HILL'S TRIO OF REBUILDERS.

WOOD, SULLIVAN AND MCARREN, HIS CHIEF AIDS IN RE-VITALLIZING THE DEMOCRATIC MACHINE.

CLEVELAND MEN ARE DISGUSTED AT THE OUTLOOK.

The Democratic three-name rebuilders are Mr. Wood, Sullivan and McArren. Mr. Wood is the powerful new leader of the Democratic Reformers, and the independent Democrats who hoped for a re- victualizing of the party are looking to him as the successor of Judge Hill. The third member of the trio is Mr. McArren, who was made a member of the political committee of the Democratic National Committee by Judge Hill for the purpose of securing the nomination of Mr. Wood for the Speaker of the House. The three men together are the political leaders of the Democratic party in New York, and their influence is great.

The Democratic Reformers are those men who, in the late campaign, were active in the struggle to obtain the nomination of Mr. Wood for Speaker of the House. They were opposed to the nomination of Mr. McCarren, who was the candidate of the old-line Democrats, and they succeeded in obtaining the nomination of Mr. Wood in the convention.
