formerly a mast-maker at the foot of Montgomery street, against John Hillyer, former Sheriff, to recover damages for levying, in 1837, on a lot of spars worth 8350, asserted as belonging to plaintiff, but which were taken on an execution against his son. Verdict for plaintiff.

In the same Court an action was brought by Luther Gay, against Asa Gardner, keeper of the City Hotel, to recover the amount of a note, (being one of three discounted for defendant by Mr. Belden, Wall street. The three amounted to $1,366, and the plea of usury is now set up, as but $1,200 were received for them. Verdict for defendant.

THE PARTED FAMILY, and other

Poems—An Offering to the afflicted, and a Tribute of Leve to Departed Friends. By Mary S. B. Dana, author of "The Southern Harp," &c.

"This is a neat volume of 312 pages, made up of a large number of the poetic strains of the amiable, gifted, and pious authoress, who is already favorably known to our readers. Left in early lite a widow, in a country far distant from the scenes of her childhood, and called, also, to part with her only child, a noble and promising boy, she learned how to value the sweet consolations of the religion of Jesus, and her afflictions have taught her to awaken the tenderest and most melting strains. We need not say more than to assure all, and especially the lovers of song, that there is real poetry in every page."

The corner gentleman takes charge of the Clinique from the lat of October till the 1st of February, and the latter from the st or February till the 1st of October. Patients who may edestrone to receive the benefits of the Clinique, are re-quested to attend at the College Buildings, 659 Broadway, on the Saurdays, at 11 o'clock, A. M., that their cases may be registered, before the commencement of the Clinique at POOK-KEEPING—-The Counting Rooms of C. C. Marsh, 88 Cedar street, continue open from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. in order that merchants and others may avail themselves of a course of instruction that is truly practical; one that embraces a complete routine of commercial transactious and mercantile calculations; and one in which the student actually keeps a set of books in a one in which the student actually keeps a set of books in a counting house. To those who are unacquainted with the advertiser's reputation, he desires to say, that his principal work on book-keeping has passed into ten editions; mat it receives the preference in the New-York Public Schools, and other large institutions; and that he himself has the ho-nor of being re-appointed teacher or book-keeping for the "Mercantile Library Association" of this city. Prospect-uses, with terms, may be had at the counting rooms as above.

MILLINERY GOODS.—STEVENS
A GRUMAN, 50 Beaver street, two doors from Pearl street, New-York, would respectfully invite merchants and milliners visiting the city, to call and examine their stock of Millinery and Silk Goods. Their stock is entirely NEW, and has been selected with the utmost care. Having enered the market early, they have had the benefit of FIRST SE-LECTIONS from the importers and auctions, and having thought their goods for each, they believe they can offer, not only the cheapest but the best selected assortment of goods in their line to be found in the city. It is their intention to keep constants on hand goods of the most fashionable kinds, and to do husness on the CASH SYSTEM, believing they can make it an object to those wanting goods in their line, to patronize them instead of the credit houses. They rely entirely on the cheapness of their goods for patronage. They attend the acction saids regularly and do get some great bargains which they will sell at a trilling advance from cost.

Call and see.
