

CONFERENCE NEAR ITS END
THE NORTHFIELD MEETINGS TO CLOSE
THIS EVENING.

A BUSTY DAY PROMISED BY MR. MOODY'S SERVICES NEARLY EVER HOUR-MR. MACGREGOR'S SERMON-SOME OF THE GUESTS.

East Northfield, Mass., Aug. 14 (Special)—As the Bible Conference draws toward its close, to-morrow being the last day, the meetings close in spiritual interest. The attendance is larger than usual, and there is an earnestness which is seldom seen elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. James McGranahan sang a new hymn, "Keep in Touch with Jesus," this morning. The words are by Mr. Fraser, of Switzerland, and the music by Mr. McGranahan. Had it not been written for the present Conference it could not have expressed the tone of the meetings better than it does. Mr. Moody announced fourteen meetings for to-morrow, one every hour from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m., and two in the evening, one at 6:30 o'clock and the closing meeting in the Auditorium. A large number of people expect to remain for the meetings, to be conducted by Mr. Morgan, Dr. Dixon, M. F. Torrey and Mr. Moody, which will continue until September 12.

Mr. Morgan spoke this morning upon "Christians as God-Sent People." Mr. Macgregor gave a Bible reading on "Life in the Spirit." No meeting was held in the Auditorium this afternoon, as Mr. Moody wishes the people to be ready for the great day with which the Conference will end.

MR. MACGREGOR ON "BEING KEPT SAFE."
The following is one of Mr. Macgregor's sermons on the keeping of spiritual life. The topic was "Being Kept Safe":

Will you turn with me to Romans 9. In a new and suggestive translation of this verse, which we find in Dr. C. K. Barrett's "New Bible for Today," we get the keynote of the message for this morning. He translates the verse thus: "If, when we were enemies, we were kept safe by the death of His Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be kept safe in His life." If, when we were enemies, we were kept safe by the death of His Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be kept safe in His life.

First, then, we have to deal with the fact of being kept safe. What does it mean to be kept safe? It means that we are in the hands of a loving God. It means that we are in the hands of a loving God. It means that we are in the hands of a loving God. It means that we are in the hands of a loving God. It means that we are in the hands of a loving God. It means that we are in the hands of a loving God.

THE SECRET OF BEING KEPT SAFE.
But while they thus learn—say, thank God! not a few have learned in this convention—the secret of being saved, they do not learn the secret of being kept safe. They do not know what it is to be kept safe. They do not know what it is to be kept safe. They do not know what it is to be kept safe. They do not know what it is to be kept safe. They do not know what it is to be kept safe.

THE WORM IN THE BUD AT MANHATTAN.
The last week of his seaside season finds Mr. Parry in a regretful humor. The manager of "Little Faust" has earned fame and fortune at Manhattan Beach, and the future is problematic. De Wolf Hopper was so loath to end his picturesque engagement at the seaside that, if the matter were to be changed, he would have bought the time of "Little Faust." William Parry has an equally generous disposition, for nothing would please him better than to purchase the time of the Bostonians. But Barnabee will not agree to the proposition of Parry than that manager of "Little Faust" to the argument that, if the matter were to be changed, he would have bought the time of "Little Faust."

TROUBLE IN A STAPLETON YACHT CLUB.
The Ocean Yacht Club, a well-known organization in Stapleton, which for some years has been sailing before the fair winds of success, has met storms and a number of the members have offered their resignations and organized a new club in opposition to the existing one. The new club has been organized by the introduction of politics into the club. The new club has been organized by the introduction of politics into the club.

A SALVATION FOR DAILY LIVING.
God knew that we could not always be at conventions, and God did not prepare His salvation simply for conventions. God knew that our life is in our daily living, and He prepared a salvation that would take us in our daily living and keep us safe in the midst of it. He gave us the word of God, and the word of God is a living and active word. He gave us the word of God, and the word of God is a living and active word.
