

MINERS HEAR PRESIDENT. GREAT CRUSH AT STAND.

Many in Crowd Hurt, in Spite of Mr. Roosevelt's Appeal.

(By TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.) Wilkes-Barre, Penn., Aug. 10.—Over eighty thousand mine workers assembled in this city to-day to hear President Roosevelt...

Had it not been for President Roosevelt many might have been seriously injured. As the crowd surged forward, with such force that people were lifted from their feet...

The speeches of Cardinal Gibbons, Mayor F. C. Kirkendall and Father Curran could scarcely be heard, so great was the noise...

President Roosevelt's voice had greater carrying power than that of any of the other speakers, and he spoke to the crowd in sections...

I am particularly glad to speak to this audience of fathers and mothers and children, and especially to speak to the workers of this great temperance society...

The only effective way to help anybody is to help him help himself. There are exceptional times when any one of us needs outside help...

But in the last analysis the factor most influential in determining any man's success must be the sum of that man's own qualities...

BENEFITS OF TEMPERANCE. No one society can do more to help the wage-worker than such a temperance society...

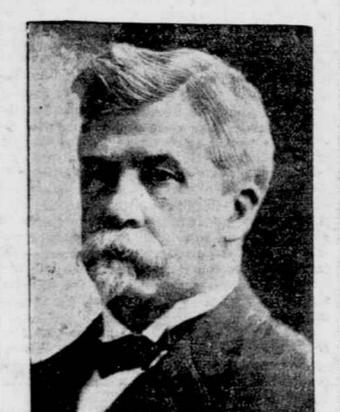

REMEDY FOR LABOR TROUBLES. This applies just as much to the man of great wealth as to the man of small means...

NEARER NEW-YORK THAN EVER. The second Empire of the New York Central brings all Central and Southern New York nearer the Metropolis...

JAMES M'KEEN COUNSEL. WILL PROBE INSURANCE.

Mr. Hughes Wanted to Aid—Mr. Choate Asked to Advise.

James M'Keen, of Brooklyn, has received an offer of a retainer as counsel by the legislative insurance investigation committee...

JAMES M'KEEN.

footing with Mr. M'Keen, but had not yet accepted the offer. Joseph H. Choate, ex-Ambassador to the Court of St. James's...

This announcement, which was made by Senator W. W. Armstrong at the Murray Hill late last night, follows closely The Tribune's exclusive predictions...

Mr. M'Keen curtailed his vacation in Portland, Me., and the committee held its first consultation with counsel at the Murray Hill last night...

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

announced at 10:30 p. m., followed a conference of the full legislative committee, which lasted until past 10 p. m.

It is understood that the conference last night, the final one of many this week, was in reality the opening by compromise of an apparent deadlock...

COMMITTEE BEGINS WORK AT ONCE. The committee, including Mr. M'Keen, will hold its first business session this morning...

SENATOR ARMSTRONG'S STATEMENT. Senator Armstrong, in announcing the committee's decision, said: We have offered retainers to James M'Keen and Charles E. Hughes...

REMERIT PRAISE FOR "THE PENNSYLVANIA SPECIAL." In service, equipment, smoothness of running and in dining car service...

INTERESTING NEWS ON OTHER PAGES.

- The Arctic steamer Terra Nova reached Norway with the Fiala North Pole expedition. Page 3. Members of the Citizens Union gave out a statement demanding that Mr. Jerome be made candidate for Mayor. Page 4. Mrs. Fornes sold the house given to her by her husband from whom she is seeking a separation. Page 7. Sharp rise in Delaware and Hudson and other gilt edged stocks. Page 9. The Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Company was bought by a new syndicate. Page 9. Big corn and wheat crops predicted in government report. Page 9. Professor Moore defends the Weather Bureau. Page 8. Yellow fever still spreading in New-Orleans. Page 2. Developments in the East Side bread strike. Page 8.

IN SEVEN DAYS' DUEL. Light Keeper Fights Mad Assistant to Save Tower and Life.

Merrill Hulse, first assistant keeper of the Stratford Shoals Light, in the Sound, midway between Port Jefferson and Bridgeport, it was learned yesterday, heroically saved the light from destruction by fighting for a week with his assistant keeper, Julius Koster...

VALET ROBBED WIDENER. Police Trying to Connect Him with Thefts from A. G. Vanderbilt.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—After systematically robbing Lynwood Hall, the home of George D. Widener, for the last ten months, John William George, a valet in the employ of Mr. Widener, has been arrested...

ADDICKS HELD UP. Marshal Attacks Goods and Chattels on His Dairy Farm.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 10.—United States Marshal Finn has attached the goods and chattels on J. Edward Addicks's dairy farm at Carcroft, Del., several miles from this city...

"AUTOS" 9-CENT PARCELS. Public Stores Contractor Finds Trucking a Losing Job.

John J. Hannon, who has the public stores trucking contract, under the terms of which he is bound to carry a parcel from a steamship pier to the public stores in 8th-ave. and Christopher-st. for nine cents, in the last few weeks has been compelled to transport 121 automobiles from Hoboken and other North River points at nine cents apiece...

MRS. BATES WEDS AGAIN. Widow of Wealthy Boston Man Marries British Navy Captain.

Boston, Aug. 10.—Mrs. John W. Bates, who inherited an estate of $300,000 and a home in Commonwealth-ave. from her husband, was today married to Captain Henry F. Fitzroy, late of the British royal navy and commander of the battleship Charlydis...

JAPANESE FAR NORTH. Two Squadrons Operating Off Kamtchatka and Okhotsk.

Tokio, Aug. 10.—Rear Admiral Kataoka reports that he has dispatched one naval squadron to Kamtchatka and another to Okhotsk, and that they are now engaged in carrying out their instructions in regard to the work to be performed at their respective destinations.

UTILIZING CONQUEST. Japanese Bidding for Fishing Rights in Saghalien.

London, Aug. 11.—A Tokio dispatch to 'The Times' says that the Japanese government is inviting competitive tenders for the Saghalien fisheries rights covering a period including 1906.

PETERS ASKED TO RESIGN. Vice-President of Southern Cotton Association To Be Forced Out.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 10.—Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association, to-day wired Colonel E. S. Peters, of Calvert, Texas, vice-president of the association, demanding his resignation...

MAY SUCCEED MONSIGNOR CHAPELLE. Report in Richmond that Bishop Van De Vyver Will Be Named by the Pope.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 10.—In all probability, it is said, Bishop Van De Vyver, of Richmond, will be chosen as successor to Archbishop Chapelle, who died from yellow fever in New-Orleans...

MRS. ROOSEVELT AT NEW-HAVEN. President's Wife Spends Night at Home of Her Sister-in-Law.

New-Haven, Conn., Aug. 10.—The Sybil, President Roosevelt's steam yacht, with Mr. Roosevelt, President Roosevelt's sister, Mrs. William S. Cowles, and three of Mrs. Roosevelt's children and board, anchored in the inner harbor to-day and her party came ashore and went by train to New-Haven...

TWO HURT AT POLO. Blair Breaks Arm and Collarbone—Lawrence May Lose Eye.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 10.—Two players were injured, one seriously, at a polo match at the Point Judith Country Club this afternoon...

BARGE SINKS ON ROCKS. Tug Also Injured After Cable Parted.

The coal barge Bertha, of Elizabeth, N. J., loaded with fifteen hundred tons of anthracite coal, consigned by William Hawkins of No. 1 Broad-st., owner of both coal and barge, to Ward's Island, sank in Little Hell Gate at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon...

A BLOW TO THE RUSSIANS. The decision to exclude M. Martens from the meetings of the conferees is generally regarded as a serious blow to the Russians...

REIMBURSEMENT FOR WAR EXPENSES AND CESSION OF SAGHALIEN SAID TO BE CHIEF DEMANDS—BOTH SIDES STRIVING TO REACH AN AGREEMENT.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 10.—Japan's peace terms have been placed in the hands of the Russian envoys, and the conference has adjourned to await the formulation of the Russian reply. The written proposition of Japan was handed to M. Witte by Baron Komura with the express stipulation that its character should be kept absolutely secret...

JAPANESE TERMS SUBMITTED. Russian Envoys Receive Them, and May Present Their Reply on Monday.

HOPE OF PEACE BECOMES STRONGER. Reimbursement for War Expenses and Cession of Saghalien Said To Be Chief Demands—Both Sides Striving to Reach an Agreement.

(From a Special Correspondent of The Tribune.) Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 10.—Japan's peace terms have been placed in the hands of the Russian envoys, and the conference has adjourned to await the formulation of the Russian reply...

"INDEMNITY" NOT ASKED. Japan's Chief Demands Said To Be Unacceptable to Russia.

(By the Associated Press.) Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 10.—Reimbursement for the expenses sustained in the prosecution of the war and the cession of the island of Saghalien are believed here to constitute the main features of the peace terms handed by Baron Komura to M. Witte at the close of the morning session of the plenipotentiaries to-day...

NOT A GREAT SURPRISE TO RUSSIANS. The Japanese terms proved a great surprise to the Russian plenipotentiaries, as hardly supposed, as they were doubtless pretty well prepared in advance...

The events of the last few days may be regarded as having demonstrated beyond question the sincere desire of both parties to the conference to effect a lasting peace, and the atmosphere here, while difficult to describe in concrete terms, seems to warrant a sanguine view regarding the outcome of the conference...

THE RUSSIAN REPLY. It is expected that the Russian reply will present certain counter propositions, and there is reason to believe that these will receive the careful consideration of Japan, which has clearly demonstrated a desire to deal with the situation on an equitable basis...

When the conference met this morning the formal acceptance of the credentials of all the plenipotentiaries was recorded. The objection of the Japanese envoys to the presence at the sessions of M. Martens as legal and diplomatic adviser of the Russian members, to be offset by the presence of Mr. Dennison or such other adviser as Baron Komura and Minister Takahira might select, was made final, and then followed a discussion of the advisability of furnishing to the press a brief statement of so much of the proceedings of each session as the conferees deemed it proper to make public...

RECOGNITION OF THE JAPANESE PROTECTORATE OVER COREA. The grant of fishing rights to Japan in the waters of the Siberian littoral northward from Vladivostok to Behring Sea...

REINQUILTING TO JAPAN OF THE RUSSIAN WARSHIPS INTERNED IN NEUTRAL PORTS. Finally, a limitation on the naval strength of Russia in Far Eastern waters.

PRESENTATION OF TERMS. These preliminaries having been disposed of, M. Witte announced that he and his colleagues were prepared to receive the terms of peace which Japan would offer...

THE JAPANESE, ON THE CONTRARY, AS BARON KOMURA announced at the conference to-day, consider them moderate, contending that they only represent a fair compensation for the expenses of the war and the victories they have achieved on land and sea...

IT IS HOPED THAT A REPLY WILL BE RECEIVED FROM THE CAZAR TO-MORROW, IN WHICH CASE M. WITTE expects to have the Russian response ready by Saturday, but it is not unlikely that Saturday being the first anniversary of the birth of the Czar, the presentation of the reply will be deferred until Monday...

MUCH EXCITEMENT prevailed about the Hotel Wentworth to-night, the corridors being thronged with summer guests and newspaper correspondents, all discussing and speculating on the terms, while dozens of telegraph instruments were clicking off dispatches to all quarters of the globe...

IT IS LEARNED THAT THE INITIATIVE OF THE decision taken by the peace conference to keep in absolute secrecy the deliberations agreed on by the plenipotentiaries was proposed by the Japanese representatives. The Russian representatives had no special interest in maintaining secrecy, but as the conference is the reunion of two parties the Russians, thinking that they had not the right of opposing the desire of the Japanese, have consented to this proceeding...

AN AGREEMENT was reached to-day by which the conference was formally adjourned until

Continued on second page.

Continued on third page.

Continued on fourth page.

Continued on fifth page.

Continued on sixth page.