

He stated further that he thought the railroad companies must withdraw the bill and demand all other tariff bills.