

LIVELY TURF SPORT ON WHITNEY ESTATE

Meadow Brook Hunt Cup Is Easily the Feature of the Day.

WON BY INDICATOR IN THRILLING RUN

Meet Open to Public and Affords Long Island Farmer a Chance to Splurge.

James Park, on his brown jumper, Indicator, won the twenty-first running of the Meadow Brook Hunt Cup yesterday in a race that will be long remembered by the lovers of amateur racing.

H. P. Whitney had thrown wide the gates of his Wheatley Hills estate and invited all who cared to be present at the one-day sporting meeting of the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association.

Net a fall of mishap marred the race, and all but Uncle finished going strong. Uncle belted and cut into the field, creating a few seconds of excitement among the spectators.

J. Watson Webb's Octette, which won the Rockaway Cup at the Hewlett Park meeting a week ago, started out to repeat her performance. She set the pace, and a fast one, too, for about two miles, with the field well lunched behind her.

Up to this time Mr. Park had ridden a waiting race on Indicator, slowly but surely moving toward the front.

The field rounded into the stretch which was the real Garrison indicator passed Rockland in the last 300 yards, to win by a scant length.

It was a great day for the farmers. They, especially, were the guests of Mr. Whitney. The farmer's race seems to have been relegated to the junk pile on Long Island, at any rate.

There was a thunder shower that every one shared in. It came on the heels of the third race and sent the crowd scurrying for shelter.
