CLOCKWORK JUMPS WELL.

Twilight Queen Beats Half Sovereign in Hunter Handicap.

Thomas Hitchcock, jr., showed a three-year-old jumper named Clockwork in the steeplechase at Belmont Pary yesterday that is more than likely to win the Harbor Hill Cup next Saturday and the prize of something over $3,000. The son of Ogden not only outran but outjumped such an accomplished fencer as Thistledale over the short course of about two miles, which is just to the latter's liking. Clockwork took his jumps in a bold. dashing way and raced Thistledale into sub mission in a head-and-head struggle of a mile all around the lower turn and up the backstretch. Many expected to see the three-year-old capitulate, but instead of that Thistledale was the on to give it up, and Clockwork came on, to win clev erly by three or four lengths.

Oakhurst, Mr. Hitchcock's other starter, also qualified for the Harbor Hill Cup by jumping well and finishing third, but Ruxton and Brendan, two other three-year-olds which were making their first appearance, came to grief with Andrew Summers and Vilhalla, all of which fell on the backstretch the second time around. Patterson, who rode Vilhalla, was stunned and lay stretched out on the turf for two or three minutes. He revived finally, but rode off in the ambulance, badly bruised and shaken up.

The steeplechase saved the card, even though it did prove more or less of a comedy of errors, with only three out of seven starters finishing. The fields in three races were light and badly balanced, due largely to wholesale scratching, and the crowd, which was lighter than usual, went home feeling that there was just cause for complaint.

Twilight Queen, the extreme outsider in a five horse field, won the Hunter Handicap, at one mile, after a spirited drive with August Belmont's Half Sovereign, the quoted favorite, and Zienap. E. Dugan made so much use of Half Sovereign in rushing her up from last place to a lead of two or three open lengths in the first half mile that the Hastings mare had little left to finish with, although she hung on well in the final drive. Grand let Zienap drop out of it rounding the turn and thus aroused some unfavorable criticism, as his nount was running on in the stretch in a way to indicate that she might have won with better handling. Arondack hung in the stretch, where she usually runs her strongest. Flying Squirrel did not live up to his reputation gained in Canada, where he was ranked well up with the best two-year-olds, in the opening race. Zacatecas ran him off his feet and came away to win, while even Agnier, a good looking filly from the Montpelier Stable, which was starting for the first time, outgamed him for the place. Agnier, by the way, ran like a filly of some quality. She closed strongly and ran straight and true under

Wise Mason frightened every horse out of the third race except Practical, and then galloped along in front all the way, to win easily in the fast time of 1:44 4-5 for the mile and a sixteenth. It was a practical walkover that was not appreciated

Harrigan finally won a race for H. R. Brandt when he came from behind and outgamed Besom in the six furlong handicap. Grand did not ride a strong finish on Besom and delayed making his until Harrigan had raced up on the outside Royal Onyx ran out in the stretch when he appeared to have a winning chance

There was no end of "tips" in the last race, for maidens, but Racing Bell, the form favorite, made a show of her field and brought a poor day's racing

YANKEES SAY GOODBY HORSES JUMP A FENCE

WIND UP WITH VICTORY. TAKE WAGON WITH THEM

Games of Double-Header.

The Yankees wound up the season at American League Park yesterday by winning two games of a double-header from St. Louis, the first by a score of 6 to 0 and the second by a score of 11 to 4. They left for Boston last night for two games with the Red Sox, one to-day and one on Monday, to conclude the schedule. Outside of the fact that the Yankees closed their hilltop grounds with a louble victory, there was little to arouse the enthuslasm of the shivering "fans." Both games were porly played, errors of commission as well as errors of omission, particularly on the part of the visitors, having much to do with the run getting. There was plenty of clean, hard hitting on the part of the Yankees, and this kept the faithful sed and entertained.

By fur the feature of the first game was the brilliant fielding of "Birdie" Cree. The dimunitive outfielder raced all about his territory and made five pretty catches, two of which were of sensational order. Warhop, too, deserved much credit, as he pitched a strong, steady game, holding the visitors to seven hits, all of which were so scat-tered that no runs were forthcoming.

The Yankees fell on Kusel in the first inning and pilled up three runs on four clean singles. They added two more in the second inning on Sweeney's safe drive and Cree's home run to the fence in deep right field. This was a handicap which St. Louis never made a pretence of overcoming.

The second game was a slugging match, in which the Yankees made fourteen hits and eleven runs in six innings. They began with a rush and scored four runs in their first time at bat on a two-bagger by Demmit, a three-base hit by Chase, a free pass to Engle and singles by Gardner and Knight.

After St. Louis had tied the score in the third inning, the home team added two more runs in the fifth on safe hits by Knight and Blair com-bined with two errors, and then made assurance doubly sure by pilling up five more in the fifth when Gilligan was pounded all over the field.

The game was called after the visitors had failed to score in their half of the seventh inning, on Griggs was almost knocked down and forced to leave the game in the first inning, when the ball took a bad bound from Demmitt's hard drive and hit him full in the face. The doctor reported later that he was not seriously injured.

SECOND GAME.

St. Louis Badly Beaten in Two Blue Ribbons Well Divided at the Morristown Show.

> What proved to be the most spectacular feature of the horse show at Morristown, N. J., yesterday afternoon was not on the programme and was so totally unexpected that before any one could realize what had happened it was all over. There are plenty of horses quite capable of clearing a fence, but Thornton and Wellington hold the record for jumping in double harness and taking a wagor

> A. M. Guerin had his bay pair entered in the class for roadsters, and they were hitched to a featherweight skeleton wagon. In making å short turn the light vehicle upset, and Mr. Guerin was thrown out. The horses made straight for the gate, but finding it closed cleared it with a bound wagon and all. As the vehicle struck the ground it righted itself, and the horses started on a run for the main road. They had things pretty muc to themselves until Charles Fleischmann's chauffeu gave chase in an automobile and finally headed them off. When they reached the hands of Mr. Guerin half an hour later the outfit was intact excepting a broken trace, and he drove the horse > around the ring to the wild shouts of the crewd. De Witt C. Flanagan sustained his first defeat in the class for pairs of harness horses over 15.1 hands. Prince Charming won in the novice harness class, although he threw a shee soon after entering the ring. It did not affect his gait materially, however, and he walked off with the blue rosette. He lost when shown to pole with his mate Kentucky, as Sultan and Khedive were placed first.

Charles Pfizer's bay gelding Yourfellow, a splendid hunter, won both of the jumping classes. In Class 27 he had to compete with Miss Elsie Sherin's brown gelding Interpreter, which has won forty one blues and three championships. He tipped one rail yesterday, which probably lost him the blue Joseph Larocque, jr., rode his bay gelding to vic tory in Class 21 and defeated a number of blue rib-bon winners, among them Walter Bliss's Patrician Somerset Farm's Royalist, S. Herbert Mapes's bay gelding Jester and the good chestnut thoroughbred Knight of Elway, with Dick Donnelly up. Mr. Larocque rode Roxana in Class 46 and captured another blue.

In the class for branded ponies, Joseph Larocque 3d, rode Crumpet, and was defeated by the little gray mare Lady Idol from the Somerset Farms known to the railbirds as Little Joe from the fact that she has the name branded on her flank. Walter Bliss scored heavily in the harness classes. With Pandora and Harmony in double harness he captured the blue in Class 36, and shown singly in the open harness class Harmony was placed second to Pandora, leaving the yellow to George King's Little King. Pandora won again in the ladies' phaeton class.

Not Willing, However, to Challenge Under Old Conditions.

London, Oct. 1 .- Sir Thomas Lipton, in an interdew to-night with The Associated Press concern ing the announcement made by Joseph Garretson managing editor of "The Cincinnati Times-Star," in New York to-day that Sir Thomas purposed sailing shortly for New York and would issue a chal-lenge for a yacht race for the America's Cup, said that his position in regard to a further attempt to lift the Cup had not changed.

Miss Fish, who represents the Montclair Athletic Club, will meet the national indoor champion, Miss Marie Wagner, for the trophy this morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Moore was the master spirit of the first set and won easily. Miss Fish was swinging into her fast drives for the sides and corners, and with the econd set she continuously smothered Miss Moore's returns. It was in driving across court that Miss Fish accomplished her best work, so that Miss Moore only won two games.

The former national champion was not to be easily disposed of, however, and she led at 3-1 in favor. New Haven, Oct. 1.—Anticipating a hard game with Syracuse to-morrow, Yale made several changes in the line-up to-day. Goebel returned to right guard, and although he has been in training only two days he played for fifteen minutes in the immage. Brown was shifted to left tackle, as Hobbs will be unable to play on account of his injured ankle. Hyde's dislocated fingers will prevent his being at centre, and Francis, the freshman snapback last year, will be tried. Tony Haines, of Chicago, will be at right halfback and do the Captain Ted Coy returned to college to-day and will be on the side lines to-morrow. He says he expects to begin work with the squad next week. Syracuse arrived this noon and practised at Yale Field for a time this evening. Tad Jones said that Hartman, at guard, was the only man who faced Yale last year who would be in the line-up to-morrow. Three of the regulars-Captain Barry. halfback: Shaw, fullback, and the quarterback-will be unable to play on account of slight injuries. Ben Hinkey, brother of Frank and Louis, Yale's famous stars of a decade ago, will play right end for Syracuse. Last year Yale defeated Syracuse by a score of 6 to 0.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Princeton, N. J., Oct. 1.-The practice of the Princeton football squad in preparation for the first ne of the season with Stevens to-morrow was the fastest that has been held this year and the most satisfactory. The 'varsity scored three touchdowns and a field goal during the two periods of play, and had little difficulty in keeping their own goal line out of danger. The first team backs ploughed through the scrub for consistent gains. and the line showed a stronger defence than in the last few days. McCrohan greatly strengthened the 'varsisty line by his playing at tackle. The defensive practice he has had while on the scrub eleven proved effective this afternoon, as he was a big factor in breaking up the second team's play. Cunningham and Read each scored one touchdown during the first half, while Cunningham further increased the score by a successful drop kick from the 25-yard Many substitutions were made in the second period, and only one more touchdown was made, Sparks scoring on one of his brilliant dashes outside of tackle. The work of Christic, Duff and King during this half was commendable. The team will probably line up to-morrow as follows: Welsh and Gill, ends; Siegling and McCrohan, tackles; Waller and Woehr, guards; Bamman, centre; Dawson, quarterback; Cunningham and Read, halfbacks; Woodle, fullback.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. I.—Harvard will line up against Bowdoin to-morrow afternoon with some misgivings, as last year the Maine boys gave the Crimson a sharp fight, and threatened the 'varsity goal repeatedly, Harvard winning by only a single touchdown. Preparatory to the game Haughton had only light signal drill this afternoon. Much of the time was spent with the forward pass, and later the 'varsity lined up against the substitutes, but there was no tackling, and the first team backs ran through the plays without opposition.

The coaches paid especial attention to detail. Each man was instructed for position on every play, and had to do the work right. The eleven has recovered from the weariness caused by the heat of last Wednesday, and the team went through the difficult formations with plenty of snap. O'Flaherty drove the men at a rapid rate, and worked the forward pass with precision. He will start at quarterback to-morrow, but there may be changes before the game is over.

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 1 .- With the football season well under way the Dartmouth team is fast rounding into condition. The result of the first game has satisfied undergraduates that Dartmouth has lost nothing by its change in coaching system. Lillard, Randall, Turner, Keady and Brusse are all good men, who know football and how to teach it.

Captain Tobin is a spirited leader, who has the confidence of his men. The return of Lang has done much to brighten the prospects, as he completes what should be a powerful and aggressive line. Dingle is showing up well at centre, and the tackles -Lang and Sherwin-are keeping their opponents busy. Daly and Bankart are fast ends, and Palmer and Elcock may be developed into fair substitutes. The back field is well looked after by Marks, Ingersoll and Ryan. Marks is playing in better form this year than ever. Brady the baseball star, has come out to try for quarterback.

Olcott gave the New York University football squad a long, hard drill yesterday afternoon, with particular attention to the forward pass and onside kick. Kemper, a guard from Columbia Grammar School, and Kohn, a former Townsend Harris Hall lineman, joined the squad. Both men are 250afternoon. He will place the strongest combination pounders, and are promising candidates. Women Golfers to Play for the Thomas Trophy.

championship tournament, which will begin at Philadelphia on Monday, a team match between the East and the West will be played over the Inks of the Merion Cricket Club at Philadelphia to-day for the Ransom H. Thomas cup.

The Garden City Golf Club, through Walter J.

Travis, has offered a cup and extended the courtesies of the course at Garden City to the Eastern Women's Golf Association for a one day tourns-ment for the entertainment of the English women who have come to this country to play in the na-

BILLIARD MEN ORGANIZE.

Plans Discussed to Build Up the Sport Once More.

Billiard room keepers formed the nucleus of a naional association at the Waldorf-Astoria last night. Professionals, amateurs and the managers of rooms in this city and in other sections of the country met at an informal dinner for this purpose. There was a unanimity of opinion that only by organisa-tion could the owners of rooms and the players enjoy the game and witness the cue performances of the masters and work for the development of presided as toastmaster, and at the beginning of the speeches it was made known that the roomkeep ers had decided to hold a world's championship tournament at 18.2 balkline in the concert hall at Madison Square Garden, beginning on Monday, No. vember 22. This is for the title which Ora Morning star defaulted this summer. Prize money to the amount of $10,000 is already assured, the largest amount for the billiard championship in this co try since 1854. Aiready William Hoppe, Calvin Demarest, Albert G. Cutler, George F. Slosson, George Sutton and possibly two French players of note will compete, so that two weeks will be devoted to the matches. The committee appointed for the formulation of the regulations under which the association will be incorporated was Maurice Daly, New York; Albert G. Cutler, Boston; John Doyle, New York; John J. McGraw, New York; Nat Ward, Brooklyn; Frank Keeney, Brooklyn; George F. Slosson, New York: Larry Strauss, New York; Sol Allinger, Phil phia; Tim Flynn, New York; A. B. Howland, New York, and Albert Bergmann, New York. There were many letters read from the Western roomkeepers favoring the association and promis

YERKES EXECUTOR MAKES MOVE.

Louis S. Owsley Opposed by Mrs. Yerkes and Creditors of Estate. Surrogate Thomas heard argument yest upon the application of Louis S. Owsley, the executor of the estate of the late Charles T. Verkes in the State of Illinois, for his appointment as ancillary executor of the estate left by Mr. Yerkes in this state. The application was opposed by Franklin Bien, representing creditors of the estate, and by Charles A. Boston, of the firm of Hornblower, Miller & Potter, who appeared for Mrs. Yerkes. Both lawyers asked for an adjournment on account of the sickness of James R. Soley, counsel for Mrs. Yerkes, saying neither of them was fully
