STOCK MARKET OPERATIONS. The recent improvement in the stock market was maintained yesterday, and at the close of the two-hour session further gains had been made in the majority of issues.

The government crop report, giving the condition of various grains as of June 1, was regarded as favorable, as it showed some improvement in the winter wheat prospect and indicated a spring wheat crop more than fifty million bushels in excess of the 1903 harvest.

The bank statement was, as has been expected, a favorable one. The increase in cash holdings by the banks, $6,400,000, was almost identical with the preliminary estimates based on the known movement of money for the week.

GOVERNMENT BONDS—Market steady. Final quotations follow: U.S. 2 1/2 percent 1904, 104 1/2; U.S. 3 percent 1904, 105 1/2; U.S. 4 percent 1904, 107 1/2.

RAILROAD BONDS—Market strong. Total sales amounted in par value to $1,530,000, against $2,400,000 on Friday.
