Good State stocks sustained themselves, and Kentucky bonds improved 1 per cent, selling at 80½, but the fancies declined. The sales were large reaching about $90,000.—Illinois bonds 1½; Indiana 1½.

There is a considerable amount of transactions in foreign exchange for the steamer. Leading sterling is 7 a 7¼; France 5 27½, and some prime bills 5 25.

There is an improved demand for Island bills to day. On Mobile the rate is easier, other points have a tendency to improve. We quote—

It is rumored in the street to-day, on the authority of private letters from Washington, that the negociations with foreign capitalists for the loan advertised by the Secretary of the Treasury, have for the present fallen through. It is understood that when the Tariff question has been settled and a revenue provided, the negociations will be resumed with success. We regret this state of things and still trust that the arrangements will be speedily completed.

There is very little demand for Treasury notes to-day, and the rates were rather worse.

The Bank of the State of North Carolina and the Bank of Cape Fear will resume specie payments on all their liabilities on the 24 prox.

Bicknell's Philadelphia Reporter says that money matters are still improving. Out door rates of interest are lower say ½ to ¼ per cent per month. The banks are undoubtedly supplied with specie, and New York was still owing them half a million. One bank had discounted $50,000 each discount day since the resumption. A run commenced on the Bank of North America but was promptly met and subsided after an hour or two.

The Farmers and Millers Bank of Hagerstown, Md., is no longer redeemed in Philadelphia.

Counterfeit tens on the Bank of Northern Liberties letter C, and threes on the Brunswick Bank are in circulation at Philadelphia.

The Ohio banks have in the last three months reduced their circulation $2,220,467, while they have only $344,326 less of specie on hand.

The stockholders of the Commercial Bank, and of the City Bank, New Orleans, at their respective meetings, held on the 16th inst., accepted the Bank Bill recently passed by the Legislature.

Markets.

ASHES—We notice sales 50 bbls Pots to arrive at $5,50. About 50 bbls Ashes have been received by the river.

COTTON—The market is quiet to-day but firm.

FLOUR—Genesee is freely offered at $6,12½, but there is very little doing. Sales are reported at $6 but probably not in perfect order. About 1,000 bbls were received to day by the canal. Sales Ohio Canal round and flat hoop mixed, at $5,87½. A large quantity New Orleans remains unsold. A lot of 653 bbls sold on private terms, supposed $5,75. There is more inquiry for Southern, and with the exception of Georgetown it is scarce. Sales Richmond Country at $5,75; Georgetown $5,87½.

GRAIN—A parcel of Long Island Wheat sold on private terms. Sales 500 bush North River Corn at 66c measure; 800 Southern at 62c measure; 500 bush Rye at 65c for distilling. A lot of about 4000 bush Ohio Corn sold on terms not made public. Southern Oats 40c; Northern 45 a 47c.—Nearly 15,000 bush Wheat and 10,000 bush Corn are on the way from New Orleans.
