An imperfect CROSS article is as rare as a dividend.

We have been in business since 1845, but we have no old stock.

Buying inferior articles to save money is like stopping the clock to save time.

Novelty must be joined with good taste. To be "up-to-date" is a paltry ambition except in an almanac.

The reason so many succeed who mind their own business is because there are so few doing it. This is our 66th year.

There is a friendliness about English willow—you might say intimacy; light weight makes it companionable—you can take it with you on the piazza or the shady lawn.
