$1,000,000 Involved in Heights Building Plan

Three Apartments Will Be Built on Former Smith Property.

MORE ACTIVITY IN DYCKMAN SECTION

Max Marx Adds to His Extensive Holdings by Purchase of Four More Lots.

The fifteen lots on the north side of 151st street, between Fort Washington avenue and Riverside Drive, which were bought by Harris & Maurice Mandelbaum earlier in the month from the Loyal L. Smith estate were resold by them yesterday to the Friedman Construction Company, of which Henry Friedman is president.

The site, which measures 375x100 feet, is to be improved by the buying company with three six story elevator apartment houses, which will contain thirty-five rooms on a floor. Purchase of the property by the Mandelbaums from the Smith estate and the pending resale of the property were reported in The Tribune on March 8. It is planned to have the houses ready for occupancy in the fall. The entire operation will involve in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

Further activity was shown in the Dyckman section by the sale of a plot of four lots at the northwest corner of Ninth avenue and 215th street to Max Marx, who has extensive holdings in the district. The property, which has a frontage of 100 feet on each thoroughfare, was sold by T. G. Galardi & Co. It was acquired by the sellers last July from the Edward Crowley estate in an exchange for the new apartment house at Nos. 35 and 37 Vermilyea avenue, near Academy street. The Crowley family had owned the property for half a century.

Ennis & Sinnott have resold the northeast corner of Amsterdam avenue and 157th street, a five story flathouse, on a lot 25x100 feet. The buyer is Diedrich Angelbeck, who gave in part payment No. 110 West 121st street, a three story dwelling house, on a lot 20x100 feet, between Lenox and Seventh avenues. Frederick Zittel & Son and A. J. Norman negotiated the transaction. The Heights corner was acquired by Ennis & Sinnott last month from Mrs. Orphelia A. Byrnes through the Louis Becker Company.

Anthony F. Koelbe has sold the five story new-law house at No. 145 Wadsworth avenue, on a plot 57.6x100 feet, to Martin B. Phillips, who gave in part payment the small vacant block front on the north side of 152d street, between St. Nicholas Place and St. Nicholas avenue. The property fronts 121.9 feet in 152d street, 25 feet on St. Nicholas Place and 25.8 feet on St. Nicholas avenue, with a northerly line measuring 127.2 feet. Mrs. Phillips had owned the plot since 1897.

Other sales announced follow:

MANHATTAN.

118TH STREET—Samuel Fine has resold for Abraham Wallenstein to Jenny Rothstein No. 6 East 118th street, a five story tenement, on lot 25x100.11 feet, near Fifth avenue. This makes the third sale of this property within five weeks.

BUYS FINE SITE FOR HOME

Goodhue Livingston Will Erect House in 95th Street.

William B. May & Co. have sold to Goodhue Livingston, the architect, the plot on the north side of 95th street, 150 feet east of Fifth avenue. The plot, which has a frontage of 36.6 feet and a depth of 100.8½ feet, will be improved by the new owner with a dwelling house for his own occupancy.

It is a part of a plot with a 160-foot frontage which Ernesto G. Fabbri purchased about a year and a half ago. The remainder of the plot is to be improved with a dwelling house by Mr. Fabbri for his own occupancy. The proposed dwelling house of Mr. Livingston will adjoin the dwelling house being erected by Mrs. Amory S. Carhart.

MUST REGISTER HOUSES

$50 Fine for Tenement Owners Who Fail to Do So.

Tenement House Commissioner John J. Murphy yesterday said that the tenement house law requires every owner of a tenement house to register with the Tenement House Department his ownership and certain other details concerning the house within thirty days of becoming the owner of the same, and that failure to do this renders a person liable to a fine of $50 on the discovery of the omission. Speaking further on the subject he said:

"The department will be pleased to furnish, on application, blanks which owners can fill out and return to us. Compliance with this order is as much in the interest of the owners as of the department.

"Persons who sell tenement houses will save themselves possible trouble if they will also send notice to the Tenement House Department that such sale has been made. When such notice is received and verified, the department ceases to send such persons notice of violations on such property. In some cases the department, not being apprised of change of ownership, begins legal proceedings against former owners. Much annoyance would be saved if sellers would notify the department."

Estate at Rye Leased.

Kenneth Ives & Co. have leased for William Porter Allen his home, garage and 2½ acres, on the Post Road, Rye, for a term of years; and for Sydney A. Lawton, his home on the Post Road, Rye, for the summer season.
