M'GRAW GETS LOOK AT HIS PLAYERS

Well Pleased with Condition of Giants, Who Have Been Training Hard.

SAYS HE HAS PLENTY OF GOOD PITCHERS

Chance That Snodgrass May Be Groomed for Shafer's Job at Third Base.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Marlin, Tex., March 11.—John J. McGraw completed his tour of the world from Marlin to Marlin to-day and relieved Dick Kinsella as commander of the Giants in training.

McGraw, four members of the world's tourists, and Dick Cotter, the recruit catcher, arrived here early this morning and no time was lost in arranging for a review of the troops. The first inspection was held at 10 o'clock this morning and another this afternoon, although the wind blew great guns at Emerson Park and weather conditions made a game impossible.

"Since I left Marlin last November I have been going west," said McGraw this noon, "and it is quite a relief for me to settle down here for three weeks and know I don't have to climb on a steamer again or dress for dinner every night. I took off ten pounds when we were over in Australia, but I regained part of it."

McGraw was not permitted to see the Marlin squad at its best, as a heavy rain last night was followed this morning by a big drop in temperature and a piercing wind that blew from the north all day. The diamond at Emerson Park was firm enough this afternoon, but wet spots showed all over the outfield. Under the conditions the practice was limited to the routine of pitching and batting, some hand ball and infield manœuvres.

Clad in his tourist baseball suit, McGraw was one of the first men on the field this morning. Dick Kinsella introduced the youngsters to him and identified them as they warmed up or swung their clubs in batting practice. Some of them McGraw had never heard of before, but Kinsella gave him their history and reported what progress they had made down here.

Snodgrass hung around third base so long there was much comment on the possibility of transforming him into an infielder this season.

Plez and Dyer were two recruits who evidently made a good first impression on the manager, for he explained many things to them and gave them some expert advice on foot placing and bunting. Dyer's fielding at short also was favorably commented on.

"Routine practice is all right as far as it goes," observed McGraw to-night, "but you can never tell how a young player will act until he gets in a game. That is the best practice of all, because it keeps a player up to mental effort. So far as I have observed, I have a great lot of material, and I must compliment Kinsella on the condition of the boys. One or two of them cut loose too freely the first day or two, but hot weather will bring them around all right.

"I have plenty of good pitchers and outfielders. Matty looks fine after his winter in California, and Tesreau never was in better condition at this time of the year.

"Marquard ought to start strong for us. He did not have the advantage of training here last season, and, therefore, it took some time for him to get going. I have six left handers, and should get at least two good ones out of the lot. Later I may make changes in the catching department and infield, but I cannot say how things will shape up, as I have given my team only the 'once over.'"

Cooper, who is threatening to jump to the Federals, is expected here from Fort Worth to-morrow to discuss his contract with McGraw, who says he did not receive any ultimatum from Cooper last week.

A visitor who arrived with McGraw this morning was Captain Tilhouston, of Havana, who will take the baths for two weeks. Captain Tilhouston is one of those fans who order their world's series seats in July.

AUGUSTA FANS IN GLOOM

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Augusta, Ga., March 11.—The game between Ty Cobb's team of Augusta players and the Superbas was called off, the building inspector declaring the grandstand, which is being thoroughly overhauled, unsafe.

The Superbas started a scrub game, but before it had gone very far a high wind sprang up, making it hard for the outfielders to judge high flies. Robbie made them play the game out, so that the players could perfect themselves in signals and sliding to the bases.

Aitchison seems likely to give Nap Rucker a hard fight for pitching honors. The one-time Newark pitcher has developed a fadeaway ball, which is something out of the ordinary for a southpaw. While it is not as good as Matty's, Robinson feels sure that he can improve its effectiveness before going north.

Big Salary for Cicotte.

Chicago, March 11.—Eddie Cicotte, pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, has signed a new contract "at one of the largest salaries paid a pitcher in the American League," according to a message received here to-day from Sacramento. Cicotte had been a "hold-out."

was made to-day to George Baumgardner, pitcher of the St. Louis American League team, by George Stovall, manager of the Kansas City Federal League Club.

Shafer Quits to Save Hair

Arthur Shafer, the third baseman, who almost lost a year's salary with the Giants because he did not like the perfume that is used in scented notes, has discovered a brand new reason for quitting the game.

In a dispatch from Stanford, Cal., Shafer is quoted as saying:

"My hair is turning gray and I aged ten years while playing with the New York Giants last season.

"Nothing would induce me to return to the game, and that is what I wired McGraw yesterday in reply to a telegram asking if my decision to quit was final."

It is believed that the New York club may offer the player not only a higher salary than his contract calls for but free hair tonic as well.

ROBINSON DAY AT LAST A REALITY

Charles H. Ebbets plans to make Wilbert Robinson just as famous as Columbus. He has found a new holiday and named it after the rotund manager of the Superbas.

The Yankees will meet the Brooklyn team at Ebbets Field on April 2, snow or ice not intervening. The date will be known as Robinson Day, and has already been marked in red letters on the office calendar of the Brooklyn club.

It will be Robinson's first appearance here as a major league manager.

Arthur Shafer, who complains that his hair turned gray while he played with the Giants, is not the first ball player to have suffered from the inroads of silvery locks. Tris Speaker is already iron gray and getting whiter. Larry Doyle has a fair supply of gray hairs, and Honus Wagner is quite a snowbird.

Baseball gray hairs do not come from worry, as Shafer supposes, but from the practice of wearing tight caps.

Jeff Tesreau is the latest of the Giants to take up golf. Jeff still refers to his clubs as "sticks" and calls the shafts "handles." In golf, as in pitching, he possesses plenty of speed, but lacks control.

James J. Morton, the monologist, who is an ardent rooter for the Giants, became involved in a baseball argument the other day with an actor from St. Louis. Morton's opponent spoke so bitingly of the Giants that the vaudevillian became thoroughly aroused.

"There, just for that," cried Morton, "I hope the Cardinals lose the world's series."

Walter Ward, secretary of the Tip Tops, denied yesterday that Art Griggs had been signed for the Brooklyn club.

CHAPMAN BREAKS A LEG

Ray Chapman, shortstop of the Naps, broke his leg yesterday at the training camp of the Cleveland club. Chapman was one of the mainstays of the infield, and as the accident probably will keep him out for the greater part of the season the chances of his club in the American League penant race are much impaired.

The Feds lost a man for whom they have been angling when Ray Collins signed a two-year contract yesterday with the Red Sox. The left-hand pitcher has been dickering with the Boston club for some time, and was able to make his own terms, as he had received an offer from the Federal League. Collins is with his teammates at Hot Springs, Ark.

SWEENEY TO CUBS, BUT NOT PERDUE

Taft Solves Controversy Over Players Involved in the Evers Sale.

Chicago, March 11.—W. J. Sweeney will play with the Chicago Cubs and Hub Perdue will remain with Boston.

This solution of the controversy over the players involved in the Evers sale was telephoned here to-day by C. P. Taft, owner of the Cubs, to C. W. Murphy, former president of the club, who still is acting president.

Murphy had a representative at Macon, Ga., where the Boston Braves are training, and Sweeney signed a three-year contract to play second base for the Cubs.

Mr. Taft did not state on what authority he based his announcement, but simply declared that the controversy over the players had been officially settled.

ATHLETIC LEAGUE BOWLING

New York A. C. Team Wins Three Games and Takes Lead.

Taking all three games from the Columbia Club in Hoboken last night, the New York Athletic Club took the lead in the Athletic Bowling League.

Roseville, which heretofore has been tied with New York and Jersey City for the lead, won only two games at Elizabeth, while Jersey City took two at home from Passaic.

Notre Dame Football Dates.

Notre Dame, Ind., March 11.—The football schedule of Notre Dame University for 1914 was announced last night as follows:

October 3, Alma College at Notre Dame; October 10, freshmen with 'varsity; October 17, Yale at New Haven; October 24, South Dakota at Sioux Falls; October 31, Haskell at Notre Dame; November 7, Army at West Point; November 14, Carlisle at Chicago; November 26, Syracuse at Syracuse.

GOLF QUEST FOR ENGLISH TITLE ON

Travers and Herreshoff to Sail Away on the Baltic This Morning.

CHAMPION TO WORK HARD ON HIS GAME

Francis Ouimet and Lockwood Once More Change Sailing Date to March 29.

The first link in the international golf chain that will soon hold the interests of two continents will be forged to-day when Jerome D. Travers, of Upper Montclair and Fred Herreshoff, of Garden City, sail away on the Baltic. As holder of the triple crown emblematic of the national metropolitan and New Jersey amateur titles Travers will, of course, command chief attention.

It was in 1909 that Travers tried his luck before, the scene of action in the British championship tournament that year being the Muirfield links. He made an indifferent showing then, but he is a far more determined and finished golfer now, and his friends rather expect to see him do something worth while at Sandwich the third week in May.

If Travers does succeed in getting at the top of his game it will probably only be as a result of hard practice. The changing of putters is in itself an undertaking sufficient to confuse the average exponent of the game, yet the champion does not hesitate to express confidence in his ability to force some substitute to do the work satisfactorily.

Even should Travers get his short game working with all of its erstwhile deadliness he will still have to reckon with those unruly wooden clubs. To succeed at Sandwich one must not only drive far, but straight. Travers realizes this and intends to devote a large part of his long preparation toward straightening out his long game.

Like his companion, Herreshoff has also competed for the British crown, but he feels that he never really got going during that previous attempt. Herreshoff has done unusually well in this country, his record pointing to two United States Golf Association championships in which he reached the final bracket. Herreshoff also has been the metropolitan titleholder.

Once more the date for the sailing of Francis Ouimet, the open champion, and Arthur G. Lockwood for England has been changed. After the time had been advanced from April 14 to March 31, it was learned that the Carmania, which was scheduled to start from Boston on the latter date, will leave New York on March 25 instead. Arrangements have therefore been made for them to go on the Lapland from Boston at noon on March 29. The golfers will land at Dover and go at once to Sandwich.

The handicap list of the Metropolitan Golf Association for 1914 went to press yesterday minus the reports of four clubs, Hollywood, Midland, Ocean and Piping Rock. Sixty-two clubs are represented in the list.

Considerable attention is being given the turf at the Salisbury links, near Garden City, where the metropolitan open championship was run off last August. Practically all that is needed outside of a longer inward journey is good turf, and if this is accomplished the links will be vastly improved. A heavy treatment of nourishment is being given the course.

SIMONS WINS GOLF TITLE

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Palm Beach, Fla., March 11.—One of the most remarkable golf matches that a Palm Beach gallery ever followed resulted when W. R. Simons, of Garden City, defeated Harold Weber, of Toledo, in the 36-hole final round for the state amateur golf championship here to-day.

Simons played phenomenal golf and won five of the six holes played between the eighth and thirteenth holes, and to cap the climax holed a putt from off the green for a 3 at the 360-yard sixteenth hole for the match and the title.

In the second flight E. H. Fitler, of Philadelphia, defeated John Shepard, jr., a former Rhode Island champion, from Boston. Fitler was in 35, and continued this sort of golf until the match was over by an 8—6 margin.

BURNLEY WINS CUP TIE

Big Crowd Sees Replay of Match in English Soccer Fixture

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

London, March 11.—The replayed English cup tie between Burnley and Sunderland took place on the ground of the former before 55,000 excited persons here to-day. Each side scored a goal at half time, but Burnley secured the lead soon after resuming, and, playing desperately to keep their powerful rivals out, beat them amid tremendous excitement by a score of 2 to 1.

The replayed cup tie between Sheffield United and Manchester City will be played to-morrow.

One first and one second Association League game was played, Preston North End beating Manchester United at 4 to 2, while Clapton Orient put a severe damper on Leeds City's hopes of promotion by a score of 3 to 1 before their own supporters.

TAFT NOT LIKELY TO SELL THE CUBS

So Says Chicago Man on Hearing Report of His Agent, Who Made Bid for Stock.

Chicago, March 11.—"The Chicago National League Baseball Club will not be sold this year, in my belief," said John R. Thompson to-night, after receiving the report of his emissary, who had a long conference yesterday in Cincinnati with Charles P. Taft.

"Mr. Taft would not set a price for the stock he holds in the club," said Mr. Thompson, "and as far as my agent could determine he has not seriously considered selling his interest.

"He has scores of telegraphic and mail offers which he has not even answered, and he as much as said to Sidney B. Goldenberg, my representative, that he had as much property interest in Chicago as any resident. He felt that he could be regarded as a Chicagoan."

KELLY POOL---WINNER OF THE BIG POT

St. Nicholas Wins Final Game and League Title

Hockey Club Makes a Game Fight Despite Changes in Line-up—Lewis Star at Goal.

In the most interesting game of the winter the St. Nicholas Skating Club defeated the Hockey Club of New York by a score of 4 goals to 3 at the St. Nicholas Skating Rink last night.

The contest was the final game of the double round robin for the championship and gave the title to the St. Nicholas team. Had the Hockey Club, holder of the championship cup last winter, won the game the teams would have been tied for the title and it would have been necessary to have played another game. The victory gives the St. Nicholas team its first leg on the new championship cup. Hockey Club also has a leg on the trophy.

The game was remarkably clean and interesting. During the first period St. Nicholas had decidedly the better of the struggle. Had it not been for the wonderful work of Lewis before the Hockey Club cage the former champions would have been badly beaten.

Lewis made no less than seventeen wonderful stops in the opening session. The three pucks that slipped by him never would have been stopped by any goalkeeper. Pierson was only called upon to make eight stops, and one of these slipped into the net in the first period.

During the second half Hockey Club played desperately and did far better work than the new champions. The fortunes of war were against the Hockey Club throughout the game. An offside goal in the first period practically won the game for St. Nicholas. It was the third tally made by the winner and it was shot by Turrell. The St. Nicholas player received the puck on an offside pass from Fellows-Morgan.

The line-up follows:

St. Nicholas (4).	Position.	Hockey Club (3).
Pierson	G.	Lewis
Trimble	P.	Gordon
Hill	C. P.	Britton
Ellis	L. W.	Mackenzie
Morgan	C.	Fredericks
Turrell	R. W.	Young

Referee—E. Dufresne, Irish-American A. C. Assistant referee—C. Martin, Crescent A. C. Goal umpires—C. Kear, Irish-American A. C., and E. MacDonnell, Wanderers Hockey Club. Timers—W. J. Croker, Wanderers, and W. Stuart, Hockey Club. Penalty timers—E. J. O'Donnell, New York A. C., and F. Ellison, Wanderers.

FIRST PERIOD.

Goals—Fredericks, Hockey Club, 3:00; Turrell, St. Nicholas, 11:16; Hill, St. Nicholas, 14:18; Turrell, St. Nicholas, 16:18. Score: St. Nicholas, 3; Hockey Club, 1.

Substitutes—Berry for Mackenzie, White for Gordon.

SECOND PERIOD.

Penalties—Britton, 2 minutes for tripping.

Substitutes—Howard for Fredericks, Fredericks for White.

YANKEES ENJOY A REAL DAY OF REST

Rain in Night Turns the Field at Houston Camp Into a Mud Pond.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Houston, Tex., March 11.—This was the second dull day of the stay here for the Yankees, but perhaps not the least profitable. A heavy rain last night left the diamond ankle deep in mud and the outfield a pond. Chance gave the grounds the "once over" and declared a holiday.

The game scheduled between Houston and the regulars will be played to-morrow afternoon if conditions are favorable, but the break in the training will do more good than harm, in the opinion of Frank Chance. The men have been travelling at top speed for more than a week without a let-up.

The rest gave "Doc" Barrett, the trainer, a fine opportunity to work on his cripples, most of whom have got well along to normal condition. Under favorable conditions Chance would have worked his men to-day, despite a chill atmosphere. He is afraid of bumping into a stretch of unfavorable weather.

Regardless of conditions, however, the boys will have to get out and hustle to-morrow. If outdoor work is impossible Chance will take his men to the auditorium.

Jimmy Eschen, the Jersey City outfielder, is suffering from a slight attack of grip. He remained in bed all day, but was reported much improved to-night.

Reach Final Round on Courts.

Pinehurst, N. C., March 11.—Lawrence Cowing, of Cincinnati, will play R. A. Burns, of Toronto, to-morrow, for the men's singles championship of the Pinehurst lawn tennis tournament.

The contest advanced to the final stage to-day. Four teams still remain in the contest for the mixed doubles championship.

BASKETBALL SERIES STILL IN STATU QUO

Columbia Faculty Defers Meeting to Pass on Case Another Day.

Negotiations for the play-off of the tie for the intercollegiate basketball championship between Columbia and Cornell remained unchanged yesterday, and it is now almost certain that even if the game is scheduled, which is doubtful, it will not be played until Wednesday of next week and that it will take place in a New York City armory, rather than at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia.

The situation regarding the post-season game, aside from the fact that the Columbia faculty committee on student organizations deferred its meeting until this noon, was further complicated by the Cornell faculty, which, according to a letter which Ralph Morgan, secretary of the Intercollegiate Basketball League, received from G. Ervin Kent, graduate manager of athletics, is undecided whether to permit the Ithacans to play off for the title.

In view of the fact that the game could not be definitely scheduled until to-day at noon, Harry Fisher, graduate manager of athletics at Columbia and coach of the five, said that it would be impossible for him to get his team in trim on such short notice. It has not practised since last week, and Fisher said he would want at least two or three days to get the combination back into condition.

A man high in authority in athletics at Columbia said yesterday afternoon that he did not believe either the Cornell or the Columbia faculty would grant permission to play off the tie. According to this man, who did not wish to be quoted, the best interests of intercollegiate athletics would be furthered were the game not played.

Big Bonus for Johnny Evers

Macon, Ga., March 11.—John J. Evers, deposed manager of the Chicago Cubs, received a check for $25,000 to-day as a bonus for signing a contract with the Boston Braves.

"It had been reported Evers was to receive $20,000," said Gaffney as he handed a slip of paper to the second baseman, "but here is the check. Evers may, if he wishes, tell the amount."

PUT ANDERSON AT SCRATCH

Ranked with Ouimet in Massachusetts Golf List.

Boston, March 11.—Francis Ouimet, national open golf champion and the state amateur title holder, and John G. Anderson, runner up to Jerome Travers for the national amateur championship, were placed at scratch on the handicap list of the Massachusetts Golf Association, which was announced here to-night.

Six players were handicapped at 1—W. C. Chick, Percival Gilbert, R. E. Gorton, H. Schmidt, H. W. Stucklen and P. W. Whittemore. There were no players rated at 2.

The 3 players were: F. H. Hoyt, V. H. Lawrence, A. G. Lockwood, S. K. Sterne and Henry W. Wilder. More than four thousand names appear on the list.

CHRYSTOPHINE SETS WORLD'S MILE MARK

Juarez, Mexico, March 11.—Christophine, a three-year-old filly owned by the Western turfman, S. Veiller, broke the world's mile record on a circular track at the Juarez course this afternoon, going the distance in 1:36 4-5.

The record formerly was 1:37, made by Bonne Chance, Jefferson Livingstone's five-year-old.

Christophine is a daughter of Plaudit, the noted sire, and is entered in all the big Kentucky stakes.

Wesleyan Five Honors Eaton.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Middletown, Conn., March 11.—Arthur C. Eaton, of Westfield, Mass., was to-day re-elected captain of the Wesleyan basketball team for the next year.

Eaton has played three years at forward and has twice been chosen a member of the All-New England five.

HEDDON'S CUE PUTS DOWAGIAC ON MAP

MATCH BY FAR THE BEST OF TOURNEY

In a game that sparkled with brilliancy on the part of both contestants, Joseph Mayer, national amateur champion at 18.1 balk-line billiards, defeated Charles Heddon, of Dowagiac, Mich., yesterday afternoon by a score of 400 to 262 points. The contest took place in the rooms of the Amateur Billiard Club, where the struggle for the Class A amateur championship is in progress.

Until Heddon began to click off his shots with surprising ease and technique, nobody probably had ever heard of Dowagiac, Mich. When Heddon left the table, however, after the game was over, he had stamped the name of his home town indelibly on the map—in the minds of all billiard players and followers.

In vanquishing Heddon, Mayer was forced to his best efforts. He made high runs of 75, 69 and 69, and an average of 19 1-21, all of which are the high figures thus far in the tournament.

But the man from Michigan was far from disgraced, his own average being 12 10-21, which, next to the champion's, is the best put up by the other players.

When Charles F. Conklin, the referee, announced that Heddon would meet Mayer in the afternoon game, the spectators took it as a matter of course that the champion would win and win easily. Who had ever heard of Charles Heddon and what had he ever accomplished?

The visitor, although making his bow in a championship tournament, refused to be overawed by the company he was in. After winning the break and choosing the spot ball, he proceeded to gather a cluster of 25 points. The delicacy of his touch and the perfect freedom of his stroke at once brought forth favorable comment from all sides.

Were the balls in balk or spread across the table, it made no difference to Heddon. His long draw shots were marvels of skill, and his playing of difficult massé shots with either hand brought the spectators to their feet upon more than one occasion.

Mayer failed to get a point in his first two turns at the table, and at the end of the third inning found himself with four lone points against Heddon's 49. In the next inning Heddon proceeded to click off 21, while the best Mayer could do was a single tally. In the sixth turn at the table the Michigan unknown proceeded to run up a pretty cluster of 39, giving him a total of 109 to Mayer's 14.

The visitor went all around the table in getting his high run, alternating the most delicate of kiss, massé and cushion shots with drives of surprising speed and accuracy, wielding his cue with a fine arm.

But "champions must be served," and Mayer started playing almost unbeatable billiards, nothing seeming to faze him or give him cause for hesitation. He reeled off his plays with the speed and precision of a professional, getting runs of 69 in both the fourteenth and eighteenth innings and keeping the balls almost entirely at one end of the table.

In three turns at the table, namely, the eighth, fourteenth and eighteenth, the champion amassed a total of 213 points, and even the imperturbable Heddon could not stand before this.

The summary follows:

Joseph Mayer (white ball)—0, 0, 4, 1, 7, 2, 39, 25, 0, 6, 29, 2, 14, 69, 0, 25, 0, 69, 41, 0, 2. Total, 400 points; average 19 1-21; high runs, 75, 69 and 69.

Charles Heddon (spot ball)—25, 3, 21, 21, 6, 20, 1, 0, 21, 9, 3, 0, 11, 9, 11, 18, 25, 12, 5, 6, 20. Total, 262 points; average, 12 10-21; high runs, 39, 31 and 25.

Referee—Charles F. Conklin. Marker—Robert Weld.

In the evening Dr. Walter E. Uffenheimer won his second straight victory in defeating Eugene L. Milburn, of Memphis, in a game that was remarkable only in the consistency of the winner's play. He gained double figures in thirteen innings and scored his final point in the thirty-seventh inning, with an average of 10 30-37 and high runs of 45, 23 and 23. Milburn, who was far from his true form, had an average of 6 16-37 and a total of 258. His high runs were 52, 23 and 22.

This afternoon Heddon will meet Gardner, and Porgenburg and Dr. Uffenheimer will oppose each other in the evening.

Dr. Uffenheimer (spot ball)—2, 1, 20, 9, 1, 15, 5, 9, 22, 0, 0, 6, 2, 4, 4, 6, 0, 21, 2, 9, 6, 22, 45, 2, 2, 2, 2, 25, 23, 3, 26, 15, 0, 4, 12, 14, 27; total, 460 points; average, 10 20-37; high runs, 45, 23 and 23.

Eugene L. Milburn (white ball)—4, 1, 1, 1, 3, 2, 22, 10, 4, 4, 2, 0, 1, 4, 0, 2, 21, 9, 4, 19, 6, 4, 9, 1, 3, 2, 0, 12, 23, 7, 0, 0, 0, 1, 2, 6; total, 238 points; average, 6 6-37; high runs, 22, 23 and 23.

Referee—Charles F. Conklin. Marker—D. McAleenan.

JAFFE TIES FOR PRIZE

Charles Jaffe, by winning his adjourned game from O. Chajes in the final round of the annual championship tournament of the Progressive Chess Club yesterday, tied for first and second prizes with A. Kopchik.

The latter had previously finished with a score of 10 to 1, without losing a game and defeating both Jaffe and Chajes in their individual encounters.

AUTOMOBILES. AUTOMOBILES.

Those Saxons— they're here

They have arrived—those Saxons—that everybody has been talking about. The first shipment reached New York yesterday. Car loads follow. New York gets only 1,000—one-fifth the number wanted. Costs but 2 cents a mile to run—a penny a mile per passenger—50 miles on a Saturday or a Sunday only $1. Roomy; rides over rough roads easier than a big car. Standard tread; Continental, water cooled, long stroke, high speed motor; dry plate clutch; sliding gear transmission; shaft drive; wire wheels—French lines; very beautiful. Snappy in traffic; a bear on the hill. Ride in it today. Demonstrations from 9 A. M. till 9 P. M.
