STAKES FILLING UP.

More Horses Named for the Big Spring Handicaps.

With the mail from Kentucky under date of January 3, more entries were received yesterday for the stakes to be decided at the thoroughbred race meetings at Gravesend, Sheepshead Bay and Brighton Beach next season. F. A. Forsythe, who threatened to retire last fall and confine himself to breeding, made numerous entries, while others heard from yesterday were John E. Madden, Woodford Clay, Thomas C. McDowell and Mrs. J. McLaughlin.

Close to six hundred entries have now been received by the Brighton Beach Racing Association, including twenty-nine for the Brighton Handicap, of $5,000 at one mile and a quarter, to which four were added yesterday—Dorante, Huck, Hampton Court and Fauntleroy.

F. A. Forsythe, in addition to naming Dorante for the three big handicaps, put Bert, Maid and Twigg, Queen in the Brighton Mile and other stakes and entered a number of youngsters by Oddfellows and Filigrane for the two-year-old fixtures.

Woodford Clay named Ocean Bound, which was ranked as the best two-year-old filly of 1909 before her retirement at Saratoga, for the Brighton Mile as well as for stakes exclusively for three-year-old fillies at Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend, which indicates that he expects her to train on next season. Mr. Clay also entered eleven choice bred colts and fillies by Star Shoot and Sir Dixon out of such well known mares as Outcome, Flying Ship and Breakwaters among others for the many two-year-old stakes at all three tracks.

John E. Madden's colors will not be particularly prominent next season, as he sold most of his yearlings to R. J. Wilson, Jr., last summer and disposed of most of his older horses as well. He has named Hampton Court, which showed some class late in the fall, for the Brooklyn, Saratoga and Brighton handicaps, and three-year-old fillies by Megraue, Disguise and Plaudit in the Brighton Junior, Great Trial at Sheepshead Bay and other fixtures for youngsters.

Mrs. James McLaughlin has high hopes of Fauntleroy, which won the Champagne Stakes at Belmont Park last October, beating Kingship, Candelberry and Gramere in a way to indicate that he was one of the best colts of the year. She has entered him liberally, and did not overlook the three big mile and a quarter specials. Jimmy McLaughlin said recently that Fauntleroy was filling out and promised to be a better and more impressive looking colt than he was last year.

Thomas C. McDowell will place his chief dependence on Huck in the Brooklyn and Brighton handicaps, but engagements have also been made for King's Daughter, which indicates that the retirement of the popular mare has been postponed and that she will be trained again. Berwick and Ellen-a-Dale are other horses he has entered.

The entries of R. F. Carman and other owners racing at Jacksonville, Tampa, Juarez and Oakland are expected within a day or two, which will swell the lists.

Al Shaw, the outfielder who comes from St. Louis to the Giants, can be developed into a 300 hitter with proper coaching, according to Konechky, the star first baseman of the Browns. He is wonderfully fast on the bases, but has acquired the bad habit of swinging at the ball for extra base hits, and striking out in consequence. McGraw is a great believer in bunting, and Konechky thinks the manager of the Giants can make Shaw see the error of his ways and bring about remarkable improvement in his batting.

Word comes from Pittsburg that Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pirates, is not pleased with the working of the new rule on waivers by which the holding club can recall a waiver once asked and hold the player. According to Locke, secretary of the Pittsburg club, and others, the rule is sure to cause friction, as now appears to be the case between Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and make trouble for all concerned.

The John Wanamaker Athletic Association, in connection with the 29th company, coast artillery, will hold an athletic carnival in the 8th Regiment Army on January 23. The games will be under the management of Harry L. Hillman, the new coach of the Dartmouth College athletes. One of the features will be a relay race, open to teams from the various department stores in this city. The Wanamaker store will be represented by Harry Gissing, Jim McEntee, the New York Athletic Club flyer, and Abe Kiviat, among others.

Bill Dahlen, the new manager of the Superbas, announced yesterday that he will take thirty players to Hot Springs on March 1 for a few days before going to the spring training grounds at Jacksonville, Fla. The squad was further reduced yesterday. "Whitey" Alperman was loaned out to the Rochester club, of the Eastern League, while J. S. Holmes, Harry Tattee, Edward Holly and Julius Kustus were returned to the same club.

The New York American League club cut its roster almost to the legal limit of thirty-five players yesterday by releasing Warner, Channell and Farrell to the Memphis team of the Southern Association. Warner was with Hartford last year, Channell with Fort Wayne and Farrell with Marion, Ohio.

M'KAY WINS BILLIARD TITLE. Defeats Hoppe for Greater New York Three-Cushion Championship.

William McKay won the greater New York three cushion championship by defeating Frank Hoppe in the final game at Doyle's Academy last night by a score of 46 to 22. McKay made a high run of 7, while Hoppe's best was 4. The first prize was $100 and a silver cup, which must be competed for every month in the playing season. J. Blair challenged McKay for the title, and the game will take place the latter part of this month.

HAVETTE-MICHELIN GETS JOB. Chosen Vice-President of Tire Concern—Diamond Exhibit at Auto Show.

J. Havette-Michelin has been elected vice-president and general manager of the Michelin Tire Company, in the place of J. C. Matlack, who retired some weeks ago. His office will be at the factory at Milltown, N. J. Mr. Havette-Michelin is a nephew of Edouard Michelin, president of the company, which has factories in France, England and Italy. He said that it is his aim to maintain the high standard of quality of Michelin tires, appreciated by the trade in general, as indicated by the success of the company in this country in the last two years.

The Diamond tires being shown at the Palace show are one of the big attractions in the rubber line. The concern is showing tires that will fit every type of rim. Crowds can always be seen about the booth where they are on exhibition.

GANZ SCORES TWICE.

Rides Two Winners at the Jacksonville Track.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 5.—Gans rode two winners at Moncrief Park to-day—Grande Dame and Booger Red—and carried off the jockey honors. Booger Red, quoted at 9 to 2, won the Lakeland Stakes, at five furlongs, after a brilliant rush in the stretch. Grande Dame, ridden by Clem Beachy, quietly played by a wise few at 6 to 1, galloped home in the first race, thanks largely to Troxler's good ride. C. W. Burt and Grande Dame were the only winning favorites.

The summaries follow: First race (five and a half furlongs)—Clem Beachy, 108 (Troxler), 12 to 1, second, Capt. Glore, 111 (Page), 8 to 1, third, Dave Nicholson, 100 (Ganz), 20 to 1, third, time, 1:08.4. Second race (five and a half furlongs)—O. W. Burt, 109 (Powers), 1 to 2, won; Waterbury, 111 (Nicol), 12 to 1, second; Babe Willie, 105 (Kling), 10 to 1, third; time, 1:08.4. Select II, C. Champ, Pearl Hopkiss, Alamo, Youthful, Clady, Phoenix, Whim, Scruples and Zymole also ran.

Third race (six furlongs)—Grande Dame, 102 (Ganz), even, won; George W. Lehman, 104 (Nicol), 12 to 1, second; Sam Kate, 107 (J. Reid), 9 to 1, third; time, 1:14. Comedienne and Enlist also ran.

Fifth race (seven furlongs)—Roseboro, 109 (Nicol), 9 to 2, won; Lady, 104 (McGee), 3 to 1, second; Sally Preston, 106 (Troxler), 8 to 1, third; time, 1:18.8. The Earl, Little Fitz, May Lutz and Dona H. also ran.

Sixth race (one mile and a sixteenth)—Topsy Robinson, 116 (Musgrave), 7 to 2, won; Lady, 104 (Kling), 12 to 1, second; time, 1:48.4. Lois Cavanaugh, Agreement, Harry Scott, Maladroit, Mary Candelaria, Mattie Bump, John McBride, Michael Beck and Countermind also ran.

ON THE GOLF LINKS.

American and English "Pros" to Measure Strength.

That the professional golfers of this country and Great Britain will ere long measure strength and skill in actual conflict is now a settled fact. It was learned last night that H. H. Barker, secretary of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association, had received assurances from the American representatives will be accommodated with not only one but several matches.

At a meeting of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association held a few weeks ago in this city it was decided to issue a challenge to the foreign golfers for a team match, and Barker was instructed to communicate with the "pros" in Great Britain on behalf of the Eastern body. At the same time Alec Smith, the Eastern and metropolitan open champion, was chosen captain.

There is no desire on the part of the visiting "pros" to array themselves against the combined strength of Great Britain in any one test, but rather take on the different professional associations one at a time, an arrangement which would be more equitable, considering that the invading team will consist only of certain members of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association who happen to be abroad this winter. Smith and Dave Hinder, treasurer of the Eastern body, have booked passage from this port on Saturday.

Besides the pair mentioned, others expected to make the American team are Gilbert Nichols, Isaac Mackie, Barker and Peter Robertson. Nearly all of these "pros" finished well up in the national open championship tournament over the Englewood links in June. Although Hunter missed the prize list on that occasion, the Essex County man had the distinction of establishing a new record for the links of 68, figures that still remain unbeaten.

There is a growing belief among members of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association that it would be a wise move to hold their annual championship tournament at some other time of the year than the spring. It has long been customary to run this affair off the latter part of May, incidentally causing a conflict of dates with the men's metropolitan tournament. One reason for holding the women's so early has been to get the competition out of the way for the Eastern championship meeting, which follows early in June. An increase in the number of members of the metropolitan body stated last night that she was in favor of holding the tournament in the fall, or shortly before the national championship, when all the players would be in better practice. These and other questions will be seriously discussed at an executive committee meeting to be held shortly.

NEWARK BAY LOSES. Columbia Bowlers Win Odd Game in Athletic League.

The Newark Bay bowlers, leaders in the Athletic Bowling League, lost the odd game to the Columbia club five in a series rolled on the former's alleys last night. The leaders, after losing the first six games, pulled themselves together in the last contest. In another series rolled Montclair took all three games from Passaic. Columbia won the first game easily. Schultze carried the second for Montclair by striking out and returning a high score of 248, his best effort to date.

The Newark Bay team escaped a shut out by pulling the last game out of the fire in the tenth frame. Being 4 pins behind in the eighth frame, Newark Bay won out through the good bowling of Vreeland and Jaeger, who struck out.

WIN BY ONE GOAL

TIGERS GET A SCARE.

Cornell Beaten at Hockey After Extra Periods.

After playing for over an hour Princeton finally succeeded in scoring one goal and defeating Cornell at night. Nicholas Rink last night in the opening game of the Intercollegiate Hockey championship series. The two regular periods of twenty minutes each, an extra period of ten minutes and fifteen minutes of a fourth period went by without either team making a tally, and it looked as though the game would go on forever without a decision, for the play of the forwards was so ragged and the defence work of the goal keepers so strong that a score seemed impossible.

At length Cornell succeeded in landing the puck in the nets on a long waist and hard shot, thus bringing a tie. The end came as a relief and surprise to the spectators, for not to the players, for the contest began to assume the proportions of a six-day bicycle race.

Heldon has a more wretched game of hockey been seen in this city. It could even be called good, but was simply a slacking, heater skelter struggle, with each man intent only on his own play, apparently ignorant of the fact that he had six other mates to assist him.

In the early part of the game Cornell men forced the pace, but when Read, Princeton's coverpoint, got properly going in the second period they were put on the defensive. Read and Peacock were the whole team for the Tigers, the former continually going through the opposing line, but his forwards could not assist him when help was most needed. No man ever worked harder for victory, and he and Peacock deserve all the credit.

Both goal keepers played well, and it seemed an impossibility with the poor shooting and lack of inside work to ever pass them, and the only and deciding tally caught Matthal unawares.

The game was rough and there was no end of chopping and shoving, and several men were ruled off for infractions of the rules. Sawyer got a nasty cut on the head which delayed the game for several minutes in the first half. After having the wound dressed and his head bandaged he pluckily continued, until, well into the second period, when he had to give way to Angel.

Cornell took the aggressive at the start of play, but poor shooting and lack of team work frustrated the fast individual work of Magner and Crasweller, both of whom would shine on a good technical team, however, and in the entire half neither goal was in danger. Cornell was put out of the game for two minutes, and just before the whistle blew Lilly was sent to the bench for slashing. The latter was still off when the second period opened, but Princeton could not take advantage of his absence, although Read, who was getting into his stride, worked hard to score. He finally broke away and worked right into Cornell's territory, and passed to Sawyer, who made a good try. Then Magner rushed the puck back into Princeton's ice. Several times Read repeated fast rushes, but the necessary shot went wide. Then he changed his tactics and resorted to long shots, but he could not get into the nets. Princeton was improving with every minute's play. Before the second half ended Lilly and Magner were ruled off for tripping, and Read followed them for rough work.

Princeton had it all her own way in the extra period, but could not score before the allotted time was up, and then the teams went at it again. The remainder of the game was all Princeton, and after fifteen minutes the winning tally was made, as already told.

The line-up and summary follow: Princeton (1). Position. Cornell (6). Peacock.....Goal.....Matthal Blair.....Point.....Warner Read.....Cover point.....Lilly Kay.....Rover.....Magner McKinney.....Centre.....Jones Sawyer.....Left wing.....Jones Cornell.....Right wing.....Crasweller

"REDS" WANT A HOME.

Herrmann Anxious to Buy Baseball Grounds.

Cincinnati, Jan. 5.—President Herrmann said yesterday that if the Cincinnati Baseball Company could buy the ground upon which League Park is now located and a portion of the property back of the inclosure, the club would build a new grandstand and bleachers, besides widening and lengthening the field next year.

He is now conducting negotiations with the owners, and says he thinks arrangements for the purchase can be perfected. The grandstand will be built to accommodate 8,000 more persons and the bleachers 5,000 more than at present. The club will then own its own home, and can afford to go to this expense.
