Every Possible Soldier, Gun and Cartridge Rushed to Front.

HUERTA ARMY GAINING Counter from the Field Report Rebels Are Driven Back to Jaula.

DAY'S DEVELOPMENTS
IN MEXICAN SITUATION
Mexico and Federals are engaged in a conflict expected to be the most severe since Washington. Battle of Jalapa will be a fight for the control of the interior of the province of Jalapa, where the government's forces are halted by the rebels. Elnico, a city 200 miles from Jalapa, has fallen recently under rebel command.

2,000 Men of the 9th
Regiment of the 2nd
Army Corps, under Major General
McDowell, began
operations yesterday at 8 o'clock, marching through the streets of Elnico and attacking the rebels.

The rebels, numbering about 500 men, are estimated to have at least 500 women and children, according to local reports. Elnico is believed to have been captured by the rebel forces.

Another battalion of the 2nd Army Corps is expected to arrive in the area
tomorrow.
