The professional sentiment is bearish. There is the view that some interests which are long of heavily loaded, and that liquidation by them would result in a continued decline. ather everywhere was mild.

Corn at the close showed a loss of half a cent. and at one time showed even somewhat more deasing pressure from Patten and the other rs. Phillips, who has been the bull leader of openly gave support, but there was the belief was doing some selling under cover. ened at 40%c, sold between 40%c and 40%c bid, and opened at 40% to 40% c. "The Price Current" esti-mated the farm reserve at $50,000,000 bushels. inst 773,969,000 bushels last year. Cables were lower. Liverpool reported Argentine offering com more freely. There was not so much outside buying. The cash demand here was slow; in view of the break about 150,000 bushels worked. seaboard reported 57 loads for export. The local oats were decidedly weak, reaching the lowest point in weeks. May sold from 25%c to 24%c, and closed at 24%c. Patten was helping the decline glong; Phillips had long oats for sale. There was good deal of selling, both for long and short account. On the break the leading longs did the buying through brokers. A was effected-350,000 bushels. A large spring business Flaxseed was weak, prices losing 2c to 3c. May dosed at $154, the cash at $154. There were 48 cars of seed, against 27 last year.

Provisions were strong, pork up 30c; lard and the up 74c to 10c. Armour led the buying, the first time he has been in the market openly for weks. He bought pork and ribs. There were only 200 hogs, instead of 32,000 estimated. The cash demand continued good; it looks as if the rush of hogs was over.
